WOOL MARKET.

TORONTO.

Toronto, Aug. 5.—There has been but little inquiry so far on this season's clip from the United States markets. Only two American buyers have been in this market lately. One took no wool, and the other offered to resell here some Canada fleece bought last year, which is now held at Boston in bond. American buyers seem to think that they will be able to buy Canada fleece wool cheaper later on. A weaker feeling in the American markets is reported here. Pulled wools are in fair demand.

Fleece—The offerings are fair; holders in the country, however, do not appear to be urgent sellers, and are mostly holding for higher prices; local dealers of the wools is the season when a revival in the demand from the domestic mills is always looked for, and therefore an expansion in the sales is seasonable just now; the prices quoted are 17c for supers and 19c for extras.
