

- Grier, John A., quoted, 67.
Guyot of Provence mentions mariner's compass, 21.
- Halske, double transmission, 114.
Harmonic telegraphy, 120.
    receivers, 125.
    relay, 130.
- Hawksbee, Francis, electrician, 7.
Heat, a mode of motion, 40.
    related to atoms, 42.
    begins and ends in matter, 44.
    electrical and mechanical energy the same, 46.
- Henry, Joseph, first practical telegrapher, 90.
    constructs long-distance line, 94.
    produces induction, 177.
- Heraclea and the loadstone, 20.
Hertz experiments in ether-waves, 178.
Homer refers to loadstone, 20.
Horse-power, 214.
House, Royal E., printing telegraph, 108, 110.
Hughes, David E., printing telegraph, 108, 112.
- Induction, 56.
    guarded against, 169.
    produced by Henry, 177.
- Keeper of a magnet, 31.
Kelvin, Lord (Sir W. Thompson), cable message receiver, 158.
"Kick," in telegraphy, 115, 118.
Kleist and the Leyden jar, 8.
- "Let her buzz," 3.
Leyden jar invented, 8.
Lightning, electricity; Franklin, 8.
    restoration of equilibrium, 78.