Why He Was in Luck.

"It is the American characteristic to make the best of everything and to put up a smiling front in the face of fate's hardest blows," said Prof. I. M Rutherford, of the University of Cali fornia, according to the Baltimore American.

"I have thought that in this regard Americans were exceptional. Some the richest humor in our literature is founded on this trait. A few days ago as I came East on the Southern Pac ific, in passing through a foreign-looking town in the desert I heard two men conversing as the train stopped for water. "'Good-bye, Bill,' said one, 'I am leaving this burg with just one pair of pants, and not another thing on "'You are lucky, old pal,' replie Bill, that's more than anybody else ever took away from here."

The Beauty of a Clear Skin .- Th condition of the liver regulates the condition of the blood. A disordered liver causes impurities in the blood and these show themselves in blemish es on the skin. Parmelee's Vegetabl Pills in acting upon the liver act upon the blood and a clear, healthy skin will follow intelligent use of this stan-dard medicine. Ladies, who will fully appreciate this fine quality of thes pills, can use them with the certainty that the effect will be most gratifying.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from it drops to a teasgoonful. LOVE FOR TITLES.

The Way the Average German Burger Lengthens His Name.

The average German burgher's love of titles is a source of never ending fun to the rest of the German population and of continual ridicule to the rest of the world. Any one caring to see how far some people of the fatherland will go in this direction need only have a look at a hotel register at a summer resort. He will see added to the name of the guest the most curious combinations of appellations drawn together to form a title. He will, for instance, find: A "Technischen Provinzialfeuersozie-atsinspector" (a technical provincial fire insurance inspector).

A "Geheimen Expedierenden Sekre tar im Ministerium der Offentlichen Arbeiten" (meaning a special sort of secretary at the ministry of public works). A-to continue in English as well as possible-"cashier president of the Royal Saxon railway," a "royal railroad subsecretary."

Hamrlik, Man. (Special).—Probably there is no disease to which man is heir that causes such a general dread as Gravel, or Stone in the Bladder. The frightful pains it brings and the terrible operations it necessitates cause a shudder of apprehension whenever it is mentioned. But there is ever it is mentioned. But there is really no reason why any man or wo-man should fear Gravel. It is purely and simply a Kidney disease, and as fested an irresistible inclination toward the stage, an inclination which his father steadfastly strove to repress.

Such cam be either cured or guarded against by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Take the case of Mr. Calvin R.

The superintendent quickly grasped the huge reptile just back of the neck with his right band and with the left clutched the creature two feet lower down, where the greatest muscula power of the python is located.

He tried to thrust the writing mass into a waiting box, but the python colled its twelve feet of length round the man's leg and began to constrict. carrying its tightening coils higher and Struggle as he might, Mr. Stephens seemed helpless in the serpent's grasp

His bands were so moist that the python had worked its head free and was darting its horrid tongue almost in its victim's eyes. The man threw up his hand instinctively to shield his face, and at the same moment the snake selzed and began swallowing it. By this time the attendants back rushed into the cage, and they began beating the python. Not liking this treatment, the big snake relaxed its coils. Mr. Stephens jerked his hand free and broke off one of the python's fangs in his thumb in so doing. "If I had not held on to its heaviest muscle," said the superintendent, " have no doubt it might have strangled me. As long as I kept my grip there felt confident, but I was pretty weak after the adventure."

AGREED WITH THE ASP.

The Frenchman Got Around the Law Against Hissing. A gentleman who had been uncere moniously bustled out of a Paris playhouse because he hissed when the curtain fell on the second act brought an action for damages against the manager of the said house. The court decided in favor of the hissing gentleman, adding that if a spectator is allowed to show his delight by indulging in applause his neighbor has also the right to show disapprobation in an audible fashion. But the law in France was not always so tolerant. In the middle of the seventeenth century it was strictly forbidden to hiss in a playbouse, and in every theater there were a number of "gardes Francaises" with strict orders to arrest any person infringing the
