TORONTO.—April 2.—There was a good market for the small run of live stock at the city cattle market this morning. Farmers apparently thought that butchers had overstocked themselves for the Easter trade, and therefore failed to appear with enough to satisfy the demand.

There was no export cattle offering today and prices are unchanged. Butchers brought good prices in every case. Quite a number sold between $5 and $25.

Stockers are a shade easier, common beef quoted at $2.75 to $3.75. Grain fed lambs are also weaker at $7 to $7.25. Spring lambs show a firm tendency. They are quoted at $5 to $7.50.

Calves are up 50c at $3 to $6.50. Hogs have fallen off 10c at $6.80 for select and $6.50 for lights and fats. The run was 22 cars, containing 300 head of cattle, seven sheep and lambs, 300 hogs and 22 calves.
