

The Happy Combination
"Two-in-One" Shoe Polish

The best polish ever made for Ladies' Shoes, because it shines quick as a wink, keeps shoes like new patent leathers, and WON'T SOIL THE CLOTHING. It's A Paste—that shines quicker—hold its gloss longer—and makes shoes wear longer—than any liquid-and-paste polish. It keeps ladies' fine shoes soft and easy—prevents them from cracking—feeds the leather—keeps it damp-proof and water-proof.

AFTER DEATH.

From Which Marks the Highest Achievement of a Man's Mind.

He who died at Azan sends This to comfort faithful friends—Faithful friends! It lies I know, Pale and white and cold as snow;
 And ye say, "Andulian's dead!"
 Weeping at my feet and head, I can see your falling tears, I can hear your cries and prayers, Yet I smile and whisper this:
 "I am not that thing you kiss; Cease your tears and let it lie;
 It was mine, it is not."

Sweet friends! what the women love For its last bed in the grave Is a tent which I am quitting, Is a garment no more fitting,
 Is a cage from which at last Like a hawk my soul hath passed.
 Love the inmate, not the room;
 The wearer, not the garb; the plume Of the falcon, not the bars Which kept him from the splendid stars.

Loving friends! be wise, and dry Straightway every weeping eye.
 What ye lift upon the bier Is but a dead man's shroud;
 'Tis an empty seashell, one Out of which the pearl is gone.

The shell is broken, it lies there; Hie pearl, the all, the soul, is here.
 'Tis an earthen jar whose lid Allah sealed, the water is hid That treasure of his treasury.
 A mind which loved him; let it lie!
 Let the shard be earth's once more,
 Since the gold shines in his store!
 Allah Muhi, Allah most good!
 Now thy grace is understood.

Now the long, long darkness ends, Yet ye wail, my foolish friends, While the man whom ye call "dead," In unbroken bliss instead Lives, and loves you; lo! 'tis true By any light that shines for you;
 But in light ye cannot see Of unfulfilled felicity.
 And enlarging Paradise, Lives the life that never dies.

Farewell, friends! Yet let farewell Where I am ye, too, shall dwell.
 I am gone before your face A heart-beat's time, a grey ant's pace When ye come where I have stopped, Ye will marvel why ye wept; Ye will know, by true love taught,
 That here is all, and there is naught.

Weep awhile, if ye are fain—Sunshine still must follow rain!
 Only now see—is that first breath Now I see—is that first breath Which our souls draw when we enter Life, that is of all life centre.

Know ye Allah's law is love, Viewed from Allah's throne above;
 He ye firm of trust, and com, Faithful onward to your home!
 "La Allah ila Allah! Yea, Mu'hi! Restorer! Sovereign!" Say!

He who died at Azan gave This to those that made his grave.

Mariborough as Lord Lieutenant.

It is becoming notorious how desperately eager the Duke of Marlborough is to obtain the expensive post of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. It would be expensive, indeed, if he were to emulate his predecessors, Lord Cadogan and Lord Dudley each have spent far more than one hundred thousand out of their private funds over public functions and entertainments.

A reason against the success of the Duke of Marlborough as Lord Lieutenant—apart from the fact that he is a very poor speaker—is that the Duchess is not very able to act as a good hostess on a large scale. Personally, she is very kind, and most anxious to do all she can for her guests, but she has never sought London society on a broad basis, preferring her own American acquaintances and the personal friends of her husband. Unfortunately, a couple of years ago, she became afflicted with deafness, and has twice been to Vienna to undergo the painful treatment which partially consists in putting instruments into the ears to meet others put up the nostrils. Although she now hears an ordinary conversation, directly there is a buzz of talk she becomes quite unable to discern what is said. The regularity of a Dublin Court would also not suit her, for she has never acquired the repose of the British aristocracy, and after having been awake or three days in a place, loves to be off by train somewhere else.

Kitchener's Thoroughness

Lord Kitchener is determined that the Indian army, while under his command, shall be in a condition to meet any emergency. When the details were submitted to him for the last manoeuvres at Attock, he approved of them generally, but strongly objected to one suggestion.
 It had been proposed that the troops to take part in the operations should be told off as usual, so that they might be in readiness to move when necessary. "Why give them notice?" was Lord Kitchener's inquiry. "and why warn staff officers? It is surely all-important that the army of India should be ready to move anywhere at a few hours' notice. Let there be no published program and no issued orders; let the conditions of actual warfare be imitated as closely as possible." Nothing, therefore, was allowed to be known, beyond the fact that the manoeuvres were to take place in the country round Peshawar, the ground upon which there would be certain to be a mobilization of forces in the event of any trouble arising on the frontier.

Comforting the Curate.

A very nervous young curate who as a rule always shaved himself once found himself compelled to patronize a barber, having while from home forgotten his shaving tackle.
 "I hope you can shave me without cutting me. I am—er—I mean I have a very nervous—er—that is, sensitive skin," stammered the curate.
 "Cut you, sir," repeated the juvenile looking operator reassuringly, flourishing his gleaming razor round the shrinking throat of the curate.
 "If I so much as nick you once I'll —I'll—I'll cut your head off, sir, and my own afterwards. I can't say fairer'n that."—Liverpool Globe.

Playing Down to Him.

Young couple (who expect the visit of a very miserly relative, from whom they have expectations are cleaning the room of every sign of luxury. Wife (earnestly)—"We must do all we can to make uncle feel at home. Husband (caustically)—"Then we had better let the fire out."

It is error only, and not the truth that shrinks from inquiry.

NERVOUSNESS

Or dependency caused by weak unhealthy nerves, are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease. If you have a secret drain from early abuse, later excesses or exposure, you cannot expect healthy nerves while your vitality is being wasted.
 Do not seek out a miserable existence on account of your follies, you are not safe until cured—nature never excuses—no matter how young, old or innocent one may be.

KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.
 Have you pain in the back, a dull feeling in the region of the kidneys? At times your water comes freely, a large quantity light in color, while at other times you do not make quite so freely, it is dark in color, you make a small quantity, or you may have mucous deposit or brick dust colored sediment; give your condition immediate attention or more serious complications will set in. My treatment guaranteed as a positive cure for such conditions, and remember you PAY WHEN CURED.

You need pay nothing until you are convinced that a thorough and complete cure has been established. Surely this is fair, as you run no chances. CONSULTATION FREE.

 ment for those who cannot call. BOOK FREE. Medicines for Canadian patients shipped Tinting Curtains.

 To tint face curtains cream color add an ounce of yellow ochre to two ounces of starch and mix in the usual way with boiling water. It is best to soak a pair of curtains at the same time, for thus one can insure both being of the same shade of color.

KILLS AS WELL AS TORTURES

Fatal Results From Indigestion Unless Promptly Cured—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets the One Sure Cure.

Don't imagine because you say the pains and aches and discomforts that follow a hearty meal are "only indigestion" that you are not wrestling with a dangerous malady.
 Indigestion not only tortures; it kills. It weakens the body so that it is an easy mark for infectious diseases. It is the cause of Appendicitis. The time to check it is now.
 The means of checking and curing it is Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. The proof is thousands of cures like that of Ademard Coderre, of St. Jacques de L'Achigan, Que. Mr. Coderre writes:

"I suffered from Dyspepsia caused by indigestion of the stomach. I tried different medicines without getting any relief, when hearing of cures by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets I decided to try them. Two boxes cured me completely."

All human power is a compound of time and patience.

The door of adversity is always supplied with a knocker.

THE FARMER'S WIFE

is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it.
 The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are exactly akin to the churning of butter. If it is not apparent, then, that if this stomach churn is "sour" it taints all which is put into it? The evil of a foul stomach is not the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of the blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun do for the churn—absolutely removes every taint or corrupting element.
 "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant and no narcotic.
