

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., DEC. 19, 1890.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Some time ago the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church and the General Conference of the Methodist Church passed resolutions favoring prohibition and decided to circulate petitions asking for a prohibitory law.

The Christmas season is again with us and the stores have put on their holiday attire. We had hoped to give our merchants the usual Christmas "write-up," but find ourselves unable to do so.

A correspondent writing to the Herald concerning the dinner of the agricultural society, takes the opportunity of making some rather uncomplimentary remarks concerning the newspaper fraternity of this county.

It is told of E. J. Mackey, the big railroad man of Indiana, that he is one of the men who believes in work with the hands. When visited by the Vanderbilt some time ago, he was found in the yard of the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad, which he gained possession of a few years ago when it had but 100 miles of rail, and which now controls over 3,000.

We understand that the proposed extension of College avenue across to Chapel street is fading away into dim uncertainty. This desired addition to the streets of Wolfville has long been talked of, and we had hoped that at last the scheme was to become a reality.

In Halifax the other day, in sentencing a man to four years in the penitentiary for stealing a cargo of fish and converting the same to his own use, Judge Johnstone said the fact of the accused being drunk was no excuse for the commission of the crime.

There is great disappointment throughout the Dominion at the announcement that the publishers of the Montreal Star are too busy with their regular subscription and advertising business to allow of their completing a Christmas Star this year.

Hantsport Matters.

The weather is charming, and the sleighing is very good. Soler, Lulu was towed out to the bluff from Westworth on Sunday, by the Scotia, Capt. McCulloch.

The Methodists here the addition to their meeting house up and, covered in. Rev. Dr. Maynard held service here morning and evening in St. Andrew's church last Sunday.

Jack Frost caught one man here on the first day of December with a large field of turnips in the ground. Will they be any good in the spring?

Principal Miller conducts an evening school tri-weekly, quite a number of young men from the workshops are availing themselves of the (to them) fortunate opportunity of brushing up in mathematics, etc.

James Wall, proprietor of the Hantsport Hotel, has been served with papers under the Scott Act. Mrs. Maria Chittick, (on behalf of the W. C. T. U.) being the prosecutor.—Journal.

A Hint to Retail Dealers.

The retail trader wastes money who makes use of advertising-calendars. It is like putting a candle beside an electric light to place an advertisement beside a calendar page. All the attraction is in the latter, as all the purpose of the page is in the time-marks upon it.

"Raise the Flag."

We are glad to notice that the words and music of the patriotic song and chorus "Raise the Flag" has been published in sheet form by the Empire. There is a tone and a swing about the composition which should recommend it at once, both from the musical and the patriotic standpoint.

LAND OF EVANGELINE ROUTE.—The laying of the last rail in the missing link between Annapolis and Digby will be anticipated with feelings of keen interest throughout the Province. The companies chiefly affected—the Windsor and Annapolis and the Western Counties—may look to brisk time through the summer, when tourists will find a completed trunk line from Yarmouth to Halifax, and we are glad to hear on authority that the Windsor and Annapolis company are making preparations to meet the inevitable increase of traffic.

An Acrostic.

Christmas-day in every clime Has been for ages past, Regarded as a festive time, In which no one might fast. Some friends have left for other lands, They'll miss Turkey dinners— May charity extend her hands, And feed hungry sinners— Santa Clause from THE GLASGOW STORE

Defly fills the stocking; And to the HARRIS SHOW, galore, Young and old go flocking. Berwick.

Rev. D. Freeman and wife have arrived safely in Citra, Florida. Mr. E. bore his journey nicely. It is hoped that the change, quiet, rest and warmth of a southern climate may prove beneficial to him.

Rev. M. B. Shaw writes to friends at home from Colombo, Ceylon, on Nov. 20, "that we are all well. Five children on board have had the mumps since we left Suez, and three grown passengers have been down with fever; but not one of us has missed a meal since we were out to sea. This trip across the Indian Ocean has been delightful. We expect to reach Madras on the 13th."

The Christmas Star.

There is great disappointment throughout the Dominion at the announcement that the publishers of the Montreal Star are too busy with their regular subscription and advertising business to allow of their completing a Christmas Star this year.

The Red Indian Messiah.

A valued correspondent who is now in the west sends us the following concerning the Indian uprising.—

The United States government are preparing for another Indian war by arming the settlers in South Dakota and the Northwest, and sending cavalry to strengthen the command of General Miles. Cattle-men and frontier-men who know the Sioux say that there will be trouble sure; those Indians being armed with Winchester rifles, and having lots of ammunition, supplied by the Mormons.

They also say that the ghost dance is a war dance, a means of excitement used by Indians to get the courage of the braves up to fighting pitch. There have been many theories about the origin of the excitement. Some attribute it to the genius recently taken which the Indians take as an indication that the Great Father in Washington means to starve them by issuing less rations.

Other Indians believe that the Great Father means to take away their lands and give them to the white men. Some persons say that the chief of the Pintos is posing as a Messiah; others that the craze has sprung from a Mormon prophecy of a Messiah in 1890. It matters little the original source, the effect has been to excite the whole of the tribes in the Northwest and also the uncivilized tribes in Indian Territory. A civilized Indian at Fort Scott, I. T., said: "The white man had a Messiah long ago; they crucified him and tortured those who believed in him. The white man comes and kills the red man and the buffalo and game and steals his lands; and when the white man makes a treaty he always breaks it. The white man's religion is not good. The Great Spirit sends a Messiah to the red man to bring back the buffalo and game and to restore the hunting grounds. The white man says the red men are crazy to believe that and they will crucify the red man's Messiah if they can catch him. White man says go and kill a thousand of these red devils and that will stop this craze—that is white man's religion. Missionaries say if red man good, when he dies he shall sit on a great white rock and sing to the Great Spirit and see how Indians, being burnt and tortured by white man's hell. Red man does not want to see his brother tortured, Red men do not murder their brothers; they have no prisons and require none as they have no crimes like white men. Red man's religion suits him better than the white man's religion and no red man whose blood is not contaminated by white mixture ever did or ever will believe in white man's talks about his religion. The red man will fight and the Great Father will kill many, and lock up the chiefs in an iron house; they have 10,000 braves and backs but what is that against the Great Father's army of soldiers? White man's Messiah no good. Red man's Messiah no good either. It's best medicine.

A Cottage Given Away.

We are in receipt of the first number of Our Homes, a handsomely printed well arranged 32 page monthly magazine. Our Homes makes a specialty of giving in each number original architectural drawings and specifications for house building, a valuable feature not attempted by other magazines. It also devotes considerable space to house furnishing, home decoration and kindred topics, as well as choice literature and poetry. The publishers announce that in order to increase their circulation they will give a free cottage worth $750, or will give that amount in cash to the person detecting the greatest number of errors, words misspelled or misplaced, in the December issue of Our Homes. In addition they will give two cash prizes of $200 each, four of $100, eight of $50, ten of $25, twenty five of $10, fifty of $5, one hundred of $2, and one hundred and fifty of $1, distributed in order mentioned in rules and regulations, which will be sent with a copy of December issue on receipt of 15 cents in stamps. Special cash prizes given away almost every day during competition which closes February 1st, 1891.
