

ROOSEVELT ELECTED BY BIG MAJORITY; REPUBLICANS CARRY DOUBTFUL STATES; ONLY "SOLID SOUTH" FOR DEMOCRATS

Balloting Will Probably Give 325 Electoral Votes to the President.

Giant Pluralities Piled Up in Pennsylvania, Indiana and New York State.

New York, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt probably will receive 325 electoral votes as the result of yesterday's balloting. Late unofficial returns give a basis for this estimate, which, however, may be increased by eighteen votes from Missouri, when the returns from that state have been completed, or on the other hand, may be decreased by 7 votes when the count is completed in West Virginia.

Both sides claim a victory in Missouri, where the Republican state committee believe they have elected Walbridge for governor by 2,000, and that the Democratic state ticket is elected. The Republican returns have come in very slowly, but a Republican majority is indicated.

The returns from Missouri, Maryland and West Virginia are awaited with great interest. The first named is claimed by both sides, although it is generally conceded that Folk was elected governor by the Democrats. The Republican state committee, however, asserts that its figures indicate the election of Walbridge by more than 2,000, and claims the state for Roosevelt by 20,000.

General belief at Wheeling is that Roosevelt carried West Virginia by more than 10,000, but the returns are extremely meager. Those so far received show only slight Republican losses. It is thought probable that the Legislature will be Republican in both branches. This body will elect a United States senator to succeed Senator M. D. Scott.

Returns from Minnesota indicate the election of the Democratic candidate for governor, Johnson, who ran especially well in the Scandinavian counties. His success, however, had no effect on the national ticket, which went to Roosevelt by at least 10,000. Some of the Republican newspapers still claim that the state was not lost to their candidate, Dunn.

In Wisconsin, while the Republican national ticket went through by a heavy majority, it is thought that the Legislature will be so divided between the Republican factions that a deadlock may occur over the choice of a successor to Senator Quayle.

Complete figures are lacking from Iowa, but those at hand indicate the success of the entire Republican state ticket.

While Colorado probably gave Roosevelt 10,000 plurality, the result as to the state ticket is in doubt. Scratched ballots were cast to the number of 40,000, and the counting was very slow.

On the Pacific coast Republican success was general. In California, where Roosevelt's majority will be at least 50,000, the next Legislature will be Republican by a large majority. It will select a successor to Senator Bard.

Returns from Nebraska are incomplete as to the state ticket and the election of Berg is claimed by the Democratic state committee.

A feature of the returns from Missouri is the probable defeat of C. O. Howard, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee.

Indications are that the next House of Representatives will be heavily Republican. Dispatches so far received show that 202 Congressmen have been elected by the Republicans, against 128 by the Democrats. Of the 45 remaining districts 32 are now represented by Republicans and 13 by Democrats.

A tabulated statement of the indicated results is as follows:

Table with columns for State, Plurality, and Vote. Lists results for Colorado, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

The Latest Returns.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Dispatches to the Associated Press up to 11:30 a.m. show that the Republicans have elected 233 congressmen and the Democrats 141. Of the other twelve districts six are now represented by Republicans and six by Democrats.

Back to the Plow.

Esopus, N. Y., Nov. 9.—An hour after Judge Parker, the defeated Democratic presidential candidate, rose today he was out on his farm seeing that the plowing was properly done. Later he went for a horseback ride.

West Virginia Republicans.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 9.—It is admitted by Democratic headquarters that Roosevelt has carried West Virginia by a majority upwards of 10,000, but it is claimed that Cornell, Democrat, has defeated Dawson, Republican, for governor, and that possibly the entire Democratic state ticket is elected. The Republican returns have come in very slowly, but a Republican majority is indicated.

Folk's Majority.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—The Times (Independent) says: "The indications point more strongly to the probability that Roosevelt and Fairbanks have carried Missouri, and that the plurality of Joseph W. Folk (Democrat) for governor over Cyrus P. Walbridge (Republican) will be something like 20,000."

BIRTHDAY HONOR LIST

Eight Colonial Knighthoods—A Newfoundland Amongst Them.

London, Nov. 8.—King Edward's birthday list was issued tonight and the colonial list are eight knighthoods, including W. H. Horwood, chief justice of the supreme court of Newfoundland. William Grey, a resident of the island of Bahamas, is made a Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George.

POLITICS IN ESSEX

Many Liberals Will Be in the Field and Reunite for Conservatives.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 9.—The annual meeting of the North Essex Conservative Association has been called for Nov. 19 at Windsor. A candidate for the Local Legislature will be selected at that time. Dr. J. A. Reame will be the choice of the convention. The North Essex Liberals have not yet decided on a date for their convention, but when it is called there will be no lack of candidates. D. J. McKee, of Windsor; William Price, of Malden; Severn Ducharme, of Belle River; and Ernest G. Girardeau, of Sandwich, likely will be in the field.

FIRST SINCE 1892

Massachusetts at Last Elects a Democratic Governor.

Boston, Nov. 9.—The defeat of Governor John L. Bates for a third term by Wm. L. Douglas, the Democratic candidate, and the tremendous vote cast through the state, were the features of yesterday's election. Mr. Douglas, Democrat, defeated Governor Bates, who has been in office since 1892. With one small town missing Roosevelt's plurality is 82,257. Douglas' plurality is 36,329. The Democratic party, one congressman and probably elected the balance of the state ticket. The new congressional delegation will stand 202 Republicans and three Democrats. The Legislature, which will elect two United States senators, will be strongly Republican.

Borden Goes South.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Borden left this morning for New York, en route to the Southern States, where they will spend a couple of weeks. They will visit Montreal on their way back to Halifax.

Blair Sees Premier.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—Hon. A. G. Blair had a conference with the Premier this morning, and the rumor is going that he will resume the chairmanship of the railway commission at an increased salary.

FIRST WORK ON

Winnipeg to Thunder Bay and Montreal East to Moncton, N. B.

bridge (Republican) will be something like 20,000.

It also is becoming more than a possibility that the next Legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Francis M. Cockill (Democrat) will be Republican.

Baltimore for Parker.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 9.—Complete returns from Baltimore give Parker 47,976 votes and Roosevelt 47,484. A Democratic plurality of 492, returns from several counties are still incomplete, but there is no doubt that the state has gone Republican by a small majority. Republican State Chairman Hanna claims that the Republican majority will be 2,000. In the six congressional districts, three Baltimoreans who now are Democrats are elected, with the remaining district in doubt.

Pennsylvania Republicans.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt's majority in this state will reach an unprecedented figure of 400,000, and the Republicans have probably elected 31 of the 32 congressmen. The only Democratic congressman who now appears sure of election is Kline.

Here He Is.

Washington, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt has received the following cablegram from Emperor William: "News of your election, Nov. 9, 1904. 'President Roosevelt, United States of America, Washington.' 'Sincere congratulations. May heaven give you prosperity. Teim Good bonum felix faustumque sit populo Americo.' 'WILLIAM.' A free translation of the Latin in the above cablegram is as follows: 'May your good administration be continued on page 5.'

FRANCE A GAINER

Delcasse Defends Anglo-French Treaty in the Deputies.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Chamber of Deputies discussed yesterday the Anglo-French treaty. Several members opposed the treaty on the ground that it relinquished France's rights in Newfoundland and that it would be disadvantageous to France, owing to American competition, aided by new oil fields in the Gulf of Mexico. Foreign Minister Delcasse denied the assertion. He said France was a gainer by the treaty.

"WAR TO WAR"

Russian Poles on the Verge of an Insurrection.

Vienna, Nov. 9.—The situation in Russian Poland is becoming worse. Owing to the revolutionary agitation of the people are opposing mobilization. The reservists, who have been called to the colors, declare that they are being transported to war dead, and that those whom the bullet may spare will die of hunger and cold. At a demonstration in Warsaw a flag was carried with the inscription "War to War! Down with Czarism!" The authorities fear an insurrection.

MAY BE NEW SPEAKER

Mr. Archibald Campbell Mentioned as Among the Eligibles.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—When the provincial election in Ontario is held, Mr. Archibald Campbell will be found eager for the fray and confident of victory. They are in great fighting trim after their recent victory, and anxious to repeat the triumph of Nov. 2. There is a likelihood that young men will be in the front line. Mr. Campbell is mentioned as probable candidates are Hal B. McGivern, Joseph McDougall and Gordon Henderson. Mr. Powell long ago expressed his intention of not again running as a Conservative candidate. Hence Mr. Powell will have to find a running mate for Mr. Dennis Murphy, unless Mr. Powell recedes from his present determination.

EX-ANARCHIST A HUSSAR

Sipido, Who Tried to Kill King Edward, Is Tamed.

Brussels, Nov. 9.—Sipido, the young anarchist who attempted to kill King Edward VII. of Great Britain when the latter was visiting Belgium some years ago, as the Prince of Wales, has reformed. It will be remembered that the young man's life was spared at the intervention of the prince, who was not injured by the would-be assassin. Sipido's change of heart is plain by the fact that he is now an enlisted man in a Belgian hussar regiment. He chose the cavalry service himself.

NO DISSOLUTION FOR SOME WEEKS

Postponement Decided Upon at a Meeting of Provincial Cabinet.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—Every member of the cabinet was in the city today for the council meeting this afternoon. The programme some days ago was that the meeting today was to be the all-important one, at which would be received the resignations of two or three of the members, followed by a reconstruction, and an appeal to the country. Within the last few hours plans have been changed, and dissolution has been postponed. It is understood, for days, and perhaps for two or three weeks. But it is only a postponement. In other respects the general programme has not been altered. Resignations are coming, new appointments will be made, and then the elections. Of the seats that are vacant, the first one became so early in the month of September, so that the writ for the first by-election need not be issued until December. Three months after the seat became vacant. Accordingly the necessity of choosing between by-elections and general elections is not pressing just yet.

There was a little flutter of excitement at the Parliament buildings today, when, in addition to all the cabinet ministers, actual and prospective, there appeared on the scene Mr. J. P. Whitney, leader of the Opposition. A press representative met him as he was coming out of his private room behind the Opposition lobby.

"I am up here on private business," he said. "I had a little business with the Provincial Secretary's department, and I just stepped over to my own room for a moment."

"Have you anything to say for publication on the general situation in Ontario politics at present?"

"Not at present. I may have by the end of the week." By this time Mr. Whitney had walked down the stairs and encountered Mr. Balfour, George J. Graham entering the building. "There is the situation," said the leader of the Opposition, pointing to Mr. Balfour, and the rivals exchanged greetings.

In regard to Mr. Whitney's presence in the city it is said that several Toronto members of the cabinet, yesterday with the belief that the Ontario elections are to be held on Dec. 20. An informal conference of the local party in the Albany Club in the afternoon, and a telegram dispatched summoning Mr. Whitney from Morrisburg in haste to Toronto. A few of the leading Conservatives know Mr. Whitney's presence in the city, and a meeting of the selection of the party is being held this afternoon at the Albany Club.

NOTHING HANDED OUT

But It is Believed Ontario Cabinet Has Made Appointments.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 9.—There were no political developments this morning. Premier Ross was called upon by several members of the Legislature, and transport Kamchatka, which was yesterday called a convention there in little doubt but that Mr. J. P. Downey, M.P.P., will again be the candidate.

TO SIT IN PRIVATE

All Delegates Chosen for North Sea Inquiry.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Echo de Paris says that Admiral Fournier will represent France on the international commission of inquiry into the North Sea affair. The fifth commissioner, the Echo says, will probably be a Spanish admiral.

FATAL EARTHQUAKE

950 Houses Overthrown and Seventy-Eight Persons Killed.

London, Nov. 9.—The Tokio correspondence of the Times says that there was an earthquake at Formosa on Sunday at 4:30 a.m. The center of disturbance was Kishu, where 950 houses were overthrown and 32 damaged. Seventy-eight were killed and 23 injured, including one foreigner.

A CHALLENGE FOR BALFOUR

Earl Grey Asks Him to Say Yes or No to Chamberlain's Policy.

London, Nov. 9.—At the Colonial Institute, presided over by Earl Grey, Mr. Parkin read a paper about his tour of the colonies and the United States, chiefly from dealing with Rhodes scholarships were discussed at conferences. He described the scheme as a mighty empire-binding force, and congratulated the chairman on his appointment as governor of the greatest colony of the Empire.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a letter to the West Indian committee, refuses to consider the proposal to give colonial alcohol a preference over other imports.

The Daily Graphic says that Canada has no present desire for reciprocity with the United States. Her eyes are turned to the motherland, with whom she ardently desires closer relations, but economic forces are stubborn things. If we persistently refuse to organize a colonial empire the component parts must eventually, by sheer force of natural laws, be absorbed by another commercial system.

The opposition to the Anglo-French agreement about Newfoundland is now to take steps towards the organization of a new party. The statement that he would go to New York for a purpose was made by Mulvin G. Palmer, manager of Watson's campaign. Mr. Bryan has some reorganization plans, but he intends to stand sponsor for them himself.

FROM CELL TO SIBERIA

Mary Figner, Nihilist, Exiled to the Wilds of North Russia.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 8.—3:24 a.m.—Mary Figner, who had been confined in the Schusselberg fortress for twenty years, has been released and banished to Archangel, Northern Russia. The woman was condemned to life imprisonment for participating in nihilist conspiracies. She waved her handkerchief as a signal to her admirers, and was assassinated here in 1881. She still avows desperate nihilist sentiments.

LOOK FOR CERTAIN DEATH

Baltic Fleet Officers Say Their Doom Has Been Sealed.

Paris, Nov. 9.—James Benson, buyer for a Chicago firm, just back here after a visit to Spain, was at Vigo when the Russian fleet was there. He says the officers were indifferent to the outcome of the North Sea affair, declaring that no minor punishment can matter to men already under sentence of death, which sentence they believe was as good as pronounced when they were ordered to castern waters to encounter a Japanese fleet, superior in tonnage, personnel and morale. None expects to return home and the officers to be touched to testify before the court of inquiry are generally evaded.

Apropos of the sinking of the trawlers the officers said that from the transport Kamchatka, which was in the rear of the fleet, two torpedo boats were distinctly seen; at the same time a wireless message with a remarkable tempo, the nature of which they are not ready yet to reveal, purporting to come from the Kamchatka, was received by the English and other vessels of the squadron, but suspicious were aroused and the admiral ordered that it be not answered. Later he learned that the transport had sent no message, leaving the conviction that it had been sent by torpedo boats.

SALUTES FOR THE KING'S BIRTHDAY

Big Guns at Montreal and Quebec Were Fired in Honor of the Event.

Quebec, Nov. 9.—Today being the anniversary of the birthday of King Edward VII., the usual salute was fired from the citadel at noon. An official dinner will be given this evening in honor of the event by his honor Lieut.-Gov. Jetté at Spencerwood.

Montreal, Nov. 9.

A royal salute was fired on the Champ de Mars at noon today by the Montreal Field Battery in honor of the birthday of King Edward VII. Flags are flying from the leading public buildings throughout the city in honor of the event.

TWO MORE FORTS SILENCED; ETSE MOUNTAIN ATTACKED

Japanese Have Subdued Russian Guns on Rihlung and Susung Mountains.

PORT ARTHUR CITIZENS NOW IN FIGHTING LINE

Tokio, Nov. 9.—4 p.m.—It is reported that the Japanese have completely silenced the forts on Rihlung and Susung Mountains, that their main strength is now attacking Etse Mountain.

Port Arthur a Hell.

Che Foo, Nov. 9.—12:30 p.m.—The Japanese continue to bombard Port Arthur, and the shells are falling so incessantly that the Russians have practically abandoned the repair of the works protecting the harbor. Citizens, volunteers and the police are now reinforcing the garrisons of the forts, according to the stories of Chinese arriving here. So many men were killed on both sides during the last assault that many bodies lay unburied for days.

THE QUEBEC CAMPAIGN

Liberal Party in Ottawa Preparing for the Fray.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—It is thought here that Mr. Belcourt is not particularly anxious to be re-elected Speaker of the House of Commons. He is a good debater and full of fight, and as chairman would be debared from taking that active part in the proceedings which he desires. If it is held to be the turn of the Liberals to elect a speaker, Mr. Arch Campbell is among those pronounced as eligible. This would probably mean the appointment as deputy speaker of Mr. Charles Macgil, who carried Bonaventure by 550 majority. With an English Speaker in the House it would have a remarkable French-Canadian in the Senate. For this position Hon. Roul Dandurand, of Montreal, would be an excellent choice.

BRYAN DENIES IT

Says He is Not about to Form a New Party.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 9.—William J. Bryan today denied that he would meet William Randolph Hearst and Thomas E. Watson in New York a week from now to take steps towards the organization of a new party. The statement that he would go to New York for a purpose was made by Mulvin G. Palmer, manager of Watson's campaign. Mr. Bryan has some reorganization plans, but he intends to stand sponsor for them himself.

DOG FINDS MONEY

Has Taken $127 to Master Since the First of June.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 9.—Res, the money-finding dog owned by Preston Clark, of this city, today reached a total find since the 1st of June of $127. This afternoon, after being in the shopping district there with remarkable instinct the dog appears to know where there are greater chances of finding money than anywhere else, he trotted to his master with a $2 bill, all maddy, but good money.

Clark trained the dog to search for money, and there is seldom a week now in which the dog does not bring him some silver coins, while it has found Clark enough pennies to keep him in Sunday newspapers.

The dog recently found a check, which he took to his master, wagging his tail with joy, and getting the usual dainty as reward.

EMBEZZLER FROM CANADA

Surrenders to Kansas Police Through Stress of Hunger.

Kansas City, Nov. 9.—Hungry and without a place to sleep, Arthur T. Heslop, a young Englishman of good appearance and of good family, surrendered himself to the police in order to get a meal. He said he was an embezzler of $1,200. He lived in Durham, England, and came to America last April for reasons which he did not wish to make public. After working for a short time as a farmhand, he was employed as a bookkeeper for E. A. McClogh, barrister, justice administrator and official guardian, located at Moosomin, Northwest Territory, Canada.

Once when his employer was away he took $1,200. When questioned, why he was driven to embezzlement he said he could not tell why. He had a conviction and said he could not talk. He told the police the greater part of the money had been sent to England. He said he could not tell why he took the money, but he said last night, "You may say this, that the man I was working for was paying me only $20 a month. I could not tell why I did it if I knew I would be sent to prison for it."

He said he had been in Kansas City about a fortnight and had done little except walk the streets. He had contemplated giving himself up and was forced to do so last evening, because he was cold and had nothing to eat. The police gave him a good supper and a good bed in the matron's room. Heslop does not look like a criminal and what made him one is a mystery to the police. He will be held here pending instructions from the Canadian officials.

COATSWORTH CUT

MURDER TRIAL

Sensational Case Comes Before the Assizes at Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 9.—At the assizes this morning Alex John Martin and his wife Ethel were placed on trial for the murder of their 8-month-old child in August last. The infant, it will be remembered was found floating in the bay. At the time of the arrest the woman admitted that she and her husband had taken their infant out in a boat, and that Martin, after hitting the child over the head with an oar, threw it in the bay. This confession, however, will not be used against the accused at this trial.
