FRANKVILLE

A social in the Forester's Hall of our village, followed by a program in the Methodist church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society was featured for Thursday evening, Nov. 18, and proved for those privileged to attend it, to be a great success. The evening, by way of favorable weather, was all that could be desired, a bright moon and a clear, frosty night lending a halo and tang to the late autumn, that was healthful and inspiring. There was not a large audience, but it is safe to say that those who were present will look back with real pleasure to the evening spent with the Aid, amid tastefully decorated surroundings, partaking of most excellent and savoury cooking, for which this part of the township is well famed, and afterwards enjoying a program of real merit furnished by home talent assisted by Miss Gertrude Cross of Athens, and Mr. Thomas Horsfield, Lake Elvida, also Miss Laura Stewart, of Cobourg, Miss Nellie Earl, Athens, and Miss Hazel Richards, Frankville, were accompanists.

The program, while short, was of excellent quality, and if judged by the enthusiasm of the applause, was fully appreciated by the congregation. Miss Cross made her first appearance in Frankville on this occasion and gave real pleasure to all by her fine rendition of the musical selections chosen for the evening. She is possessed of a sweet voice of genuine flexibility and clearness of utterance, and, while not particularly strong, has the real and perhaps unusual merit of rare charm and clarity of utterance. All her selections were in excellent form and given in a style that was peculiarly fitting. Mr. Horsfield was an old friend to many, though four years have elapsed since he sang in our village, and in his duets with Miss Cross, and in solos, he lent a spirit to the evening and an interpretation to the music and words that won genuine praise. Miss Stewart, as elocutionist, was a host in herself, her rendition of "Censor" being alone worth the price of admission. In selections of this class, she has few superiors that we have heard, her whole attitude, of posture and gesture, accompanied with a well trained voice, giving an unusually vivid description of the track scene, as was evidenced in the audience as the selection progressed. She is upholding well the traditions of Albert College, of which institution, she is gold medalist. Her various numbers were warmly and appreciatively received.

Messrs. Clarke Eaton and W. T. Richards, with Miss Stewart as alto, also gave a trio, and Miss Stewart and Miss Norma Richards a duet. As one of our very youngest singers, and of whom we shall one day hear more, "Norma" has already on several occasions appeared at our Christmas tree and local concerts, and has invariably played her part well, and given real pleasure to her friends.

The evening broke up late, all going to their homes feeling the entire affair had proven a real success.

Death of Bennett Kavanagh

After a lingering illness, Mr. Bennett Kavanagh passed away at his home at Temperance Lake on Thursday, Nov. 18, 1915, aged 77. Deceased was a farmer and his entire life was spent in this section.

Mr. Kavanagh was of a quiet, retiring disposition, and was well liked by his neighbors and a wide circle of friends. He was born at Dobb's settlement, and married Miss Jane Spence of Beale's Mills, who survives him. Deceased was an Anglican in religion, and in politics a staunch Conservative.

He is survived also by three sons and two daughters, namely: Thomas and Bennett, on the homestead; Albert, on the adjoining farm; Mrs. James Cughan of Athens; Mrs. Abel Cughan of Junetown.

The funeral took place to Christ's church, Athens, on Saturday, where service was conducted by Rev. W. G. Swayne. The remains were placed in the Athens vault.

The Late Rev. A. H. Visser

Many in Brockville and this district will be surprised to hear the news that Rev. A. H. Visser, a former pastor of George Street Methodist church, and resident of Brockville had passed suddenly away at his home in Iroquois. He had shown no previous intimation that the angel of death was so close at hand. He was in his usual good health and in the evening left the house going to the post-office. He received his mail and returned home. It was then six o'clock. He went into his study and expired immediately.

The Merrickville Presbyterian church has extended a call to the Rev. Mr. McNabb of Kenmore, and the Presbytery has sustained the call.

Since the fire in Westport last week an agitation has arisen in the village to have a fire limit by-law introduced in the council and passed.

Mervin—Bruce.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday morning at St. Philip Neri church, Toledo, when the Rev. Father Hanley united in marriage Lucy M. Mervin and Lloyd Bruce, two young well known and popular residents of Toledo. Miss F. McGuire acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Leo Smith assisted the groom.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. Murphy, and during the service two solos were sweetly sung by Mrs. Neil Donovan and Mrs. W. Murphy. The bride was attired in a very pretty travelling suit of Copenhagen blue. The gift of the groom to the bride was a gold watch fob, to the bridesmaid a gold locket and chain, and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. The numerous gifts bespeak of the high esteem in which the young couple are held, and the well wishes of their many friends are extended to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce motored to Brockville in the afternoon and left last evening on their honeymoon to points in northern New York State, and on their return will reside at Toledo.

Two Arrests Follow Fires At Wyoming

Wyoming, Nov. 11—Fires took place here last Saturday night from incendiary origin, and Provincial Inspector Henry Reburn, who was brought here from Toronto to investigate, to-day arrested John H. Anderson, son of a local storekeeper, on the charge of arson. Anderson pleaded guilty in court, alleging that he had been procured to start the fires by one Robert Riddell, also of Wyoming and a former licensed hotelman. Riddell was placed under arrest here to-night on charge of procuring Anderson to start the four fires. Wyoming is a local option municipality, and Riddell is one of the hotelmen whose licenses were cut off by the vote taken last January. The fires, which were promptly extinguished, took place at the Temperance Hall, the G. T. R. station, the Williams House and Sinclair's barns. Sentence was not passed upon Anderson.
