The Tory Leopard Cannot Change Its Spots.

The unpopularity of the Government is intense. It exceeds in intensity even the feeling of 1889 and 1900. It is a noteworthy feature of all three occasions, that the feeling is directed against a Tory Government. The animosity of the people towards the Party of '89 was so great that every member of the Tory Executive who sought the suffrage of the people was not only defeated but placed at the bottom of the poll and only nine members of the party obtained seats in the next House of Assembly. In such a way did the people mark their disapproval of the action of the Tory administration of 1885 to 1898, and to-day the memory of that administration lives as the government of the gunny bag, fousty meal and sour molasses. A Tory administration was tried again in the Fall of 1897, but the experience of that administration was even worse, and its history is so well known, that it will be recalled by a mere reference. How severely the people dealt with the Tory party at the election of 1900 is a matter of record. Only four of them were left at the muster-roll of 1905, the people having given the party the worst drubbing on record in the history of politics in Newfoundland. The Tory party were given another chance in 1909. It is true the name of the party was so unpopular that they changed it absolutely and went to the country under a new banner, a new name and a new leader. Sir Edward Morris was called to the leadership by that arch-Tory, Morrison, and his associates in the House of Assembly in 1909. In his reply to the requisition he accepted the position of the leader of the Opposition forces in the Colony, which henceforth will be known as The People's Party. "Under the banner of the People's Party the whole of the industrial classes of the Colony—the Fishermen, the Farmers, the Mechanics, the Laborers, the Clerks, and all who work for a living—will find a rallying point, where all who wish to see their country advance may join together to work for the common good. All who work for a living who took the bait have been grievously disappointed by the experience of the past four years. They have not found the rally point they were promised, where work would be done for the common good. They have found a banner under which are crowded a group of members grabbing all the tubercles of its they can get hold of, a gang of heelers picking up all kinds of fees and commissions that they can induce the Government to give them, a body of politicians careless of the future and spending public money lavishly in the hope of turning the political tide which is now running hard against them. The People's Party banner has become a resort for all who are self-seekers and all who are looking out for Government pay, and who are reckless of the common good. All who work for a living see a crowd of picnickers under the People's Party banner, who are getting a good time out of the Government at the expense of the people. All who work for a living find it harder to live now than the People's Party run the Government. House rent is higher. Coal is dearer. Food is scarcer and more expensive. Clothing is dearer. People are being plied by the Tory Times, while they are exasperated by the picnics and fine times the People's Party leaders enjoy. They are reminded that Tory Times were always hard times and are so to-day. They find themselves under the Tory leopard and it cannot change its spots.

The Police Court.

Three drunks were discharged; three others were fined $2 or 7 days each.
A drunk and disorderly fisherman who damaged the cab in which he was conveyed to the station, was fined $5 or 14 days.
Another drunk and disorderly who smashed the windows of his cell at the police station was fined $5 or 14 days.
AN ANNOYING AFFAIR.
Yesterday Mr. John Tucker, of Broad Cove, came to the city with his horse and express, and just before noon he left it standing on George Street while he went to a restaurant. When he returned he found the horse gone nor did he find it afterwards. The man left town at 8 o'clock and had to tramp home. At 11 o'clock last night the police found the animal tied to a post on New Gower Street. Boys had the horse off driving all the afternoon and night, and if they are found should be severely punished.

The Human Frog

OR BONELESS WONDER.
Last night at Rosley's Star Theatre, saw the biggest crowd ever assembled at one time to witness the most wonderful act ever seen on a vaudeville stage. Mr. Dave Nicholson, known as the Human Frog or Boneless Wonder. He is a good looking, slim young fellow, who can certainly tie himself in knots. The audience were simply held spell bound by the feats performed by young Nicholson. He is a marvel, and scores of people went behind the stage to shake hands with him, and any one looking at his act might well ask, has he any bones in his body. His act is refined and has been witnessed by the very highest society in Canada and the United States and England. He will change his act often. He is a first class aerial performer, horizontal bar and flying trapeze artist. Also a barrel jumper, and can give a great exhibition on the tight rope, and slack wire. Then he is a good eccentric dancer, can dance on the wire as well as on the stage, and will do other stunts, that will astonish all.

Death of Mr. W. R. Grieve.

The death occurred last week at his home in Grenock, Scotland, of Walter Richardson Grieve, Esq., well known to many of our old time mercantile people. Mr. Grieve who was in his 60th year was a son of the late Walter Grieve and died after an illness of short duration. He was for years a partner with his father here and was a man of kindly and genial temperament and noted for his charity and kindness to the poor.
The old servants and the general employees of the firm had for him a warm corner in their hearts and held him in the highest esteem. He was a first cousin of W. B. Grieve, Esq.
CITY OF SYDNEY SAILS.—The S. City of Sydney sailed at 5 a.m. to-day taking one additional passenger, Mr. Rodger.
