

Are the offers we are now making to clear cut the balance of our Wall Papers, Picture Frames, Window Shades, Artists' Materials, etc. We have secured several job lines in above goods, and are prepared to offer wonderful bargains. Do not fail to secure some of them

E. N. HUNT, 190 Dundas Street.

"Why don't the children come, then? It is nearly dark, and the dew falls, and the river mist I like not for

"For my part, I am not uneasy, Joris. They were to drink a dish of tea with Madame Semple, and Bram promised to go for them. And see! they are coming, but Bram is not with them-only the Elder. Now, what can be the matter?"

"For everything there are more Neil and your daughter Katharine." reasons than one; if there is a bad reason Elder Semple will be sure to croak about it. I could wish that just ness, not unkindly, but as if they were more than common words. They now he had not come. "But then he is here, and the weia silence which in no way disturbed Semple. He knew his friends well, and therefore he expected it. He come must be given to a caller on the threshold. You know that, Joris." "I will not break a good custom." Elder Alexander Semple was a great man in his sphere. He had a reputation both for riches and godliness, and was scarcely more respected in the market place than he was in the Middle Kirke. And there was an old tie between the Semples and the Van Heemskirks, a tie going back to the days when the Scotch Covenanters and the Netherland Confessors clasped hands as brothers in their "Churches under the Cross." Then, one of the Semples had fled for life from Scotland to Holland, and been sheltered in the house of a Van Heemskirk; and from generation to generation the friendship had been continued. So there was much real kindness very little ceremony between the families, and the Elder met his friend Joris with a grumble about having to act as "convoy" for two lasses when

"Not to say dangerous," he added, with a forced cough. "I hae my plaid and my bonnet on, but a coat o' mail couldna stand mists that are a vera shadow o' death to an auld man, wi' a sair shortness o' the breath."

the river mist made the duty so un-

Sit down, Elder-near the fire. A glass of hot Hollands will take the chill from you.' You are mair than kind, gudewife, and I'll no say but what a sma' glass is needfu', what wi' the late hour and the thick mists." "Come, come, Elder! mists in every country you will find, until you reach the New Jerusalem. 'Vera true, but there's a difference in mists. Noo, a Scotch mist isna at all unhealthy. When I was a laddie hae been out in them for a week thegither, aye, and felt the better o' them." He had taken off his plaid and bonnet as he spoke, and he drew the chair set for him in front of the plazing logs, and stretched out his thin legs to the comforting heat. In the meantime the girls had gone upstairs together, and their footsteps could be heard distinctly through the open doors. Then Madame called 'Joanna!" and the girl came down at once. She was tying on her white apron as she entered the room, and at a word from her mother she began to take from the cupboard various Dutch dainties, and East Indian jars of fruits and sweetmeats and a case of crystal bottles, and some fine lem-She was a fair, rosy girl, with a kind, cheerful face, a pleasant voice, and a smile that was at once innocent and bright. Her fine light hair was rolled high and backward, and no one could have imagined a dress suitable to her than the trig dark bodice, the quaint skirt, and the white apron she wore.

Her father and mother watched her with a loving satisfaction; and though Elder Semple was discoursing on that memorable dispute between the Caetus and Conferentiae parties, which had resulted in the establishment of an independent Dutch church in America, he was quite sensible of Joanna's presence, and of what she was doing. "I was ave for the ordaining o' American ministers in America," he said, as he touched the finger tips of his left hand with those of his right; and then in an aside full of personal interest-"Joanna, my dearie, I'll hae a Holland bloater and noe other thing -and I was a proud man when I got the invite to be secretary of the first meeting o' the new Caetus. Maybe, It is praising green barley to say just that it was a wise departure, but I think sae, I think sae.' At this point, Katharine Van

Heemskirk came into the room, and

Caller Herrin'

Wha'll buy Caller Herrin', They're bonny fish and halsome fairin'; Wha'll buy Herrin'

New drawn frae the Forth? When ye were sleepin' on your pillows Dream'd ye ought o' our poor fellows Darkling as they faced the billows

PER TIN, OR

A' to fill the woven willows?

169 Dund as Street.

Thone 485.

German Account of the Latest Turkish Atrocities.

low hair that it made light of its ribbon snood, and rippled over her brow and slender white neck in bewildering curls. She dearly loved fine clothes, scarcely hold the bunch she had gathered, and she buried her lovely face in them, and then lifted it, with a charming look of delight, and with cries of "Oh, oh, how delicious!"

Long before supper was over Madame Van Heemskirk had discovered that this night Eider Semple had a special reason for his call. His talk of Mennon, and the Anabaptists, and the objectionable Lutherans, she perceived was all surface talk; and when the meal was finished, and the girls gone to their room, she was not astonished to hear him say: "Joris, let us light another pipe. I hae something to speak anent. Sit still, gudewife;

we shall want your word on the wat-

"Anent a marriage between my son

The words fell with a sharp distinct-

were followed by a marked silence, puffed his pipe slowly, and glanced at Joris and Lysbet Van Heemskirk. The father's face had not moved a muscle;

the mother's was like a handsome closed book. She went on with her knitting, and only showed that she had heard the proposal by a small pretense of finding it necessary to count the stitches in the heel she was turning. Still, there had been some faint, evanescent flicker on her face, some droop or lift of the eyelide which Joris understood; for after a glance at her, he said, slowly, "For Katherine the marriage would be good, and Lysbet and I would like it.

However we will think a little about it: there is time and to spare.

One should not run on a new road— the first step is what I like to be sure of; as you know, Elder, to the second step it often binds you. Say what perfectly her Heidelberg. And there is more: she must learn to help here mother about the house before she can manage a house of her own. So in time, I say, it would be a good thing. We have been long true

"We have been friends for four generations, and we may safely tie the knot tighter now. There are wis folks that say that the Dutch and the spoken o'. When I think o' our John

(To be Continued.)

THE RAILWAYS.

G. T. R. Travelers Must Pay for Excess

Baggage.

Mail and Empire: Suburban pas-

Trunk are being taxed for excess baggage. This is an old rule which has not been enforced for some time, and consequently the suburban residents are feeling it. All passengers are allowed 25 pounds of baggage, but any-thing over this weight has now to be sent to its destination by express. The rule will now be constantly carried

A new and important railway deal affecting Brantford has just been consummated, and will come into operation on Monday next. On and after that date the T., H. and B. will issue tickets to Toronto, traveling by way of the T., H. and B. to Hamil-cars to Stuart street depot, and thence

The single and return fare, which will include the street car ride to and from the T., H. and B. and Stuart street stations in Hamilton, will be the same as if traveling by G. T. R. all

Miss Barton at Budapest.

Budapest, Aug. 24.-Miss Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross Society, who has been in Turkey since the early part of the year making efforts to relieve the distressed

Janos Natural Aperient Water, where she was received by the eldest son of Andreas Saxlehner and shown over the establishment. The extensive scale on which these springs are conducted, and the cleanliness and careful methods of bottling, compelled her admiration, which was freely expressed to Mr. Saxlehner, whose name is so we'll known in connection with this well-

William of Orange commanded the LIFE SAVED,-Mr. James Bryson

Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat frouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine and less than half a bottle cured me: I certainly believed it saved my consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any

A Real Summer Resort Kill two birds with one stone, Spend pleasant summer holiday at Oak-a pleasant summer holiday at Oakville and get rid of the liquor or morphine habit once and for all at the same time. It will cost you a little more than if you go to an ordinary summer resort, but probably not half as much as you would spend on liquor in half the time. "Lakehurst," with its fine house, shady grounds, water front and excellent board, is preferable to most hotels, and you can leave your liquor curse behind you forever when your holiday is over. For full particulars address Manager, Lakehurst Institute, Oakville, Ont. xt army on the French frontier at 22.

tried mineral water.

by Grand Trunk Railway to Toronto.

thence across that city in street

distance of three miles.

out.

the way.

"First came Erasmus, Elder."

An Ultimatum from the Italian Government and she had not removed her visiting dress of Indian silk nor her necklace of amber beads. And in her hands she held a great mass of lilies of the Creates Intense Excitement in the valley which she caressed almost as if they were living things. Brazilian Chamber. "Father," she said, nestling close to his side, 'look at the lilies! How straight they are! How strong! Oh, the white bells full of sweet scent!

Warm Welcome Awaiting Premier In them put your face, father. They smell of the spring." Her fingers could Laurier in England.

> PLUNDERED BY MOSLEMS. London, Aug. 29.-A dispatch from Athens, giving an account of the recent trouble in Crete, says that the Moslems plundered the offices of the British consulate at Heraklion.

PAID THEIR FINES. London, Au. 99 .- The British South Africa Compa. aid all of the $25,000 fines of the five Pretoria prisoners. Three of the South African millionaire released prisoners have just bought extensive country places. Four prisoners whose fines were smaller have rented handsome seats at Chiselhurst and in its neighborhood.

WHITEHEAD STILL MISSING. Skibbereen, Aug. 29. - Although searching parties are still scouring the country in this vicinity in search of Albert George Whitehead, the recently liberated dynamiter, who escaped from the home of his relatives in this place the other night, no trace of him has been found, and it is now believed he has committed suicide.

LOCK-OUT IMPENDING. London, Aug. 29.-The English, Irish and Scotch shipbuilding masters have notified the executive committee of their employes that unless the striking workmen of the Govan shipyards, on the Clyde, resume work prior to on the Clyde, resume work prior to Saturday, Sept. 12, 25 per cent of the Put to Route an Army of Fornumber of their employes will be dis-missed on that date and a like number on each of three succeeding Sat-LAURIER WILL BE WARMLY

WELCOMED. London, Aug. 29.-It is expected in official quarters that Hon. W. Laurier, Canada's Premier, will visit London late in October or early in Noyou think, Lysbet."

"Neil is to my mind when the time comes. But yet the child knows not the Colonies, will be back from his private visit to his wife's relatives at Salem, Mass. Mr. Laurier will receive a warm welcome as the first French Premier of Federal Canada. The Birmingham Post, Mr. Chamberlain's organ, announces that Mr. Chamberlain has specially arranged to return in time to meet Mr. Laurier in London.

AN ITALIAN ULTIMATUM

Lowland Scotch are of the same stock—and a vera gude stock it is— the women o' baith being fair as lilies Causes an Exciting Time in the Braziland thrifty as bees, and the men just a wonder o' everything wise and weeltan Chamber.

London, Aug. 29.-A special cable from Buenos Ayres says: It is believed that Italy sent to the Brazilian Government yesterday an ultimatum covering all the questions at issue. The greatest secrecy is observed by all parties concerned, but it is understood that Italy asks what Brazil intends to do, and fixes a time within which an answer to the ultimatum The M. C. R. are laying a track from Welland to the Peat Spur, a may be made.

At a Cabinet meeting in Rio Janeiro yesterday there was a sharp debate as a result of which the Minister of the Interior retired. Minister of Foreign Affairs Carvalho insisted upon his dismissal. Three steamers carrying Italian immigrants arrived at Rio Janeiro yesterday, and the Italian legation asked for an official guarantee of their safety.

Deputy Medeiros made a speech in the Chamber, criticising Minister Carvalho. There was an angry dispute which culminated in Dr. Carvalho's slapping the deputy in the face. A select meeting of the Chamber of Deputies was held, at which the dismissal of the Minister was accepted.

The Government is seeking to reach a peaceful solution of the difficulty. During a conflict between Brazilians of the Jacobin faction and Italians yesterday, in the Minas Estate in Pessauha, two men were killed and eleven wounded, some of them ser-In Bahia a large meeting was held, at which insults were heaped upon the Italians. The Brazilian cruiser Tiradentes sailed yesterday for Trinidad for the purpose of taking possession of that

It is reported here that the Bra-zilian minister to Italy has left Rome and gone to Paris in consequence of Armenians, passed through here yesterday, accompanied by her staff, Geo.
H. Pullman and Dr. Hubell, on her homeward journey to the United States. During her stay here she visited the springs of the Hunyadi

German Account of the Atrocities of the Turks.

Berlin, Aug. 29.-The Tageblatt's Constantinople correspondent details many acts of savage barbarity which he witnessed during the rioting which began on Wednesday, which were similar to those he had seen during previous occasions.

Another dispatch says: Among officials who were in the Ottoman Bank when it was attacked by the mob on Wednesday was Sir Edgar Vincent, the governor of the institution, but he was among the number who succeeded in making their escape. Two of the bank directors and several of the employes, however, were not so fortunate, and were, seized by the Armenians, who held them as prisoners with a view of enabling them to come to terms with the authorities. The Armenians demanded that they be allowed to retain their revolvers and be furnished with safe conduct out of Turkey, and when these terms were conceded they yielded themselves to Sir Edgar Vincent, and were conveyed by the dragcent, and were conveyed by the drag-omen of the Russian embassy on board of the bank governor's yacht. Concurrent with the attack on the bank a circular issued by the Ar-menian revolutionary committee was delivered at the various embassies announcing the intention of the Ar-menians to seige the bank and hold menians to seize the bank and hold it for two days, during which time the powers must interfere to secure a settlement of the Armenian affairs. The circular stated that if the au-thorities attempted to force an en-trance to the bank the captors of the brildings would destroy all securities in the bank and blow up the build-

The principal slaughter in the recent rioting was done by a Moslem mob in revenge for Armenian outrages. No effort to check the mob in their murderous work was made by the police. Numerous arrests of Armenians were made, and this led to further rioting, which, however, was of a less serious character. The hospitals are crowded. All of the guardships have landed parties of marines to assist in preserving order. Besides bombs which they possessed, the seizers of the Ottoman Bank had sixteen pounds of dyna-mite. Only nine of the number forming the party that seized the bank were alive when a decision to surrender was reached. Fearful scenes, the dispatch says, were enacted Wednesday night, especially in the Topanes, Hasskeni and Kissim Pasha districts. where mobs of Lazes and Kurds of the worst character looted ships and residences, and murdered everybody whom they suspected of being an Armenian or sympathizer with the Armenians. A moderate estimate places the number of killed at between three and four thousand.

RED-COATS

midable Trespassers.

Constipation, Dizzmess, Pain Under the Shoulder Blades, Sick Headache, Depressed Feeling, Bloating After Eating, Debility and Insomnia, result from an Inactive Liver. Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills, 40 little Red-Coats at a cost of 10 cents, will set you right in short order. Piles of testimony to prove it. bd&w

One Week From To-Day

The Exciting And Popular

Word Competition Closes

Let every competitor do their best, A bicycle is not got for nothing every day. You may win it in a week.

Free to You? HAVE YOU CATARRH?

If so send us your name and address and we will forward you by return mail three trial bottles of our celebrated Catarrh Remedy FREE OF ALL CHARGE. Do not delay. Write at once, inclosing 6c in stamps for postage. We want this grand remedy introduced into every Canadian home.

Medical Inhalation Co., NO. 2 COLLEGE ST., TORONTO, ONT.

There isn't a pound of Japan Tea entering this country but what is artificially colored and doctored.

CEYLON TEA

Is sold to the public in its native purity and is delicious.

Sold in Lead Packets Only. Never in Bulk. All Grocers.

PICTURES FOR . . .

A pretty Colored Picture for every 12 "Sunlight" or every 6 "Lifebaoy" Soap wrappers. These pictures are well worth getting.

LEVER BROS., Ltd., 23 Scott Street

ISITORS to the above who are musically inclined should carefully inspect the Mason & Risch Piano exhibit. Our stand is the first one on the left as you enter the Musical Pavilion. Our exhibit is not a large one, as we believe that the beautiful tones of instruments can be more fully appreciated in the quiet of our warerooms than amidst the bustle and confusion of an exhibition. We shall therefore make our principal exhibit at our ware-

SPECIAL NOTICE:

rooms, 32 King street west, to which all visitors are cordially invited. One of the most valuable paintings at the Art Gallery in the exhibition building will be the famous portrait of the great pianist, Frank Lizst, which was painted at his command by Baron Joukovsky, the great Russian artist, and presented to Messrs. Mason & Risch as a tribute to the wonderful tone qualities of their pianos. Every lover of art should make it a point to see this painting. It is valued by experts at $5,000.

The Mason & Risch Piano Co., Ltd.

32 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO.

Trail Creek Mines

The Richest Gold Fields Ever Discovered on the American Continent.

a nave a limited quantity of stock for sale in mining properties in Trail Creek which, from all authenticinformation that I have been able to obtain, I feel safe in recommending to my clients.

	The state of the same	Capitalizat	ion Prio	Price of stock.
1	Nest Egg	500,000 sh	ares	25
	Palo Alto1	,000,000	"
	Deer Park	,000,000	"
	Rossland Red Mountain	,000,000	"
	Georgia		"
	The View	1,000,000	"	20
	Great Western	,000,000	"
	Silverine		"
	The Wonderful		"

The Nest Egg has shipping ore ly- | means of a tunnel. Rich shipping ore ing on the dump. The company is is being mined in the face of this immediately to be equipped with mining machinery to enable it to soon mines of Trail Creek.

of shipping ore.

The Great Western and Golden properties in Trail Creek.

100 feet wide. A shaft 70 feet deep mines. They are properties recomis sunk on this ledge, and though the | mended me by most careful and exore is low grade at the present time perienced mining men, and I believe all the mining experts believe that | an investment of a small amount of when this immense ore body is suffi- | money in these companies will evenciently developed it will make one of the greatest, if not the greatest, gold in the past twelve months this dismines in British Columbia.

The Rossland Red Mountain is being developed by a tunnel 400 feet long to meet a shaft 200 feet deep. In lead. The best informed men believe this shaft the richest copper ore of the camp is being mined. exceedingly rich ore, and develop- dollars worth of gold, copper, silver night and day by a full force of men working on a vein of rich gold and try, and I think the time has come

The View is being worked by investment in these mines,

The Wonderful is a silver lead mine in the famous Slocan district. It is become one of the dividend-paying still in process of development, but the ore produced from this property The Palo Alto Company have start- and now being shipped assays over ed development work on a rich body $110 and nets the company $70 a ton clear profit. These are all properties in which Chariot, owned by one company, is the management is capable and conconsidered one of the most promising servative and where the developments justify the belief that they will in a The Deer Park has a ledge of ore short time become most valuable tually lead to very big returns. Withtrict of British Columbia produced, under adverse circumstances, over four millions in gold, copper, silver and that in the coming twelve months this same mining district will pro-The Silverine has a narrow vein of duce from twelve to fifteen million ment work is being rapidly carried on. and lead. Hitherto American miners The Georgia is being developed and capitalists have reaped all the profits accruing from this rich counwhen Canadian capital ought to seek

JOHN A. MOODY, Masonic Temple,

LONDON, - - ONT.

Hobbs Manufacturing Co

Mirrors,

Art Glass, in every description, Memorial Windows.

Mitred Glass,

Door Fronts, French Plate Glass.

FOR DWELLING HOUSES, IN SILVERING QUALITY.

SOLID COMFORTI

You know what that means, And you'll say so .

If you get one of our New Folding Steamer Reclining Chairs, with leg rests, made in white maple, and strong fancy duck. Easy to rest in and easy to buy. Only $2 50 each; or get one of our Patent Automatic All Steel Reclining Chairs, weight 35 pounds, ad justs itself to any desired position, made entirely of steel and strong fancy canvas, and only $4 each. To know what they are is to want them. They cost nothing to try and but little to buy, at

John Ferguson & Sons' WAREROOMS:

174-180 KING ST. LONDON, ONT