

products there can
sooner or later it
y other source of

r-power will out-
e other only so
arer steam-power
per water-power
ind-power" may
ries, to an extent
wers in cheapness

c large and more
before long. As the price of coal
o been. Having
n manufacturers
many important
plied the world.
perience, capital,
nada a new field
which the timid
to unfurl), they
ir command and
"the industrial
re rendered the
such rare facili-
Liverpool and
tributing points
not required for ighbors on this

strate, &c., &c.