herring Fishery. New Banking System for India.

At present there are not less than six American vessels at Bay of Islands and one at St. George's seeking cargoes of herring and it is not likely that they will be supplied for some time as these fish are reported to be very scarce on the West Coast just now, although a fortnight ago there was an abundance of herring around Bay of Islands. However, it is too early yet to predict a gloomy outlook for the herring fishery.

Your Duty.

Nothing to do with the Custom House, good friend. Its only reference just now is to yourself. Let us suppose that you are a man of family with sufficient of the world's goods to keep them in comfort. Very well. You did not reach this satisfactory state of affairs without care and labour—few men do. Suppose you are awakened some night with shouts of alarm ringing in your ears. Too late then to talk of prudence; too late then to say "If I had only, etc., etc." That "If" means too much to many forgetful people. Is it not always the duty of a self-respecting citizen to protect his home and thus provide for those within it. Is it any more the duty to those depending on him to protect them as far as possible? Can you call your property your own when it is not insured? The answer to this argument is to carry insurance with Percie Johnson's agency the most popular office in Newfoundland and the least expensive.

Fear Man is Lost in Forest.

Liverpool, N.S., Nov. 6.—Some where in the forest surrounding the works of the Sable Lumber Company at Wilkin's Siding, Willis Bochner, now supposed to be of unsound mind, is believed to be lost. Last Friday night he left the camp thirty clad. Having his coat and vest with watch and chain and other articles there, and was found on Sunday in an unused camp of the company, after searching parties had dragged brooks and wells. He came back with the men and appeared all right. He went to work on Monday and vanished that night. He was an exceptionally quiet man, a good workman, and claimed Chester as his home, when he went to work with the Lumber Company. Monday the Superintendent asked him if he did not want to go home, when he replied that he had no home, that he came from Kingsburg, Lunenburg County, and wanted to stay with the men. He is about thirty-five years of age.

Calcutta, Nov. 6.—The continued failure of banks in India is causing much alarm, and the Government is contemplating legislation restricting the use of the term "bank" in this country. The Government has no intention of imposing irksome restrictions on solid banking institutions conducted by either foreign or domestic concerns.

Some of the clauses of the new measure approved by the Marquis of Crewe, Secretary of State for India, bear striking resemblances to many of the provisions of the Currency Bill now before Congress in Washington, and it is believed that the India Government has availed itself of information furnished as the result of the recent hearing on banking and currency.

India also has banking troubles peculiar to herself. The Indian public is slow substituting for the time-honoured custom of burying its gold, the more lucrative practice of making bank deposits, bearing interest. The Government considers that this practice should not only continue unchecked, but should be encouraged by legislation, which will make the deposits as safe as possible.

For years the world's supply of silver has been appreciably lowered by the Indian habit of burying savings, but the abundance of the metal has rendered this practice comparatively harmless as far as the rest of the world is concerned.

Lately, however, with increased prosperity the East Indians have begun to bury gold with alarming results on the world's gold supply. Hence the anxiety of the Government to give India an irreproachable banking system.

CHILDHOOD MEMORIES.

Though dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood, When fond recollections presents them to my view, I'd not care to live there again in the wildwood, Amid those remembered surroundings, should you? My health was superb and my appetite splendid, I ate my sorbels and greens with a zest, But I'm glad that comestible ordeal is ended— Such food nowadays I could never digest.

My hickory shirt and my shoes of rough leather, My jean pantalons that could stand up alone, My 10-cent straw hat—all my wardrobe together, Perhaps cost my father a round silver bone, Ah, those trusty jean breeches! Those rusty jean breeches! Those stiff scratchy breeches that stood up alone, You had to undress if you'd get to your liches— Those unyielding breeches were hard as a stone.

The drafty old farmhouse, the windows that rattled, The fireplaces to which after dark we'd draw near, All facing the fire like troopers embattled, While roasted in front, frozen stiff in the rear, And the cold of the bedroom, The leather bed bulging, The bliss of sweet sleep—then the 4 o'clock call, Dear memories, You'll pardon the tears I'm indulging, I am weeping for joy to be rid of it all.

Americans Seeking Herring Cargoes.

We learn on good authority that there are over seventy thousand quintals of fish afloat in the harbour at present. The harbour is practically filled with crafts containing codfish cargoes, and every mercantile premises along the waterfront is a hive of industry in the way of fish handling. At most places night work is carried on in order to relieve the thrush, which is caused by many of the outport people keeping their fish at home until the elections were over.

New C.C.C Co. Formed.

A new company, known as No. 6, was formed last week at Bell Island and is an addition to the Catholic Cadet Corps, of St. John's. The members of the new company, numbering sixty, paraded last week in St. Joseph's where the lads were addressed by Mr. V. P. Burke, Capt. of C. Co., C. C. C. and Rev. J. McGrath, after which hearty cheers were given for visiting Officer Burke and the company dispersed.

Mr. James O. Kerr.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. James O. Kerr, later Superintendent of the Eureka Woolen Mills, has been appointed to the responsible position of Superintendent of the Newfoundland Knitting Mills, Ltd. The Newfoundland Knitting Mills, Ltd., are to be congratulated on their selection. Mr. Kerr is thoroughly competent for the position for which he has been selected. As a mechanic he stands easily in the front rank. His natural capabilities, long experience and accurate knowledge of the technical working of such a plant are so well and favorably known in this country that his association in such an undertaking ensures success and prosperity in this undertaking. As to the business end of this enterprise, Mr. Kerr is eminently well qualified to guide and direct the important interests committed to his care. He is also deeply interested in every effort that makes for the uplifting of any community in which his lot may be cast. It is a manifest loss to the County of Pictou and to the Woolen trade here to lose a man of the calibre of Mr. Jas. O. Kerr.—New Glasgow Enterprise, Nov. 1st.

"QUO VADIS"

Two Latin words, the translation of which is "Whither goest thou?" A picture reproducing this famous story is to be seen at the Casino. Without fear or favor it can be truthfully said that this is the "finale" in moving pictures. It is the greatest picture ever projected upon a screen, either in Newfoundland or anywhere else. Historically correct in every detail, an explanation of this production baffles description! A large, select and enthusiastic audience attended the performance last night. They were each and every one amazed and astounded at the many thrilling episodes portrayed by the wonderful performers in this most marvelous conception of the author's story. Both time and money expended upon visiting the Casino to see this film are—believe us—worth while!

lookers how well he knew the art of swimming. Eventually he became exhausted and was rescued in the nick of time by a gang of workmen.
