POSTAL EMPLOYEES CALL GENERAL STRIKE

French Post and Telegraph Unions Go Out on Strike, Seriously Crippling Important Public Services Government Take Measures to Replace Revolting Civil Servants
—Trains Leave With Mails.

Paris, May 11.—The Federal committee of the various postal employees organizations has voted not to await the vote of the Chamber of Deputies on the interpellations submitted today on the postal troubles. It launched an order to strike this evening. The committee decision was unanimously and enthusiastically indorsed by a mass meeting held at the Hippodrome, which was crowded by 10,000 employees, whose right to be present was rigorously examined on entry. The strike order was immediately obeyed, according to messages which kept reaching the meeting, stating that the railway letter sorters had not left the Gare St. Lazare the night's mail, and that various post offices had been deserted by their staffs including most of the letter and printed matter sorters from the head office.

Woman Addressed Meeting.
A woman addressed the meeting to beseech her fellow telephonists to sign the strike lists as they left the hall. She complained that no women had been punished by the government although she for one had made speeches similar to the men's. The government's contempt she found more insulting than Mr. Snyman's language before the late strike. Tremendous cheering greeted the news that the seamen's strike had prevented mail mails from being sent from St. Nazaire to Central America and Antilles. Before the meeting the telegraph employees had quit work. The sorters traveling on the train to Lyons, refused to work, and the south bound mail train left without them. The men at the Gare St. Lazare are also struck. In addition to the mail sorters who refused to leave Paris their trains several hundred postmen left their deliveries half completed in Paris in order to attend the meeting at the Hippodrome. A majority of the operators at the Central Telegraph station quit work but their places were taken at once by military telegraphists.

Seamen's Strike at St. Nazaire.
A dispatch from St. Nazaire states that the strike of the employees of the Central Trans-Atlantic company continues and steamships are being detained. The dock laborers refused to ship 500 mail bags for Central America and the West Indies and these mails are therefore returned to Paris. The tie-up is expected to be more complete in Paris than in the provinces. The president of the strike committee declares that tomorrow night a general strike will be observed. The general opinion is tonight that the Government will be able to maintain a crippled service. The principal danger is that violence may occur and that Parisians may be aroused by the appearance of the scene of the General Federation of Laborers marching in the streets.

The Paris Chamber of Commerce sent out a letter tonight to all Chambers of Commerce in France with a full instruction to the effect that the strike should be carried out in event of the railroads failing, by automobiles.
The products of the various departments have already arranged for this.

Austrian Archduke Working as Machinist

John Orth, Earning $15 Per Week in Cleveland, Says He is Johann Sal-vatore, Cousin of the Reining Emperor of Austria—Identification to be Verified.

Cleveland, O., May 11.—No trace can be found in Cleveland tonight of John Orth, a workman in the Cos Machine shop, who today is declared to have admitted to a newspaper reporter that he is Johann Salvatore, the missing Prince of the reigning house of Austria. That the machinist who draws $15 in his pay envelope each week is the cousin of the Emperor of Austria and renowned title and estates in 1890 that he might wear Ludmille Strubel, a Viennese opera singer, and later was reported lost at sea with the ship St. Margaretha, in which he sailed from London soon after his marriage, in-doubt by the American consul here, Baron Paul Forster.

The disappearance of John Orth, as he called himself when he appeared in Evansville, four years ago, each time working in the Cos machine shop, has left further inquiry into his identity an impossibility until he shall be found.

"Yes, I am John Orth, or Johann Salvatore," the bent man apparently of years of age, answered to his identity. He then recounted a tale of wanderings over the world. Beginning with his escape from the steamer St.
Margaretha on the Argentine coast, the loss of the vessel, his removal eventually to a farm on the island of Martinique, the loss of his wife and two children in the eruption of Mount Pelée and his wanderings in America, following a visit to Paris and the receipt there of advice not to reappear in Austria.

When he left the machine shop tonight he told Sup't. W. E. Flavin he need not be surprised if he did not return. "You know why," he said.
Flavin admits Orth disclosed his identity to him four years ago, when he first worked in the shop.

Colonel Felix Rosenberg, former Austrian army officer, who came to Edmonton with men and events of the archduke's disappearance, now is awaiting in Painesville the return of Orth to the little boarding house of "Old Man Dunn," a character of the town. He intends seeking verification of Orth's identity by reference to various officers of the court and to events previous to the archduke's disappearance. On responses to these references will depend the verification of Orth's identity as a prince of the oldest reigning house of Europe.

Reveal Business Transactions.
Winnipeg, May 12.—Under Tolman's agent, Miss M. A. Glynn, has elected for a special trial. Her books reveal hundreds of business transactions, and instructions were given not to deal with newspaper men, lawyers, or their employees or persons connected with the police, sheriff or judges.

WHEAT WORTH ONLY ABOUT ONE DOLLAR

Head of U. S. Agriculture Department Says Public Will Take Care of Patten and God Head Himself Runs to Cover Before Wilson Arrives.

Chicago, May 10.—Wheat at the present time is worth about $1 a bushel. At that price all the farmers in the north and west would plow up their corn and pasture lands and sell them in wheat. As for Patten, the public will take care of him and God help him. That is all that I can say.
—Statement by Secretary of Agriculture
Wilson.

"Time will tell who is the thief and robber," Secretary Wilson or I. Wheat is worth just what it has been selling for and even more. I don't intend to help him. That is all that I can say.
Wilson.

Was Heavily Bombed.
But before he ran, the wheat dealer was bombed by Roosevelt's members of the cabinet with some of his heaviest guns trained on the man who says wheat should and will go higher.
Regarding the beet trust, and the Wilsons, Mr. Wilson said he would declare openly that he would not say anything which would injure the business done by the beet packers of the United States.

"I don't propose to injure the business of the packers, by saying anything which would injure the business of the packers. I don't propose to injure the business of the packers. I don't
