"How is it that a young man on the Indian list can get liquor?" asked a citizen this morning. "I know a young man who is his own worst enemy. He is a good worker and nice fellow, but he will get drunk whenever he can get liquor. He is on the Indian list, yet I saw him reeling down the street last Friday and again Saturday. There is somereeting down the street last Friday and again Saturday. There is something wrong somewhere when the young man can get the liquor that is ruining him, and I would like to know where the trouble is. There is no excuse for giving the boy liquor and there is a good chance for the police to get busy."

DIED AT WARDSVILLE

Wardsville, Ont., June 14. — Mrs. Winny Murphy, widow of the late Wm. Murphy, was seized with an apopletic stroke Tuesday evening and died on Friday morning. Mrs. Murphy's life has been a particularly sad one. Shortly after her marriage Wm. Murphy, who was a printer in the Argus office in this city in the early fifties, and a brother of Hugh Murphy, who was a description of the Watorworks Department, was advised to try a western climate on account of ill-health, but the change was not beneficial, and he died soon after arriving in the Northwest. change was not beneficial, and he died soon after arriving in the Northwest. The railway was not finished much further than Winnipeg in those days, and Mrs. Murphy had to drive from Regina with the body of her husband in a wagon. The season was rainy and the roads in a bad condition. The driver lost his way and Mrs. Murphy had a terrible experience before reaching Winnipeg. Shortly after her father, the late Adam Corneill, died suddenly while at work in his carrisweating of the first and the bring the dead body of her brother home for burial, and two years ago her mother died from the effects of a paralytic stroke. Her mother was a sister of the late John Watterworth, M. P. P., of Middlesex, who died this spring. Mrs. Murphy leaves two brothers to mourn her loss—George Corneilll, of this place, and W. W., of Montana.

 TROUBLE IN SIGHT

The Tupperville school question is far from settled yet. The latest development in the case is that the County Council did not appoint by by-law, the arbitrators, Judge Bell, Robert Park, I. P. S., and A. M. Mason, of Camden. It is required that the arbitrators be appointed by by-law, therefore the appointment is not valid. The matter will either have to stand over till the December sessions of the County Council or a sessions of the County Council or a special meeting be called. The latter would be quite expensive, as the by-law has to be passed on two days.

PREACHER HELD UP

A good story is told on one of our Maple City clergyman. It appears that he took in the excursion lown the river the other evening. One of the band boys who was not acquainted with the clergyman, was much in need of some chewing tobacco. He asked one of his fellow players if there was anyone around who used the weed. anyone around who used the weed.
The latter pointed to the clergyman and said, "Ask Bill, there."
The bandsman with the appetite strode up to the clergyman and the following conversation was over-

"Give me a chew, Bill." "Why, my good fellow, I don't use tobacco," (in a shocked voice.)
"Ah, come on, Bill. Gimme a chew."

Explanations from the clergyman followed and the band started to play.

C. O. F. AT CHURCH

The Canadian Order of Foresters, about 75 strong, marched to the Vic-toria Ave. Methodist Church last evening. Mr. Turner marshalled the ning. Mr. Turner marshaled the representatives of Courts Chatham, No. 6, and Kent, No. 304. Red. T. T. George delivered an ex-cellent sermon to the order., He took s the subject of his remarks warning the Children of Israel receivwarning the Children of Israel received when erecting their house to erect a battlement also. Some people objected to preparing for the future and believed that they should trust to God and Providence. One good answer to and Providence. One good answer to this was the text. It was always ne-cessary to take precautions and, even if Providence did provide, still Provi-dence could be greatly assisted by a little care and forethaught.

The choir, under the direction of Harry Horstead, rendered excellent music, and Messrs. H. Horstead and W. Wrigley sang a duett.

On the return of their lodge to their rooms, a vote of thanks to the Rev. T. T. George, the congregation and the choir was moved by Fred Ward and seconded by Samuel Bullis, and unanimously passed.

LETTER BOX

BITULITHIC PAVEMENT.

To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—In regard to bitulithic pavement articles appearing in print from time to time lately, permit me, a taxpayer, to say:—This pavement does not appear to be the success attributed to it, and, at most, is evidently an experiment; and Queen St. taxpayers are wise in avoiding costly experiments, when a pavement of known wearing quality, as brick on concrete foundation, can be had at a reasonable price. A Michigan city—Bay City—had a bitulithic pavement put down last year, and must be resurfaced this year. London has had this pavement for one year only. Some people place great reliance on guarantees. A guarantee may mean much or little. Chatham's dealings with guarantees have not always proved an unqualified success in the past.

TAXPAYER. To the Editor of The Planet:

The C. B. C. exams will commence on Monday. The medals are on ex-hibition in A. H. VonGunten's window.

$3,80Q SURPRISE

The Ontario Government has vote $3,800 for the completion of the Big Creek drainage scheme, and that useful waterway will soon be in a position to do all that may be asked of it.

The Big Creek scheme involves the townhipts of Romney, Mersea and the three Tilburys. The drain was a costly one and at times has engaged the attention of the county councils of South Essex and Kent. The $3,800 appropriated for the purpose will, complete the work on the big drain and provide the townships affected with excellent drainage as well as settle a much vexed question.—Windsor Record.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Wheat is Firmer-Cheese and Live Stock Trade-Advance in Eggs. Saturday Evening, June 13. Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Trade was good at St. Lawrence Market this morning. The receipts in almost all lines were heavy and a good crowd of buyers were present. On the street trade was less brisk, the rain being responsible for light deliveries. There was no grain sold.

Dressed Hogs—The market was rather quiet and quotations are unchanged at $1.75 to $3.25 per cvt for choice lightweight hogs and $6.50 to $7 for heavies.

Butter—The offerings were fairly heavy, but nearly everything was sold.

Prices ruled somewhat firmer than those of last week and pound rolls are quoted at 16c to 20c.

Eggs—Are decidedly firmer. Farmers say the hens are otherwise busy than in laying eggs, and this accounts for the scarcity. Prices ruled higher at 16c to 18c per dozen.

Hay—Only two loads were in and being Hay—Only two loads were in and being Hay—Only two loads were in and being A Talk On Clothing.

This store has taken an advanced and ag-gressive position in the retailing of mens, and boys' apparel. We have ignored all the antiquat-ed, inconsistent and unjust methods and conditions that afflict the clothing business to such an extent. We came to the public with the most simple, straightforward and the most simple, straightforward and equitable trading proposition imaginable. We offer for its consideration this great storeful of positively new, thoroughly dependable clothing in all grades, for men and boys—the best ready for service apparel that America's greatest tailors produce. We pledge our prices to be the lowest it is possible to place on such good clothing. We are certain that no store adhering to "credit" or adhering to "credit" or "discount" selling methods can possibly duplicate our values.

For every dollar brought to this store we give a full dollar's worth of clothing —nothing else—and we don't consider the dollars ours until the purchaser has worn the clothing and knows its right. We invite investigation and suggest comparison of our store and stock with others when you're ready to consider. We are selling agents for the Celebrated MEABLIGHT OVERALLS, union made.
