

NY'S LIST.

H.
ature and incident.
ates, and describes
with while building
8vo. Cloth, $1.50;

pire, by JAMES

s force and ability
a fine specimen of per, 75c.

PAUL LAWRENCE
Dixie."

and will make its
s what is in his
ams. Crown 8vo.

AXWELL GRAY,
Maitland," etc.

ever author guar-
of the character
are scenes in the
o. Cloth, $1.50;

critics to be its
the book is sure 75; Paper, 75c.

. STODDARD.

stirring period
heart. Crown

ST-PAID

A Duet with an Occasional Chorus

By A. CONAN DOYLE

Author of "Uncle Bernac," "Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes," etc.

Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.50. Paper, 75c.

Press Notices :

"We thank Dr. Doyle for his charming volume and say farewell with extreme regret."—Illustrated London News.

"It is all very sweet and graceful."—London Telegraph.

"A bright story. All the characters are well drawn."—London Mail.

"'Charming' is the one word to describe this volume adequately. Dr. Doyle's crisp style, and his rare wit and refined humor, utilized with cheerful art that is perfect of its kind, fill these pages with joy and gladness for the reader."—Philadelphia Press.

"'A Duet' is bright, brave, simple, natural, delicate. It is the most artistic and most original thing that its author has done. We can heartily recommend 'A Duet' to all classes of readers."—Chicago Times Herald.

AT ALL BOOKSELLERS OR POSTPAID FROM

George N. Morang & Company Limited

PUBLISHERS AND IMPORTERS

Toronto