GUZZLING STATISTICS. -- The British Almo-nac for the year 1870 states that there is expended yearly in the United Kingdom, fordrink and tobacco, more than a hundred millions sterling The writer. Dr. Smiles, grounds his calculations upon government returns. Scutland imbibes whiskey at the rate of twice gallons appualty to seeh returns. Scotland imbibes whiskey at the rate of twelve gallons annually to each adult male. The English consumption of beer is about a hundred and twenty gallon which a sach adult male.

Socialist Conspirations in Russia.—A late telegram from Moscow states that further revolations have been made respecting the conspiracies for exciting the population in different parts of Russia to demonstrations on the abolition of serfdom anniversary. The plotters had circulated proscription lists, containing the names of high Government officials and the leaders of the national party. The conspiracy has been designed chiefly for the promotion of socialist views. The leaders who have been arrested will debrought before the ordinary tribunals. Most of them have been taken in Moscow, but it is clear that the plot extended to several of the leading towns.
