The "Midnight Cannon Ball" Leaves the Rails.

As the Result of Recent Rains - Five Trainmen Killed - The Passengers Escape With Their Lives.

Evansville, Ind., March 10.-The most isastrous wreck that has ever occur red on the Evansville and Terre --aute Railroad occurred this morning be-tween 12 and 1 o'clock, as the train known as the "Midnight Cannon Ball" from Chicago, was coming south over the road.

The recent rains have had a terrible effect on the roadbed, and the train was proceeding cautiously. At a point three-quarters of a mile north of Hazelton, where the roadbed is built on an embankment, it suddenly gave way, and the engine, baggage car part of the smoker went down.

LOSS OF LIFE. The engine turned over, but the baggage car remained uprignt. The smoker hing over the abyss. Engineer Wm. McCutcheon escaped death, but his fireman, Joe Boleman, was killed. Conductor George Sears, of Terre Haute, who was in the smoker, was also kill-

London, March 11 .- The Times today publishes a dispatch from Athens saying that the fighting at Hierapietra and the expulsion of M. Baraklis, the aroused the war fever there. The situation at Hierapietra is one of anxiety. The insurgents, under the Greek leader, Korakas, are said to be supplied with guns, and it is feared that they will make another attack upon the town.

Another special from Athens says: The general opinion here is that war against Turkey is unavoidable. It is believed that armed bands that have been sent out by the National League pus snauder ut studed the signal for the Macedonia, will give the signal for the struggle. The Greek army on the frontier will then proceed to an invasion of Turkish territory. The gunboats Action and Ambrayia, with the gun vessel Approessa, have been or-dered to blockade the Gulf of Arta, in order to prevent the landing of Turkish troops.
