Do You Realize How Much Retail Prices Have come down since last November?

It took five years of war and a year and a half more to run prices up to their highest point. No one expected prices to fall so rapidly. But in forward looking stores prices have come down very considerably.

PRICES ARE LOWER.

IN THIS STORE we've met every drop with a corresponding one in our prices. Our new price basis is a low price basis, and if you doubt it, read here, or visit our stores and compare some of our offerings.

A Challenge to Members.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—It is interesting to notice that our Hon. members for Placentia publicly acknowledge that St. Mary's public wharf was destroyed by the storm. What are they going to do about it? Forget it like the whistle that was to be erected at Point Le Haye to prevent the Fortia and other steamers from going on the rocks? During the last long session of the House of Assembly, St. Mary's Bay was never mentioned. When the House was closing we noticed that the Hon. members forced the Government to grant $70,000 for the Colinet line. Why not say the Placentia road? The people of Placentia can go by train to town when they wish, and now they are presented with a motor road, or at least with a grant for one. The road is opened at Hurley's and 110 men are employed, while 160 men are employed in the Placentia side. We understand the contract is $600 per mile; Placentia men, of course, got the contract! How are they going to spend $70,000? They certainly have made a mess of things in this side. We could walk over the road that was, but it is hard to get over the road that is. The people of St. Mary's have to drive 41 miles over a cow path, in order to get to St. John's to do business. We understand that the grant this year, for the road from the head of Salmonier to St. Joseph's, which is 8 miles, was something about $200. The rest of the so-called roads were to be repaired with potatoes. The Government are most economical in this district in regard to the facilities of locomotion for the taxpayers. North Harbour is one of the safest in this island, yet when schooners get in, they have no way of communication, consequently when a schooner is missing, North Harbour is the last hope; like many of the settlements they have no road. Colinet has three large sawmills and the owners have to send a telegraph message 14 miles to Whitbourne, or 8 miles to Mt. Carmel. When a person gets seriously ill in those places they may chance to get a priest and doctor. It should be easy to have phones erected in those places seeing that so many were discarded in St. John's during the past year, and that $18,000 will be used on the Placentia road for better or worse. There is a ferry boat plying between St. Joseph's and Mt. Carmel for which $150 per month were given for past services. Two ferry boats could be run at St. Joseph's and Mt. Carmel for half the money, and more suitable to the place. We were honoured with a visit from the Superintendent of schools a short time ago, but owing some business of more importance she had no time to examine the children. The Fortia is the only means at our disposal to get to St. John's, but through inadvertence on somebody's part, people who spent some days waiting for her here, had to suffer, and perishable freight for St. John's has to run the risk of being destroyed. We certainly are living in the wrong century, and will continue to do so until the people of this bay wake up to the fact that they must elect a member of their own to see after their wants. Thanking you for space.

Yours truly,

King Prorogues Parliament.

His Majesty Asks for Moderation and Patience--Methodist Church Registers Absolutely Against Divorce--Lloyd George Expresses Confidence in Sinn Fein Good Faith.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

LONDON, Nov. 10. Proroguing Parliament today King George said in part, "It is not yet possible to say that peace is firmly established in Europe and it must be long before the world can recover from the strain of war, but good progress has been towards the solution of most critical problems of home and foreign affairs. The situation in Ireland still causes me grave anxiety. I earnestly exhort leaders of all parties in Ireland and all those in whose hands lies the responsibility of the negotiations and discussions now proceeding to exercise patience and moderation, with the object of establishing friendship and co-operation between my people of that country. It is my firm belief, as it is my earnest prayer, that with forbearance and good will, and with an honest resolve to tread the path of forgiveness, enduring peace will be finally achieved. I have followed with great interest steps taken by the President of the United States to promote the reduction of expenditures on armaments, an object which commands the fullest sympathy of my Government. It is my hope the labors of the conference will be crowned with success."

ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY.

LONDON, Nov. 10. There does not exist any military or naval agreement understanding or arrangement of any sort, between Great Britain and Japan, not arising from the terms of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty, Lloyd George told the House today, in answer to a question whether in view of the Washington Conference he would state if any supplementary agreement existed.

METHODISM AND DIVORCE.

TORONTO, Nov. 10. The department of Social Service and Evangelism of the Methodist Church in Canada, today passed the following resolution: "We are convinced that the joining of one man and one woman in holy wedlock until death do them part, and fidelity on their part to that bond, is fundamental to the progress of human society and the salvation of humanity. We are therefore against divorce." The department adopted another resolution approving the tendency of legislation to remove illegitimacy from the children of unmarried parents, and to make the father responsible for the support of such children.

U.S. AND NAVAL DISARMAMENT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. A definite formula for agreement on the limitation of Naval Forces has been reached by Secretary of State Hughes and his colleagues of the United States delegation. The formula does not attempt to state any general rule for the establishing of equitable relations between the powers, and does not attempt to fix a common denominator, by which all Navies could be divided and each power assigned by agreement the number of units it could maintain with world approval. The United States suggestion will deal with things as they are. It will be a proposition of ships built, building or authorized, of Naval bases, of the vital element of Naval replacement of the potential Naval significance of Merchant Marine, and of other concrete existing of Naval warfare. It is regarded by those who framed the suggestions as a bold stroke for Naval reduction, possibly too bold for immediate realization.

IRELAND AND THE TRUCE.

LONDON, Nov. 10. Lloyd George expressed confidence in the House today that Sinn Fein negotiators were doing all they could to see that the truce terms in Ireland were observed, and reiterated his hope that the negotiations would prove successful. In reply to a question whether arrangements had been made for the protection of Ulster and the loyal population of Southern Ireland, in the event of a breakdown of negotiations, the Premier said it had been agreed that there would be reasonable notice of a termination of the truce, and his Majesty's Government would do all in its power to protect life and property.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TIMELY WORDS.

LONDON, Nov. 10. Austin Chamberlain, Government House leader and Unionist, in a message to the Unionist Party to-night asks the members not to allow their minds to be biased by rumor but to reserve judgment until a full statement is laid before them, and expresses the belief that with good will and mutual accommodation, peace is possible. "Where so much hangs in the balance for Ulster, Ireland, Britain and the Empire, perhaps even for the world, it is too much to ask confidence from our friends," Chamberlain adds.

ULSTER'S ATTITUDE.

LONDON, Nov. 10. A statement issued after this morning's session of Ulster Cabinet members concluded as follows: "Sir James Craig on behalf of the Cabinet of Northern Ireland, wishes it clearly understood that there can be no surrender of Ulster's rights."

STATE SUBSIDY REFUSED.

LONDON, Nov. 10. Lloyd George's refusal to grant additional state subsidies to miners has general approval, and the miners are being told that their bad leadership was responsible for the present hard straits of many workers in other trades.

RUSSIAN ROUBLES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 10. Important documents were seized and millions of Romanoff rubles together with considerable French and British money, were discovered by the interallied police in a raid on the offices of The Russian Trade Mission here today.

THE FAIR RENTS ACT.

SYDNEY, Nov. 10. The Fair Rents Act does not prevent a corporation from evicting its tenants from houses required for its own employees, Judge Finlayson decided today.

DRUMMING UP BUSINESS.

SYDNEY, Nov. 10. A Civic Committee is proceeding to Upper Canada cities in the hope of drumming up more business for the Steel plant here.

NOBEL PRIZE WINNER.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 10. The Swedish Academy today awarded the 1921 Nobel prize in literature to Anatole France, the noted French author.

RAILROAD WAGE REDUCTIONS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10. Action will be taken to effect wage reductions, approximately ten per cent, of the train and yard service employees on all railroads east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac Rivers, it was announced today, following a meeting of presidents of the lines involved. One million men are affected.

CANADA'S SEA FISHERIES.

OTTAWA, Nov. 10. Sealish landed on the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts of Canada during September totaled 1,026,553 hundred weight, valued at $2,520,047, compared with 1,157,870 hundred weights valued at $3,581,567 last year.

Salvage Notes.

Friday night, October 28th, 1921, will long be remembered by the people of Salvage, for on that night occurred a double event, the consequences of either of which we are yet unable to learn. The first part of the night was utilized by Rev. Dr. Facey, Principal of Queen's College, who, before a large audience in the school-room gave an illustrated lecture on Queen's College and things connected therewith. The lecturer outlined the growth of the Spencerian idea (not Herbert, but our first Newfoundland Bishop) and the project of his successor Bishop Field, through whose energies Queen's became, largely, what it is today. Apart from the slides altogether the lecture was a most educative one on Church History in the Diocese of Newfoundland. Our sincere thanks are due to Dr. Facey, and we believe that the appeal of the Bishop for the permanent endowment of Queen's will be successfully answered by the Lenten self-denial offerings, 1922. Then it is we shall behold the consequences—in part—of Friday night's lecture.

For about thirty years now, our people have been in the habit of oftentimes referring to the 7th June gale. From henceforth we opine a dating from the gale of October 28th. On Saturday morning, when it was possible to get out, a scene of destruction beggaring description met the eye. Flakes were swept away, stores blown from their positions, roads wiped out entirely, schooners adrift, and smaller boats beaten up, bottom up and every other conceivable way. The various coves were filled with debris of all kinds, and a loss running into thousands of dollars was everywhere apparent. The oldest residents never witnessed a similar storm or destruction. There were two or three very narrow escapes with life in our vicinity. It is extremely difficult to particularize the losses, as practically everybody suffered more or less. Probably the hardest hit was Mr. John Moss, merchant of Bishop's Hr., who returned from St. John's by Friday's Malakoff. His wharf was washed away with seven barrels of beef and pork, just landed from the schooner. Furthermore the roof of his store was entirely blown away.

shelves stripped from the walls and contents broken or damaged. At Salvage Bay similar destruction reigned along the waterfront, while at Happy Adventure the schooner Maggie, captained by Thos. Babcock, recently returned from Labrador went ashore but fortunately has since been refloated, although leaking badly. Mr. Geo. Bishop's schooner, of Wesleyville, which went into Happy Adventure Friday evening, lumber laden, became a total wreck. Three schooners are reported ashore in Rocky Bay, but further particulars are not yet to hand.

Messrs. Job Stead, James Moss, B. Oldford and Wm. Brown, in their respective schooners are back from St. John's, and awaiting favorable opportunities to get into the bays for wood.

Rev. Dr. Facey, who was forced to stay over here on Monday, went to Salvage Bay yesterday accompanied by Rev. E. H. Humphries, rector of Salvage parish.

S.S. Malakoff passed south on Monday, but was unable to touch at Salvage by reason of the heavy sea raging.

Plenty of Good Men.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—The Plaiddealer last Saturday in commenting on the coming Municipal Election said there was very little interest manifested, and it was doubtful if the class of men who would suit best the city's welfare would allow themselves to be nominated. Since then more than a dozen well known citizens have announced their willingness to serve as aldermen and I do not know if any better men are necessary. We have Messrs. J. T. Martin, S. G. Collier, N. J. Vincombe, W. E. Brophy, J. F. Wiseman, K. Ruby, R. Hopkins and possibly five or six others, any of whom are capable in every respect. The Plaiddealer lays particular stress on men of the Gosting, Ayre, Jackman, Bradshaw type, and regrets these men cannot find it convenient to contest. Even these men made mistakes, and we have no reason to believe but that their successors from the first mentioned list can carry on the work, just as able as previous boards. We should first consider candidates who have the time at their disposal, and above all we should leave party politics out of the question, and consider the best interests of the city when voting at the polls.

How fine cooks make cream soups to-day

Let Your Grocer Be Your Milkman

After eating a rich cream soup somewhere, do you sigh and say to yourself "if I could only afford to use real cream, I could serve soup like that, too!"

The chances are that the soup you would like to duplicate was not made with cream at all. For many fine cooks have learned a culinary secret that makes of cream soups a banquet dish at every day cost.

The secret is—make them with Libby's Evaporated Milk.

For twenty years Libby has worked to give a finer and richer milk to consumers. Their plans were far-reaching. First they sought out the finest pasture lands in America. There they encouraged the breeding of splendid milk herds and the use of all the appliances and practices of scientific dairying. And there they established their milk condenseries so equipped as to assure absolute purity and cleanliness.

At those condenseries the whole milk from the fine herds, with the cream left in, is canned for you. Half the moisture is taken from it by evaporation. Nothing is added to it. So you have in this milk just the rich, pure product of the finest cows, but with twice the food value, twice the butter fat, of ordinary milk.

This milk makes cream soups so smooth, so rich, so mellow that they taste like the soups made by extravagant cooks.

Used in coffee, this milk gives a creamy richness at half the cost of cream.

Try it in your favorite recipe where cream or milk is called for.

Your grocer has it or can get it for you.
