TORONTO, Sept. 30.—The public uneral service over the body of the late Sir James Whitney in St. James' Cathedral here yesterday was strangely free of the formality and tiffness that often prevail on such occasions. Behind it walked Master P. H. Thompson, grands

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—The local situation in grain today has shown no change The demand from abroad was again very light and little or no new business was reported closed. The local demand for cats did not improve with the lower prices quoted and dealers here seem quite satisfied to wait.

Hay was neglected. The increased prices in cheese have curtailed the demand from foreign buyers to a large degree, and little or no new business for export was done. A few small orders were reported by local houses, but no big movement is taking place. Butter was easier at Saturday's decline.
