BACON FRAGRANCE

Mix thoroughly 4 eggs, $\frac{1}{2}$ a cup of milk, and a teaspoonful of flour. Fry some thin slices of bacon in a frying pan and pour this batter over it. Cook until both sides of the bacon are well browned and serve on a heated dish.

HORSE RADISH SAUCE

Beat the yolk of 1 egg, add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon each of salt and sugar, 3 tablespoons grated horseradish and 6 tablespoons whipped cream. Beat all together, adding the cream last, and use cold with cold meats.

PINEAPPLE FRUIT

Pare and shred a ripe pineapple sugar it and let stand 2 hours—then drain off one cupful of the syrup. Boil $\frac{1}{2}$ of a cupful of sugar and the cupful of pineapple juice to a thick syrup; add slowly the well beaten yolks of 4 eggs. Cook in a double boiler; stirring continually until the mixture thickens. Remove from the fire and beat until cold; whip until stiff a pint of rich cream and add this to the mixture, together with two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice. Pack in a mold, surrounded with ice and salt and allow to stand four hours. Serve surrounded with whipped cream.

BAKING POWDER BISCUITS.

Two cupfuls flour, 1 heaping teaspoonful baking powder, 1 tablespoonful of lard or butter, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, and one scant cupful of sweet milk. Sift baking powder, flour and salt together, rub in lard, then pour in all the milk and mix with a knife.

ROUX CREAM PIE.

One cup of sour cream, one-half cup of seeded raisins chopped fine, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one cup of sugar, one quarter teaspoonful cloves, three yolks of eggs and one white of egg. Bake like a lemon pie, using the whites of two eggs with two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Put on after pie is baked and brown in oven. If not liked that way, stir all three whites in together before baking.

SALMON CROQUETTES.

One pound can of salmon, 1 egg and 3 soda crackers stirred well together and then made into small cakes. Beat 2 eggs and roll the cakes first in eggs and then in rolled crackers. Fry in a mixture of half butter and half lard.

OUR HOME CLUB

THE HOUSEWIFE'S ALLOWANCE

Some say to give the housewife a fixed salary and give it monthly, that she may be able to get just what she needs, and when she needs it. I have lived on a farm in my younger days, and I may say that I am very proud of it. At all times, money is not plentiful on the farm. Some times there was a pretty good supply, but sooner or later it became exhausted and times were rather hard, until someone else was sold or a cheque came from the cheese factory to replenish the purse.

I would not say to give the wife the butter and eggs and let her do with that, as I think any intelligent farmer and his wife would agree with me that they, "together," were losing money by this plan. The wife will want certain articles that can not be bought at the general store, or the grocery. She will not like the idea of taking cash price for eggs, when by taking a due bill, the husband would get a good many articles that he needs also. I think on the farm, the wife should have in each case what the husband and wife think they can afford. Usually they will be able to get along nicely, by the wife using out of the husband's purse when she needs the money. The husband will feel free to use the due bills for what he may need.

Sometimes the doctor has a very busy time and money is paid promptly, while other times there is very little in this line of work, and what there is, may not be bringing in returns as we would like to see it. We just have to make the very best of the money. The husband will feel free to "cut according to our cloth." In almost every case, whether on a farm, or in a town or city, the intelligent wife will be just as anxious, if not more so, to have than the husband will and will see to it, that she does not go beyond what they are able to afford.—"The Doctor's Wife."

HELP THE BOYS

Since writing my first letter to the "Home Club" that matter of sympathy and encouragement dealt with has been uppermost in the mind of "The Son." How easy it is to drop a word of encouragement when the boy has put forth an extra effort to complete some task or has taken an interest in things on the farm, as if they were his own! Yet, how often is it done?

You fathers that like to parade the natural abilities and accomplishments of your boys before your neighbors or often date upon them in the back recesses of your heads, take heed! Drop a word of praise when it is called for. Silence may mean assent, but much more will be conveyed to your boy when you speak the word.

Try it for a while at least. It will do good in at least two ways. You will feel better for having praised the boy. The boy will soon show you that he feels better for it by taking renewed interest in things and by accomplishing much more work, I know; it has been done so—"The Son."
