THE ACADIAN

WOLFFVILLE, N. S., FEB. 5, 1892.

Local and Provincial.

Nomination day to-morrow.

Mr. W. T. Piers is in Wolfville for his usual winter visit home.

Rev. Sidney Welton occupied the Baptist pulpit last Sunday morning.

The regular monthly meeting of the fire company will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

Call at the Kandy Kitchen, Ten Cent Store, (Patriquin's Building) for Fresh Home-made Candies.

Mr. Stackhouse, theological student of Acadia College, has received a call to a Baptist church in New Glasgow.

We hope an effort will be made to have Mr. Nichol's celebrated lecture on "Mary Queen of Scots," in Wolfville.

Mr. Piers, of the "Kandy Kitchen," has the grateful thanks of the ACADIAN staff for a box of delicious home-made candy.

Owing to the snow storm of Sunday the U. V. R. was blocked, and their train did not get through to Kenville till Monday evening.

The Methodist church of Berwick has extended an invitation to the Rev. Mr. Lane, now of Bermuda to take charge of the Berwick circuit at the expiration of the present conference year.

Call at the Kandy Kitchen, Ten Cent Store, (Patriquin's Building) for Fresh Home-made Candies.

The provincial electoral lists for Ward 8, section 15, are posted for inspection at O. W. Tremblay's, Grand Pre; Fred Faulkner's blacksmith shop, Grand Pre; Norman Patterson's blacksmith shop, Wolfville. In section 16: F. J. Potter's; Wolfville; Hunter's mill, Gaspeaux; Forsyth's blacksmith shop, Greenwick.

The students at Mount Allison have organized a mock parliament. W. Morley Alcorn of '92 and Leonard of '92 are the leaders respectively of government and opposition. Morley is well to the front in every enterprise that is a benefit to his fellow students. A rink was recently started by him and is meeting with good success.

Minard's Liniment is the Best.

Quite an interesting race was had at the rink on Tuesday evening, between D. E. Woodman, the champion walker, and Edward Macintosh, of Lower Horton. The former was to walk 4 1/2 miles while the latter ran 5 miles. Woodman won by part of a lap. Macintosh is a graceful and good runner and we expect to see another race.

Call at the Kandy Kitchen, Ten Cent Store, (Patriquin's Building) for Fresh Home-made Candies.

Next Sunday, Feb. 7th, the services in St. John's Church, will be at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at the 11 A. M. service. The Rector will take services. Subject of morning sermon: "Apocatastasis." Subject of evening sermon: "The Christian's threefold Victory, and its Reward." Young people of all Christian bodies are specially invited to the evening service.

The Dominion Cabinet as reconstructed is as follows:—President of the Council, J. J. C. Abbott; Railways, John G. Hagart; Justice, Sir John Thompson; Finance, Geo. E. Foster; Customs, J. A. Chapleau; Inland Revenue, John Costigan; Militia, MacKenzie Bowell; Agriculture, John Carling; Marine and Fisheries, C. H. Tupper; Postmaster-General, Sir A. P. A sad event occurred at the residence of Mr. S. Prat, this town, yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, when Mr. Goodridge Roberts, a promising young graduate of Kings College, Windsor, passed to the great beyond. He had been pursuing a course of special study at Kings, and on Saturday last came to Wolfville to take the Sabbath service at St. John's Church. He was attacked by his death-bed scene at St. Helena, presenting an evening of brilliant and thrilling scenes and brilliant illumination. Tickets 25 cents. Children, 15 cents. Now on sale. Tickets will not doubt be crowded.

SHILOH'S COUGH and Consumption cure is sold by us on a guarantee. It cures consumption. Sold by Geo. V. Hand, druggist.

Also, I am offering my store for sale as I am anti-pating some change in the spring. It is one of the most centrally located in town, and would be suitable for almost any kind of business.

Wolfville, January 26th, 1892.

The New Canadian Monthly.

Canadians everywhere will be delighted with the new magazine, the Dominion Illustrated, the first issue of which has just reached us. The publishers in their prospectus declared their intention to make this new magazine, in its literary, artistic and mechanical features a credit to Canada; and the initial number is a decided proof that they intend to keep their word. The Dominion Illustrated, with an artistic cover, presents a very handsome outward appearance; and the contents of this number, both in literary excellence and artistic illustration, will command the admiration of every reader. "The Raid from Beauséjour" by Chas. G. D. Roberts, begun in this issue, is a powerfully written story, with illustrations by Patterson, of the days when Abbe La Londe's influence caused rapine and bloodshed in the newly acquired British Province of Nova Scotia. Rugby foot-ball during the last year or so has become the most popular of autumn games in Canada, and therefore the bright and full description of the game written for this number by R. Tait McKenzie, with about a dozen illustrations showing the field and various stages of the game, will delight every lover of athletics. "Hamilton's Raid on Vincennes," by Douglas Brynner, is a vivid description of an episode of the Revolutionary War; and Mr. Brynner's dispassionate and unswerving marshalling of proofs clears the character of Hamilton from the aspersions of American writers, while it shows up some of the "fathers of the revolution" in anything but an enviable light. Miss A. M. McLeod, in "Beyond the Pentland Firth," gives a fine description of Kirkcubright and other points in the Orkneys combining British, Roman, Norse and Scottish legend and story with modern scenery and conditions of life in the most fascinating manner. Duncan Campbell Scott contributes a quaint and interesting character study, styled "John Scantleberry"; while Rev. Arthur John Lockart (Pastor Felix), in the familiar "Red and Blue Pencils" delights his readers with one of those semi-confidential but wholly charming letters which have won for him a distinct place in Canadian literature. A splendid portrait of the late Duke of Clarence and Avondale, with a sketch of his life; a delightful children's story, by Miss Marjory MacCarthy; poems by Arthur Weir, S. M. Boyle, Helen Fairbairn and J. T. Burgess; "Modern Impressions," by Prof. Roberts, and "Book Reviews" by the editor complete this brilliant number. It is splendidly illustrated throughout, and its distinctively Canadian character is a strong feature and ensures it a hearty welcome from the public.

Notice.—The Kip's Co. Baptist W. M. A. Convention will meet in the Wolfville Baptist church on Friday, Feb. 12th at 3 p. m. A public meeting will be held in the evening, at which there will be an interesting programme.
