The Elimination of Waste

As never before, master business minds are concentrating upon the elimination of useless operating costs.

For years the North American Life has specialized in economy of Insurance management.

Palatial office buildings, big-salaried officials, highly expensive methods of putting large volumes of costly New Business on its books—these things find no place in the operations of the North American Life.

Every item of expenditure is closely scrutinized by men who are specialists in their departments.

As a result, 19 per cent. of the total income for 1912 was sufficient to defray all expenses and charges; the remaining 81 per cent. was either paid to Policyholders and Beneficiaries, or held to their credit.

The North American Life excels in economy of management.

SUCH LETTERS AS THIS show why the Great-West Life finds business so excellent:—

"Your favor received this morning containing cheque representing bonus on my Policy No. 17558. This is a most gratifying result, and while thanking you for the very prompt payment of same, I would at the same time like to congratulate the Company on its splendid management that permits such splendid returns to its fortunate Policyholders."

Look into the Policies that can earn such commendation.
