NORMAN DUNCAN

---

The Adventures of Billy Topsail

12 mo, illustrated, $1.50.

It's a boy's book, but its "a book to be chummy with"—that includes everybody.

A ripping story of adventure by sea—a northern sea, full of ice and swept by big gales—a tale that moves like a full-rigged ship with all sail spread to a rousing breeze.

Second Edition

The Mother

A Novelette of New York Life. 12mo, cloth, $1.25; de Luxe, $2.00 net.

"Another book quite unlike 'Dr. Luke' in environment, but very like it in its intuitive understandings of the natures of the lowly and obscure . . . holds the reader spellbound."

Twenty-fifth Thousand

Doctor Luke of the Labrador

12mo, cloth, $1.50

"Norman Duncan has fulfilled all that was expected of him in this story; it established him beyond question as one of the strong masters of the present day."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Fourth Edition

Dr. Grenfell's Parish

Illustrated. Cloth, $1.00 net.

"He tells vividly and picturesquely many of the things done by Dr. Grenfell and his associates.
