

Ottawa, February 12, 1913.

Dear Sir,-

With reference to your application to purchase a part, practically the balance of the Woodstock Indian reserve, New Brunswick, made sometime ago to this Department, I am directed to advise you that the matter was regularly submitted to the Indians on the 28th ultimo and they by a large majority refused to consent to the land in question being alienated.

Yours truly,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

J. S. C. Wetmore, Esq.,

Woodstock, New Brunswick.
