Sarnia Liberals Are Having a Good Joke Over Act of Inspector.
[Staff Special.]
Sarnia, March 1.—The Liberals of this city are having a laugh at the expense of three men who played a little game of "fox and hen" with three very good little Government jobs. These gentlemen were appointed to offices which were vacated before the election. So happy were they that they exchanged the consideration of considerable proportions.

Dangerous Place to Fight
Swinging at a dizzy height, eighty feet in the air on a narrow steel bar, two structural ironworkers employed on the erection of Toronto's new sporting arena, engaged in an aerial battle at this lofty altitude with each other, where kicks and blows were freely exchanged, where most men would be crawling along on their hands and knees. One of the men had his features so badly damaged that when he appeared in court to tell his story there was very little of his face to be seen. He was swathed in bandages.

A Satisfactory Executor

The death of an executor often adds much unnecessary expense to an estate. An institution, however, such as the Canada Trust Company, does not die, and experience has further shown that such a company is the best executor. It is especially equipped to attend to matters of this kind, and as its existence is perpetual, assurance is afforded that no matter how long it requires to settle an estate, the company will always be on hand to see that the wishes of the testator are carried out with absolute fidelity and the greatest efficiency. The charges of an institution such as the Canada Trust Company when acting as executor, do not exceed those of a private individual, and the service is always broader and more satisfactory.

In the failure to move the western wheat, and the consequent distress of the western farmers, the Government is called upon to deal with the most serious question that has arisen in recent years. Neither the Government nor the railways can offer any better solution than to tell the farmer to raise less wheat—thatis, to check the progress of the West and of Canada. Canada is now told that during the last fifteen years she has been going too fast, and must now go more slowly in order to keep step with the Government and the railways. The unfortunate farmer is told to drop wheat-growing and go into cattle-raising and mixed farming. If he waits long enough, the Panama Canal will be dug and he can send his wheat across the Rocky Mountains, down the Pacific coast, across the canal and the Atlantic to England. If he waits long enough, the Hudson Bay Railway will carry his grain. If he waits long enough, Mr. Foster will make a reconciliation with the West Indies. If he waits long enough, Great Britain will give him a preference. If he waits long enough, the News-press

AN APPRECIATION OF RUDYARD KIPLING
Lecture by Mr. Gifford Before Western University Literary Society.
The Western University Literary Society held a most successful meeting last evening. Mr. Gifford, formerly of Victoria College, now of the Western, gave a very instructive and interesting address on "An Appreciation of Rudyard Kipling." Mr. Gifford had a full mastery of his subject, and his criticisms were most fair. Miss Gahan, of Western, gave a very interesting paper on "Kipling and the West." Miss J. Baker, of the Normal School, played a very difficult instrumental piece with great success. The program was most enjoyable. Misses Monroe and T. Tong rendered a delightful instrumental duet. The solos of Miss McLaughlin and Mrs. R. Kahn invoked great applause, while the university quartet, composed of Messrs. Harding, Simpson, Austin and O'Neil, scored a great hit. A large and appreciative audience was present. Mr. O. W. Milton, the president, occupied the chair.

OLD TESTAMENT WAS WRITTEN FOR THE JEWS
Rev. Dr. Yeuil's Bible Reading in First Congregational Church.
"The Old Testament was written for the Jews," said Rev. Dr. Yeuil in his expository Bible reading preceding his address in the First Congregational Church last evening. "The Old Testament, as a whole, was written for the Jews, and the law which was called to the cross of Jesus. The old law was done away as law. It might be said that it is incorrect to recite the Ten Commandments as binding. Nine of the ten are now laws, which would be right even if they were not given in the Bible. The fourth is a positive commandment. We observe the first day of the week in memory of Jesus rather than the seventh day, as was the Jewish custom. The plan of salvation is made clear in the New Testament."
