

Gleaned by the Way.

The Beggar—'Sir, I was not always like this. The Victim—'No, last week you were lame in the other leg.'

In Dr. Chase Your Doctor?

For over a generation Dr. Chase has, by means of his famous Receipt book and great family medicine, been winning the confidence and esteem of the people of this continent. His Kidney Pills, Ointment, Nerve Food and other medicines have long since proven their exceptional merits and today are to be found in the best homes everywhere. Why not let Dr. Chase be your doctor?

Hubby—'What! You paid $50 for that hat? It's monstrous—it's a sin!' Wife (sweetly)—'No matter, the sin will be on my own head.'

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by A. V. Rand.

She—'Did you hear they were going to tax bachelors?' He—'Yes, but they'll never get it out of me.'

She—'It is nice of you to put it that way, but I must speak to mother first.'

In Agony With Piles.

Mr. G. W. Corbett, with the Shaw Milling Co., St. Catharines, Ont., writes: 'For six years I was a victim of itching, protruding piles and hemorrhoids. I tried every remedy known to me, but to no avail. I finally secured a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, which I did and obtained relief from the first box and complete cure with the second. The ointment would be cheap at fifty dollars a box, in view of what it did for me.'

'I'll have you know, stranger, that I belong to Chicago,' said a two-particle American to a native of California. 'Dead,' responded the Scot, 'an' wh'd ha' thooch it? Frae the way ye've been speakin' I thocht Chicago 'belonged to you!'

'All right behind there' called the conductor from the front of the car. 'Hold on,' cried a shrill voice. 'Wait till I get my clothes on!'

The passengers craned their necks expectantly. A small boy was struggling to get a basket of laundry aboard.

Some time ago, in the court of a Scottish burgh, a man was charged with the theft of a pig. The worthy Bailie, in sentencing the prisoner, remarked that pig stealing in the burgh had lately been too rife, and finished his peroration thus: 'And unless I make an example of you it's very certain that none of us will be safe.'

Dr. Chase's Ointment

A surgeon in a western town, engaged to perform an operation of minor character upon a somewhat unsophisticated patient, asked him if he were willing to have only a local anesthetic.

'Sure,' replied the other: 'I believe in patronizing home industry whenever you can.'

And he meant it.

Poultry Notes.

If you make a mistake find out how to avoid it next time. If there is any danger of lice getting on the little chicks grease them with vaseline under the wings and on top of the head.

Poultry seldom have too much sun, but they are often kept in such close quarters that they become unhealthy and unprofitable.

The idea that 'anything is good enough for hogs and chickens' has put many a farmer on the wrong side of the road to profitable farming.

By the use of a trap-net you can know what each hen is doing. Use for hatching only the eggs from the best layers. This plan followed for a number of years will have wonderful results on the laying qualities of your flock.

Filth causes lice and disease. During the warm weather mites breed in the droppings and spread to every crevice and corner. Begin early to fight these pests by keeping the henhouse clean and by spraying several times with a good lice paint.

Chicks can be fed a variety of vegetables, but too much cabbage sometimes causes bowel trouble. Finely mixed grain is good for them. Millet seed is very good, scattered in the litter. Milk is good, a little every day, and plenty of fresh water. Do not feed too much at the start.

If you would get winter eggs you must breed and feed for them. This means breeding from fowls that have shown themselves capable of shelling out eggs when the temperature is down to zero, getting the chicks out early, keeping them growing all the time and housing them in comfortable quarters.

A falling tiny nerve—no larger than the finest silk thread—takes from the heart its impulses, its power, its regularity. The stomach also has its hidden, inside nerve. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or falling stomach, heart or kidneys.

His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed straight for the cause of these ailments—those weak and falling inside nerves. This, no doubt, clearly explains why the Restorative has of late grown so rapidly in popularity. Drug gists say that those who test the Restorative are fully convinced of its wonderful merit.

Anyway, don't drug the organ. Treat the cause of illness, that is the only sane and successful way. Sold by A. V. Rand.

Errors Will Creep In.

It is the nature of men—especially if he is a printer—to make mistakes, and it has been asserted that a book absolutely perfect as to spelling, grammar, setting, etc., has never been given to the world. Such an attempt was made some years ago by a firm of publishers, and so determined were they to succeed that only the most experienced compositors were employed to set the type; the proof-sheets were entrusted to one of the most learned and expert correctors then living, and were afterwards carefully re-read by fifteen selected proofreaders, each of whom was offered the sum of £10 for every error discovered.

At the end of these arduous labors the book was issued to the public, and it was then discovered that there were two glaring errors in the first chapter.

A distinguished doctor some time ago wrote to a professional friend saying: 'I would rather see a patient with almost any other disease enter my consulting room, than one afflicted with the seven devils of indigestion and dyspepsia.' That doctor knew exactly that indigestion is difficult to cure—that it poisons the blood, starves and weakens the body and nerves. But he didn't seem to know that Mother Seigel's Syrup has cured tens of thousands of cases of indigestion, heart trouble, Cape August, P.O., Richmond Co., N. S., writes us on January 27th last, saying: 'For over 7 years I suffered from stomach troubles. The little book I ate gave me encouragement to my body. Three months ago, I tried Mother Seigel's Syrup and two bottles of it completely cured me.' He adds that it also cured a number of his friends.—Price 50 cts. per bottle. A. J. ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardner, Maine.—'I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and was entirely cured after three months' use of them. Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 20, Gardner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ill, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

WHY NOT OWN AN AUTOMOBILE?

If automobiles are needed anywhere at all they are in the country. One of the speakers of the Women's Institute, at Gosport, recently predicted that the time was near at hand when farmer's wives would run their own automobiles. Nor is the prediction a visionary one.
