FARMERS 40 MILLIONS RICHER

A supplementary crop bulletin issued by the Census and Statistics Office issued that as compared with last year, Canada's crop yield shows a remarkable increase. Of what it is estimated that Canadian farmers will have for sale 168,000,000 bush this year, over forty-three million bush more than last year.

The oat crop is estimated at 354,919,000, an increase of over eighty-four million bushels.

There is also an increase of over seven million bushels in the production of barley.

It is estimated that the wheat crop of forty-five million bushels, there is a big choice in the production of hay and

The crop should be worth from fifty to sixty million dollars more to the Canadian farmers than that harvested in 1908.
