Varsity Mania

Saturday was yet another victory for the Red Shirts and Varsity-Mania. The Red Shirts beat the UPEI Panthers by a score of 1 - 0. This win was witnessed by an exuberant crowd of over 1250. A record attendance for Chapman Field!

House of the day goes to the Knights from Neill who showed up in their vibrant yellow and green to topple the eleven time winners, Aitken House. Congratulations guys, you did great! Can't wait till next time!

Another surprise was the fine showing from the Ladies of Tibbits Hall. The girls showed tons of UNB spirit as they painted their hair, faces and any other visible body parts! It has taken these girls a while to come out of their shell but now that they have, it's fantastic!

The Red Tide introduced their new school cheer called, what else, the "Red Tide." This was received with great enthusiasm.

The Recreation Office is in the process of compiling a list of current addresses and phone numbers for contact persons for all sports clubs. If your club has not yet submitted this information, please contact the Recreation Office immediately. Anyone interested in joining a particular club should contact the Recreation Office, Room A121 L.B. Gym 12:00 - 4:00 pm.

Women's Soccer

The UNB Women's Soccer Club (the Yeowomen) tied and lost in a pair of exhibition games in Antigonish last weekend. UNB tied the St. FX X-cutes 3-3 in the initial game Nancy Washburn, George Anne Langley and Kate Black scored for the Yeowomen. Injuries from the first match hurt the team and UNB had to play a woman short against Mount Allison. UNB went down to defeat to Mt. A. 3-1. Kate Black scored the lone goal for the Yeowomen.

C. Fury

If you were wondering what that person beside you was singing in class, it was probably the "Red Tide." Awesome was used to describe these guys as they will play or do anything requested.

Another congratulations to the five "Fans of the Game." This award, sponsored by Moosehead, goes out to the five most outrageous UNB'ers that day. They received a limited edition "Fan of the Game" T-shirt donated by Coastal Graphics. Hey, B.M., don't you think it's time that you took yours off?!

This week, Varsity-Mania hits the road with the Red Shirts to take on Mount A. I'm sure that all of those UNB'ers who are attending this Varsity-Mania Voyage will have a terrific time. Mount A isn't going to know what hit them!
