

VIII. A motion must be seconded, and afterwards repeated from the Chair, or read aloud, before it is debated. It shall be reduced to writing if any member require it.

IX. All Resolutions shall be submitted in writing.

X. No Councillor shall speak more than twice upon any question, except in explanation; and the originator of the motion shall have the general reply. The Council may give any member special leave to speak oftener.

XI. While the Council is sitting, and any Councillor is speaking, no member shall be allowed to speak or whisper so as to interrupt him, unless it be to speak to order, or to ask the Chairman for leave to explain. Leave to explain shall only permit the explanation of an actual misunderstanding of language.

XII. When any Councillor intends to speak, he must stand up and respectfully address the Chair, and confine himself to the question under debate. He must avoid personalities and unbecoming language, and sit down when he has finished. If more than one rise at a time the Chairman shall determine who was up first, and the member named by him may speak.

XIII. No Councillor shall stand while another is speaking.

XIV. When any Councillor speaks to order, the question of order must be decided before the subject under discussion is proceeded in.

XV. When any question is called for, and a division demanded, the Councillors voting in the affirmative shall rise.

XVI. When a motion is made and seconded, it must be determined by the question being put, unless it is withdrawn by the mover, or the adjournment is moved.

XVII. When any motion is put from the Chair, and an amendment is moved thereto, no amendment to such amendment shall be allowed.

XVIII. An amendment to a Resolution shall be put from the Chair, and decided first, and the original Resolution shall not be put unless the amendment is decided in the negative.

XIX. On an amendment to "strike out and insert," the paragraph to be amended shall first be read as it stands; then the words proposed to be struck out and those to be inserted; and finally the paragraph as it would stand if so amended.

XX. On a call for a division of the question, the majority shall decide. The call shall only be granted where the division for will produce distinct and entire propositions
