Toronto Horse Show

bred stallion, was won by a sturdy saddle exhibit by Alfred Rogers, Toronto, and sired by Chateau. Of the exhibits shown in this class two were sired by Chateau and two by King Joseph. Championship in the saddle class was won by the gilt-edged mare Lady Sapphire, shown by Mr. A. Yeager, of Simcoe, another laurel to the chapter of Hillhurst Sensation. This mare won first as best combination horse, first as best ladies' saddle horse, and first and championship in the saddle classes. She is a mare of wonderfully smooth and even conformation, good action at all gaits and perfect manners. Her strongest opposition was made by the fine dark chestnut gelding, Gingalee, a smooth, handsome and perfectly mannered horse shown by J. Kilgour, Toronto. The championship harness class open to horses winning a first prize in single harness was won by Mrs. A. Beck, of London, with Lady Elgin, her fine little winner of the King Edward Challenge Cup, going second. The champion harness was found in Capt. Evans' Sweet Briar. The pony stallion class had, as usual, some very choice, if diminutive representatives, and Messrs. Graham & Renfrew's Plymouth Horace, a handsome little brown, with a whole world of high style and speed, had a fine looking, smooth and snappy competitor in Hillhurst Bonny, shown by C. E. Gudewill, of Montreal.

Promoted

Mr. James Murray, B.S.A., for several years representative of the Seed Division, Ottawa, in Manitoba and the West, has resigned to accept the position of Superintendent of Fairs and Institutes for Saskatchewan.

B. W. Chipman Dead

Mr. B. W. Chipman, for fifteen years Secretary of Agriculture for Nova Scotia, died on April 24th, after a three weeks' illness from pneumonia. He was an enthusiast in his work, and rendered valuable service to Nova Scotia in organizing agricultural societies and farmers' institutes, and in connection with the importation of pure bred stock and the establishment of model orchards. He was seventy years of age.
