Smallpox at Broad Cove.

FIFTEEN CASES DISCOVERED.

An outbreak of Smallpox has been discovered at Broad Cove. Dr. Brehm the Health Physician, has furnished some facts on the matter. The first intimation Dr. Brehm had was on Saturday night by Dr. Cowperthwaite, whose services had been engaged by Joseph Squires, who reported to him that members of his family were seriously ill with an illness that looked mysterious to him. Dr. Cowperthwaite drove to the settlement on Saturday afternoon and on examination found that his patients had contracted Smallpox as their faces were covered with blotches. On returning to the city, Dr. Cowperthwaite acquainted Dr. Brehm with the fact. The Health Officer, yesterday, drove to Broad Cove where he discovered that the contagion had visited the settlement about three weeks ago. He made a rigid investigation and found the ailment to be in six houses, and that in all fifteen patients were stricken with it. Dr. Brehm quarantined the houses to prevent the disease from spreading, anfl also vaccinated several people. He cannot trace the origin of it, but reports that no serious results need be entertained as most of the patients are convalescent and that the disease is of a very mild type. Today Constables Lawlor and Tobin, acting upon instructions from Health Officer Brehm, left for Broad Cove to carry out the quarantine regulations. They took a quantity of clothes along with them.

Off for Trinidad

Mr. Michael Dunne, the mining engineer, and well known in St. John's, took passage by the S. S. Florizel, Saturday midnight en route to Trinidad. Eleven men accompanied Mr. Dunne who engaged them to work in the iron mines at the South American port. The mine there is something similar to the one at Bell Island. Amongst the party gone is Mike Spearns, of North West whaling fame, and Fred. Freeman, who worked with the Reid Company for many years and who was an exceptional walker. The Newfoundland miners are promised good wages and are looking forward to returning with 'fat pockets.'

ARRIVED AT BAHIA.— The schr. Dorothy Baird, Capt. Keeping, arrived at Bahia on Saturday, after a 35 days passage.

Rev. P. W. Browne, of St. Jacques, arrived in the city Saturday night with a patient for the Hospital. The ambulance was at the station, and Mr. Whiteway looked after the transfer of the patient, who is very seriously ill.

PRESENTATION. — Mr. Edward Doheney, who left by the Florizel, en route to Trinidad, was presented with a handsome set of sleeve links Saturday night by the members of the Shoemakers' Union, of which body the recipient was President.

ASKS FOR COMPENSATION.—Canman Butler, whose horse was struck by a street car on Duckworth Street, Saturday afternoon, resulting in its leg getting broken and had to be shot, paid $250 for the animal last summer. We understand Mr. Butler will claim damages.

Both Branches of the Holy Name Society of the city will meet at the Cathedral, Sunday afternoon, and will parade to St. Patrick's Church where Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be imposed and a sermon preached likely by His Grace the Archbishop. The parade will be accompanied by the bands of the C. C. C. T. A. & B. and Mount Cashel.

WAS NOT THE REGAL.—The vessel sighted off Admiral's Cove, Friday, was not the 'Regal,' which is supposed to have met disaster, as a message to Minister of Fisheries Piccott, on Saturday, from Mr. P. Lake, of Fortune, elicited the fact that his schr. Regal, which left St. Pierre on Christmas Eve, had two jibs and did not compare with the craft reported at Admiral's Cove.

Obituary.

At 2.30 p.m. yesterday, the death occurred at her residence, Park Place, of Mrs. Goodridge, the esteemed wife of A. F. Goodridge, Esq., principal of the firm of Alan Goodridge & Sons, Limited. In the passing of Mrs. Goodridge, the city losses a lady who was both popular and widely known in society and one whose kindly and lady-like characteristics endeared her to many. A woman noted for her wide and non-ostentatious charities, Mrs. Goodridge will be sadly missed by the poor of the city and her family mourns to-day the loss of a loved and loving mother and the bereaved husband a faithful and affectionate wife. Mrs. Goodridge's maiden name was Jean Hyde Hunt, she being a sister of the late James Hunt, Commission Merchant. A brother and sister mourn her in England while she leaves here 4 sons, Messrs. Richard, Bert, Frederick and William Goodridge and 2 daughters Misses Minnie and Grace Goodridge. To the sorrowing husband and family the Telegram extends its condolence.

Creation of Great Slav Empire.

Paris, Dec. 27.—According to the Vienna correspondent of the Journal, a friend of Archduke Franz Ferdinand is authority for the disclosure of an ambitious plan which the Archduke has conceived and is now actively endeavoring to make effective. If the plan is successful, it is expected to have the effect of completely breaking up at one stroke the political forms and the system of alliances of the Europe of to-day.

In a word the Archduke aims at the creation of a vast Slav Empire of the south under the Crown of the Hapsburgs. He is now preparing a coup d'etat in Austria-Hungary to clear the way for the first part of his programme, which is the liberation of the discontented and ill-assorted monarchy. Having thus made a clean sweep of the existing political conditions he will proceed with the work of building up, by restoring the ancient and historical kingdom and founding new principalities.

The new confederation, according to the same authority, is to include the autonomous kingdoms of Hungary Bohemia and Poland, each with its own personal ruler. Servia, with its frontiers extended by recent victories and still further increased by the inclusion of Slavonia; Montenegro enlarged by a part of Dalmatia, and part of Herzegovina, and the other Balkan States.

Poland is said to have been quick to grasp the plan and has signified unanimous adhesion. Bulgaria is favorably disposed, and active pourparlers are now going on between Emperor Ferdinand and Archduke Franz Ferdinand. Servia, it is also said, is beginning to realize the advantages of the scheme.

Terrible Experience.

Captain of Wrecked Mary Smith, 13 Hours Lashed in Rigging. Mate Dies in Rigging and one of the Seamen, after reaching the Shore.

Capt. Lewis, of the wrecked schr. Mary Smith, belonging to Hr. Breton, arrived at Holyrood via Placentia, Saturday evening. The captain had a dreadful experience having spent thirteen hours in the rigging after the schooner struck. His mate, Cox, died in the rigging and one of the seamen Saunders, died after reaching the shore. The Mary Smith was bound from Halifax to St. Pierre with a load of hard coal. The loss to the owner, Mr. John Smith, of Hr. Breton, is a severe one as neither vessel nor cargo was insured.

Regal's Crew Safe.

Messages were received in the city to-day to the effect that the barqt. Gaspe, Captain Connors, thirty-three days out from Pernambuco to this port, had put into Bay Bulls having on board the wrecked crew of the schooner Regal, which was reported so frequently as missing and which was supposed to have gone down with all hands. It is now quite apparent that the vessel foundered, but happily the crew are safe. The Regal is owned by Mr. P. Lake, of Fortune. Her crew are all Newfoundlanders.

With reference to the above, Supt. Smith, of the Anglo, had the following message from Bay Bulls:—

Gaspe arrived at Bay Bulls, 4 p.m. Sunday, brought in crew of Regal took from vessel; she was leaking and her sails all gone. She picked them up Saturday just in time to save them. The Gaspe is still at Bay Bulls and the wrecked crew still on her; crew all well.

The Police Court.

Two drunks were discharged.

A drunk and disorderly in his own house was ordered to find two sureties in $50 each or in default go to jail for 30 days.

A drunk was fined $1 or 3 days.

A man convicted of using obscene language in the public street was ordered to pay costs.

A drunk in his own home was discharged.

A charge of loose and disorderly conduct and obstructing the police is standing over.

The Clyde Here.

The s.s. Clyde, Capt. Job Knee, arrived here from Pool's Island Saturday afternoon having had a good run south. On her last trip round the bay, the Clyde had terrible weather to contend with, it being very stormy with intense frost and the glass almost the whole time dropping below the zero mark. Gales of N. and N.W. wind prevailed with a high sea, snow storms were frequent and it was often difficult and dangerous work making port. The ship got out thro' the slob ice at Fogo before the Fogota got in and became jammed. The ship brought up 3,014 packages of fish and her passengers here were Mr. Sol. Roberts and son, and four in steerage. The Clyde made 64 trips for the season and carried several thousand passengers, without mishap.

McMurdo's Store News.

MONDAY, Jan. 13, 1913.

This kind of weather — sudden changes from mild rain to hard winds —dry, sunshiny days followed by cold nights—often makes imperative that some skin preparation should be constantly at hand to prevent and cure the resulting soreness, chaps, and abrasions, and keep the face and hands in a soft, smooth and healthy condition. Cream of Lilies will do this work well. Its faithful application will be rewarded with the entire removal of any skin trouble caused by the effects of sudden changes of weather. Cream of Lilies Soap is the proper toilet soap to be used at the time that you are using the Cream. Price (Cream of Lilies) 25c. a pot, Soap, 20c. a cake; box of three cakes, 50c.
