NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Dublin.

His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin has made the following appointments:—
The Very Rev. Canon Walsh, V. G., to be parish priest of Kingstown; the Rev. Dr. Tynan to be parish priest of SS. Michael and John's, Dublin; the Rev. Dr. Murphy (chaplain to his late Eminence) to be Secretary to the Archbishop, and the Rev. Denis Pettit to be his Grace's chaplain.
On Sept. 23, the Most Rev. Dr. Croke, Archbishop of Cashel, was waited on at the Palace, Thurles, by a deputation of the Dalkey and Ballybrack Branch of the Irish National League, and presented with a beautifully illuminated copy of the address given to his Grace at Kingstown, on his arrival in June last. The deputation consisted of E. Field, T. C.; J. P. Gahan, J. Gaule, and J. Farrell. The address was prepared by Mr. T. F. Eustace, Buckingham street, Dublin. The border represented the entrance porch of a cathedral, the dimensions of which were taken from King Cormac's Chapel, on the Rock of Cashel. The golden arch sprang from two shields terminating in a keystone ornamented with the Archieptscopal cross. The two shields referred to have on the left the arms of the Archbishopric, and on the right the arms of the Croke family. The terminating line of the border is embellished with a photo of the Rock of Cashel and representations of Brian Boru's harp and crown. In the spangles at each side of the address were inserted a large number of medallions bearing religious mottoes.

Westmeath.

A great meeting of the people of Westmeath was held at Ballymore, on Sunday, Sept. 20, te welcome Mr. T. D. Sullivan and Mr. Timothy Harrington. The demonstration took place under the most unfavorable circumstances. It was wonderful, therefore, to find the people with their bands and banners turning out in thousands from the most distant places to take part in the demonstration. Not only that, but the people, having come, waited patiently in the rain until the arrival from Dublin of the Lord Mayor-Elect and Mr. Harrington, who, on arriving at Mullingar by train, had to drive a distance of fifteen miles to attend the meeting at Ballymore: Louth.

The Rev. Father Smith, recently or-dained, succeeds Father Maguire in the curacy of Clogher Head. Longford.

The great annual meeting to receive Mr. Justin McCarthy, M. P., and to demonstrate the attachment of the people of the county to National principles, will be held in Longford, on Sunday, October 1I. Several distinguished advocates of the National cause have been invited to accompany Mr. McCarthy. Cork.

In Donoughmore the League have got an accession to their ranks in the shape of a local J. P., Mr. Charles Lynch. Mr. Lynch, though never actually espousing the cause of the people, is one of the few among the "great unpaid" who has never distinguished himself on the side of tyranny or injustice. He alone, among the county magistrates, had the courage, during the levying of the Spencer police tax, in his own neighborhood, to protest against those imposts as unjust and unmerited, and who, in his administration of the law, has dealt out justice with an even Lord Egmont has replied to the memorial sentiby his tenantry, as follows—The matter has had my full consideration, and I must decline to make any abatement. Those who have had any judicial rents fixed cannot expect it, while to those who have not, and who are dissatisfied with their present rent, the court is open for a settlement of the matter. I have intimated to Mr. Trench to allow time to those tenants who were depositors in the Munster Bank, at the time of its failure, upon the production of proof that they were depositors and of the amount of their deposits.

Mr. Mahony, D. L., of Dromore Castle, Kenmare, is stoken of as a probable Tory candidate for South Kerry. As Mr. Mahony is one of the most frantic supportors of landlordism in all Ireland, he has about as much chance of being returned for South Kerry as a camel has of passing through the eye of a needle.

Mr. Hussey has written to the parish priest of Garranes offering to reinstate two tenants on the Usborne estate. The landlord my's he will reinstate them if they agree to purchase at 20 years' judicial rent, an offer which he makes to all tenants on the estate. They all refused; they offered 15 years at these rents.

On Sept. 21, James Madden, land steward to Major Tanner, sgent to Lieut. Bagwell Purejoy, Greenfields, Cappawhite, had his master's butter in market, at Tipperary, but no price was offered for it by any of the several buyers, who one and all passed it by in the weigh house unnoticed. After the market he made every effort to dispose of the butter, which was first quality, and offered it at a considerably low price, but failed to find a purchaser.

On Sept. 24, at Dromin Fair, county Limerick, some Emergency representatives came to the fair to purchase cattle, and, being recognized, intense excitement prevailed, and people surrounded them and groaned and hooted vigorously. This perilous position they endeavored vainly to escape, and one drew his revolver. Missiles were thrown. Subsequently the cattle broke in on the crowd, and they escaped by jumping on a car in waiting, amid great groaning. A similar occurrence took place at Emly.

Clare.

It is stated that the probable candidates for the divisions of Clare county at the general election are—Mr. M. J. Kenny, the representative of Ennis, and Mr. John McInerney, Cratloe—a prominent member of the Limerick Board of Guardians. A meeting of the people of Ennis was held, on Sept. 20, in the square under the shadow of the O'Connell Monument for the purpose of hearing Mr. M. J. Kenny, the member for the borough, giving an account of his stewardship previous to his ceasing to be their Parliamentary representative, Ennis being one of the boroughs which terminates its existence under the Redistribution Bill. The meeting was a very large one, and the reception accorded to Mr. Kenny was most hearty and warm.

Thanks to Father McGaney and Father McElvogue the work of registration in mid-Armagh has been a success. But for the gerrymandering of Mid-Armagh by Piers White, Q. C., and Orange Major McPherson, the return of the Nationalist candidate was certain; but the work has been so well carried out the Tories are not quite so satisfied with the result of the revision. In the courts they were favored to the utmost by Mr. Craig, who was sent specially for the purpose by Sir George Kaye, who received the votes of the Orange roughs when he contested the city of Armagh.

In South Down the Nationalists continue to make satisfactory headway. At Kilkeel the Tories had served no objections, and could therefore not cross-examine Nationalist claimants. A very large and successful demonstration was held at Glentles, on Sept. 18. The village was decorated with flags, arches, etc. Mr. William O'Brien, M. P., when within about three miles of Glentles, was met by a car conveying four little girls, who presented him with a brief address. Following the vehicle on which the young ladies were scated came a cavalcade of horsemen to act as a guard of honor to Mr. O'Brien. An immense procession, headed by the Ballybofey Brass Band, and carrying numerous handsome banners, marched into Glentles.

Formanagh.

Fermanagh.

On September 23d, one of the largest and most enthusiastic demonstrations in support of the National cause ever brought together in the county was held at Kinawley, a village some miles from the town of Enniskillen. This was the first Nationalist demonstration ever held in the district. Seldom in any portion of Ireland has a larger or more imposing gathering of Iriah Nationalists been seen assembled together. There were large contingents from a number of the outlying districts, and several very handsome banners and bannerets were carried by the various representatives who attended, headed by their hands. The Rev. Father Flynn, C. C., was unanimously called upon to preside over the meeting, and Mr. W. Redmond, M. P., delivered a capital address, in the course of which he referred to boycotting as a two-edged weapon requiring caraful handling. Fermanagh. ferred to boycotting as a two-edged weapon requiring careful handling.

Sheriff's officer O'Neill, with some bailif's, proceeded, on Sept. 25th, to the Buckley estate, and finally evieted, off a holding of twenty-three acres, a tenant named John Kelleher and his family. Kelleher was evicted six months ago for non-payment of rent, and was since a caretaker. He applied to be allowed to save the crops to meet the amount of rent and costs due, but this would not be sanctioned.

Waterford.

An extraordinary demonstration, "the burial of Coescion," took place at Corran-Dromawn, Tallow, on Sept. 20. On the summit an effigy, intended to represent Lord Spencer, was ignominiously interred.

A meeting was held, at which the Rev. Father Walsh, P. P., Knockanore, presided. Monaghan.

Mr. P. J. Power, M. P., was the principal speaker.

Kerry.

Mr. Mahony, D. L., of Dromore Caatle, Kenmare, is evoken of as a probable Tory candidate for South Kerry. As Mr. Mahony is one of the most frantic supportors of landlordism in all Ireland, he has about as much chance of being returned for South Kerry as a camel has of passing through the eye of a needle.

Mr. Arthur O'Connor, M. P., assisted by Transcale and the principal of the county.

Mr. Arthur O'Connor, M.P., assisted by Mr. Matthew Harris, have done splendid service to the National cause in the county Galway. They visited nearly every town in the county, and whether it was to form a branch of the Irish National League, or to encourage the branches already formed to put on a fresh spurt, they everywhere met with a hearty welcome, and did enduring work. They travelled all Connemars, and left it a network of organization.

on Sept. 23, the Sheriff's representative, accompanied by a party of police, under the command of Head-Constable O'Callaghan, was engaged in evicting tenants on the estate of John L. Bagot, of Ballymoe. The landlord being unable to procure anybody in the district to act as Emergency men had to bring four men from Galway to aid in clearing out the tenantry. Two tenants were evicted. The committee of the Ballymoe Branch of the National Lesgue were present while the eviction was proceeding.

The "sentences of death" are going was proceeding.

The "sentences of; death" are going forth at an appalling rate on the Gore estate. In preparation for the October sessions, the bailiff has been busy in serving ejectment processes, a system which has now become an institution on this doomed estate. Hitherto, when rent became due, the rent-warner went out among the tenantry to remind them of the fact. At present he accomplishes his purpose by handing them an ejectment process. That means 10s. costs; but if not settled within ten days it means £1; if let go on to the sessions £2 10s. A case occurred, not long ago, when a poor tenant, paying only £11 yearly rent, had to pay, within one year, in costs, £9 0s. 10d.! For days past many of those unfortunates might be seen running about looking for some one to buy, even at reduced prices, their unthreshed corn, in order to anticipate those crushing costs. Nor does a few days' grace, sought for and promised, avail them, for long before those days are expired the dreaded billet may be presented. The lives of misery led by those creatures are beyond describing—toiling, moiling, and starving, to meet those oppressive imposts, bereft of all their little stock in consequence, yet comparatively happy in their own minds if they have the oppressive imposts, bereft of all their little stock in consequence, yet comparatively happy in their own minds if they have the "dry" potato, or the stirabout, without even a drop of milk to make it estable.

Where to Send the Children.

In sending our children to Catholic schools we prove ourselves obedient to the mandate of Almighty God, who says: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God." Every child that attends a Catholic school, goes to the sanctuary of God, and thus is prepared to become a co-heir of the Kingdom of Heaven. And the Catholic parent who places his children where Catholic prayers are not permitted, where Catholic prayers are not permitted, where Catholic prayers are scoffed and sneered atwhat does he do? He kills the Christian seed planted by Almighty God in that innocent soul; he makes an apostate out of an angel; and he annihilates every virtuous impulse which the child's soul has received from its Creator! Sad, sad indeed, will be the fate of such recreant Catholic parents when called up before the judgment seat of God to give an account of the souls of their children.

A SERMON OF ST. DOMINIC ON THE

It was in 1213, shortly after the victory of Murst, won by Simon de Montfort over the army of the Count of Toulouse, which amounted to a hundred thoused fighting mea.

Saddened by the scenes of carnage which he beheld, St. Dominic resolved to leave the seat of war, feeling more than ever that the victory over heresy must be scought by more peaceful waspona. After having taken leave of his illustrious friend, Simon de Montfort, he directed his step towards Toulouse, where he had been laboring for some time already, but in vain, for the evangelization of souls.

His heart broken with grief, he resolved to retire to a cavern hidden in the depth of the neighboring forest, there to implore with more power the ald of the Mother of God. There he minigled his tears with prayer, and the severest penance with the most ardent supplications.

While the valiant athlete of Christ was thus sacrificing himself for the salvation of the Christian people, the Queen of Heaven, accompanied ty three noble virgins, appeared to him. Her face was as radiant as the dawn. "Dominic," she said to him, "behold I come to thy aid; if thou wouldst have they preaching on a good foundation, preach my Romay."

Filled with a divine strength, Dominic resurred Toulouse. Now, behold immediately the bells of the metropolis began to ring of themselves and flung upon the air sounds of unknown power. The surprised people hastened in crowds. Dominic seemed the pulpit, his eye blazing, his brow illumined, his speech ringing, and preached the holy Rosary.

It was no longer the humble man who never opened his mouth in his personal defense, but the intrevid apostle, the evangelist who feels irresistible power in his heart.

The people are astouished, admire, but still hesitate.

The battle is not yet won in their souls. A higher power must intervene, and behold God makes Himself heard by the great voice of His storm. A terrible hurrican bursts upon the city; the winds roar furlously, lightning flash follows lightning flash, the earth trembles beneath the repe next morning they came at daybreak, wearing the livery of penance and with torch in hand to make honorable amends to the Mother of God.

The servant of Mary reminded them of the great events of the eve and preached a fine discourse on the Rosary. All took to heart the practice of this devotion, determined to enroll themselves under the standard of Mary, and to receive the beads from the hands of St. Dominic.

Young Billkins was utterly devoted to business, but somehow found time to fall in love and ask the girl to marry him. The time was set and he called on the old gentleman to get his consent. He had a long talk and that evening came up to see the girl.

What is Catarrh ! Catarrh is a dangerous disease which thousands are consciously or unconsciously suffering from. It is a muco-purulent discharge caused by the presence of a vegetable parasite in the lining membrane of the nose. The predisposing causes are a morbid state of the blood, the blighted corpusele of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, toxomosa, from the retention of the effete matter of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments and the germination of other poisons in the blood. Irritated by these, the lining membrane of the nose is ever ready for the reception of the parasite, which rapidly spreads up the nostrils and down the fauces, or back of the throat, causing ulceration of the throat; up the eustachian tubes, causing deafness; burrowing in the vocal chords, causing hoarseness; usurping the proper structure of the bronchial tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death.

Many ingenious specifics for the cure of catarrh have been invented, but without success, until a physician of long standing discovered the exact nature of the disease and the only appliance which will permanently destroy the parasite, no matter how aggravated the case. Sufferers should send stamp at once for descriptive pamphlet on catarrh, to the business manager, A. H. Dixon & Son, 305 King street west, Toronto, Canada.

An Alarming Disease Affrict ing a Numerous Class.

The disease commences with a slight derangement of the stomach, but, if neglected, it in time involves the whole frame, embracing the kidneys, liver, pancreas, and, in fact, the entire glandular system, and the afflicted drags out a miserable existence until death gives relief from suffering. Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look into the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how differently would our course be; could we realize our danger, how speedily we would seek a cure; but with many it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly. What follows a neglected cold? Is it not diseases of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of like nature. It is worse than madness to neglect a cold, and it is folly not to have some good remedy available for this frequent complaint. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. This medicine is composed of several medicinal Dangers of Delay.
