LONDON, Dec. 6. The text of a local prohibition bill, and France, and would seek a means applying to England and Wales, was to this end made public to-day. The measure will be introduced in the House as private bill, whose author states he has the backing of a small coterie of members. The object of the bill is to "enable Parliamentary electors in says it is reported that the Serbian prescribed areas, by a direct vote, to frontiers have been closed. probe the issue within such areas of licenses for the sale of intoxicating supply of such liquors in licensed premises included or elsewhere."
