ONTARIO TO TAKE GOOD PART IN COMING LIBERAL VICTORY

This is Word that Sir Wilfrid Laurier Carries Back to Quebec-Van Wart Denies Malicious Report of His Retirement-Premier Sifton and J. M. Douglas at Camrose-Kipling Alleged Interview May Prove Fake

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 10-Sir Wilfrid Laurier concluded his tour of Ontario with a magnificent meeting here Saturday. "The week I have been travelling your province has been all too short," he told the great gather-ing, "I wish that I could be with you longer. On Monday I return to my native province of Quebec, and I carry with me the assurance that Ontario will take a good part in the coming victory for the great policy so long dear to the hearts of the people of Canada."

Nearly fifteen hundred Americans came over from Detroit and vicinity to hear the Canadian Premier. Among their number were William Aller Smith of Michigan who voted against reciprocity in the United States Senate and Milton A. McRae, president of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce

Windsor's welcome was a hearty Sir Wilfrid was escorted through the gaily decorated streets at the head of a cheering procession, and on arrival at Ouellet square was given an enthulastic reception by the waiting thousands. Chas. Montrieul, president of the Liberal Association presided and among those on the platform, in addition to the local candidates were Messrs. D. A. Gor-Conservative member; J. A. Auld, ex-MP.; William Mikes, former member ,and many others.

The Premier's Speech. Following short addresses by Dr P. A. Dewar and A H Clarke, the local candidate, the Premier spoke both in English and French. He was greeted with long continued cheering and despite the intense heat spoke with his accustomed vigor. He was the apostle of the policy for which the Conservatives and Liberals of the past alike had labored, a policy of opening up better trade relations with the great republic with which Canada made by the Americans in rejecting of disapproval were heard at the un-the overtures of Sir John A.
