The World's W. C. T. U.

TENTH CONVENTION IN LONDON (APRIL 18-25TH)

BON VOYAGE

By Mrs. Gordon Wright

Dear Comrades,—You seem very near to me though an ocean separates us. From the moment we started "loving kindness and tender mercies" have surrounded us and it is just a succession of kindnesses.

We had a remarkable voyage for early April—so crew and passengers declare—we felt dear comrades your prayers were following us and the sea was held as if in "the hollow of His Hand." Every courtesy possible was extended us and we were accorded seats at the Captain's table where as a party we could all assemble. Each morning after breakfast the White Ribbon party assembled on deck for a devotional service in charge of the Rev. Mr. Vance, who accompanied Mrs. Vance, and there, to the accompaniment of the lapping waves, we honored God by singing his praises. Others often joined us, and we believe a finer spirit prevailed because of this daily little service.

How shall we begin to tell the story of the royal welcome accorded us in Liverpool by our White Ribbon sisters there. We docked early Monday morning, April 12th, but not too early for a number of the Liverpool comrades to be there to greet and receive us.

We would love to linger over the Liverpool story and speak of the many courtesies extended by our Liverpool White Ribbon sisters but we must hasten on to the all-important World's Executive meeting which occupied all of Saturday, April 17th.

Lady Carlisle, World's President, presided throughout with customary ability. In her fine address of welcome Lady Carlisle took high ground—that we "as followers of Christ should exemplify His life through our lives."

Much of important business awaited attention—but outstanding in interest and pathos were the appeals from the various countries for help. Miss Carpenter fresh from Mt. Lebanon made an urgent appeal for Syria in this hour of need—where so many have suffered and died—through famine. Lady Carlisle aptly remarked "Get rid of the liquor shops and famine and suffering will every where lessen."

Miss Stewart, niece of the well-known writer Olive Schreiner—made appeal on behalf of the work in South Africa and the protection of its native races. Mrs. Lunder, of India, bore testimony that "India was ripe for prohibition." Burmah, its representative, said—needed it and was ready for it now.

At five o'clock a reception and tea was accorded the World's Executive and Overseas delegates by the National B.W.T.U., where a delightful opportunity was afforded us for our meeting, and greeting once more our World's comrades.

Red Riding Hood

An old tale—
Re-told by the Canada Life.

A True Story—Told with New Meaning

The Wolf Who Made a Mistake

A man called "Daddy" who works to keep the Wolf from the door.

The Wolf who is always prowling around.

The Wolf tells Red Riding Hood that something dreadful has happened!

In due time the Wolf of poverty and distress, makes for the home.

But he finds he has made a mistake—the Canada Life Monthly Income Protection stands between the Wolf and his designs.

A dreadful tale was told the little girl in this story. It was about her Daddy, upon whom everything depended.

So far all had been well, because he had worked to keep away a certain bad, hungry Wolf.

But now the Wolf made it plain that he was going to live at her home,—because Daddy's work was done.

There would be no more toys, no more new shoes and dresses—

Perhaps even food would be denied to her and her mother—

Very soon her childish hands would learn hard tasks,—her innocent mind would take up the cares of life.

♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

So this was the Wolf of poverty and distress,—the spectre of want that Daddy had worked so hard to keep from his home!

But this Wolf had made one mistake.

It was only too true that Daddy would return no more, but—

Faithful and loving, he had planned that each month a Canada Life cheque would come to that home, almost as if he had brought it himself.

In due time they learned how perfectly Daddy had guarded them and by his forethought shielded them from want and despair.

The Monthly Cheque That Never Fails

It is all so simple and effective!

Just a few dollars set aside and now, without delay, the Canada Life will guarantee to your home a regular monthly income.

In the Meantime

But in the meantime, what a relief to know that no matter what may happen the monthly cheque that never fails, issued regularly by the Canada Life will come to your home!

Just a Few Dollars Saving

You will be surprised to learn what a reasonable proposition can be made to you, how only a few dollars saved and set aside from your regular earnings can be multiplied into an income which will surely keep the Wolf from your door.
