Our Baseball Column.

PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

Dear Fan,—If you cannot attend either of the Baseball games to-morrow at St. George's Field, won't you help the C. of E. Orphanage Funds by giving the price of admission to some youngsters, and let them witness an exhibition of clean manly sport in aid of a most worthy cause?

Yours,

The Editor.

We have given our mite to the Red Fund.
To succour the distressed;
We have knitted our socks, and have made the shirts,
Bandages, and the rest—
We've subscribed to this and subscribed to that.
And never did complain,
And although we're not all Carnegies,
We'd do the same again.
But the principle of True Charity is That it begins at home—Though it's truly nice to collect the dubs,
To send across the foam.
But from the anguish and strife of this terrible War
Just let our thoughts be led—To the ORPHANS small of our "ain-folk"
And give them Meat and Bread.

bye."
