

WATFORD NOMINATIONS

A LARGE MEETING AND A GOODLY NUMBER OF ASPIRANTS

The nomination meeting was held this year in the Lyceum. There was a good attendance and considerable interest manifested in the different issues before the ratepayers. Returning officer, W. S. Fuller, presided during the nomination hour after which he requested to be relieved of the office of chairman, which he has filled for many years, and on a vote of the audience, Mr. Joseph H. Hume was given charge of the meeting. At the close of the nomination hour the following names were on the roll:

D. A. Maxwell, by W. H. Harper and D. Hamilton.
S. Stapleford, by B. H. Parker and W. H. Harper.

Wm. Doan, by W. H. Harper and A. G. Brown.
J. E. Fowler, by J. W. Doar and R. O. Spalding.
S. E. Thompson, by P. J. Dodds and W. H. Harper.
R. E. Johnston, by J. W. Doar and Jas. Glass.

N. Hawn, by P. J. Dodds and W. H. Shrapnell.
J. D. Brown, by W. E. Fitzgerald and P. J. Dodds.
W. B. Laws, by W. E. Fitzgerald and John Wiley.
P. E. Fuller, by W. E. Fitzgerald and F. J. Hughes.
R. G. Kelly, by J. W. Doar and F. W. Rogers.
J. S. Williams, by W. Jamieson and D. Roberts.
J. McKercher, by D. Hamilton and B. H. Parker.
John Shirley, by T. B. Taylor and W. E. Fitzgerald.

BOARD OF EDUCATION
J. W. McLaren, by John McKercher and B. H. Parker.
D. A. Maxwell, by J. H. Hume and J. McKercher.
P. J. Dodds, by Wm. Doan and B. H. Parker.
R. Campbell McLeay, by W. Doan and W. B. Laws.

The members of the old council spoke first. The revee reviewed the work of the year and thought the statement presented a very satisfactory one. A new roof had been put on the wire works, a chemical engine purchased, donations given to entertain Col. Sam Hughes, and also to the band. He stated what the government would probably do regarding water works for the postoffice and armory, and advocated the municipality working with the government and extending the system through the main street for fire protection, thus greatly reducing the cost of insurance. He thought a storage tank to contain 60,000 gallons would give a supply of 250 gallons a minute for four hours in case of fire. For $4000 a system that would fully protect the town could be installed. The cost would go on the property protected. He spoke of hydro-electric, paving main street and other questions of vital importance to the ratepayers, and if they picked the best man on election day he would be satisfied.

J. McKercher thought that with the amount at the disposal of the council they could not make many improvements. On account of the stringency they considered it advisable not to make any extensive improvements. The roofing of the wire works was an unexpected expenditure amounting to $225. The $125 spent on entertaining Col. Hughes was well spent as the municipality would be benefited to a far greater extent as the Minister had promised a very liberal grant for water and other improvements. He considered that the council had got good value for every dollar spent. He would let his name go before the electors.

J. E. Fowler was not present.
N. Hawn said previous speakers had pretty well covered the ground. $200 had been spent for new fire tanks. He had spent $89 in his division for gravel, etc., and thought he had got good value for his money. He had decided to stand for re-election.

W. Doan had spent his appropriation for gravel, etc. The new fence at the fair ground had cost little, the sale of old one nearly covering the expense.

T. B. Taylor was the first of the new nominees to speak. He reviewed his career as councillor in past years. He had been requested to stand. He had the experience, time and inclination and would likely make up his mind to run. If he did he would not make a personal canvass as he considered such a proceeding almost an insult to the intelligence of the ratepayers. All knew his ability. He would consider the matter and give his decision to-morrow.

D. A. Maxwell did not speak but is in the field for trustee.
W. E. Fitzgerald criticized the financial statement. The Council claimed to have on hand $2864.67, but they had debentures about due amounting to $3243.81, which would leave a deficit of $379.14. When the $500 high school loan was returned it would leave a credit balance of a little over $100. The previous council left on hand $1100. Regarding waterworks he said the government would provide the supply for their buildings whatever council was in office. That a scheme could be installed that could supply G. T. R. and thus get enough money from that Co. to pay interest on debentures. Considered a good water works system would be a great saving in the way of fire protection and a decrease in cost of insurance. He explained the public library act and showed that the extra cost of maintenance of new building would not add anything to the tax rate. He gave the history of the armory question from when it was first introduced in 1904 to the present time. All were proud of the building. He touched on the paving question, canning factory, hydro-electric, etc. Had not then decided whether he would be in the field but if he ran would be proud to receive the support of those present.

J. D. Brown, received the financial statement. No matter how economical a future council may be the taxes are not going to come down. Was in favour of good roads and would like to see the paving of main street pushed. He had withdrawn two years ago, on condition that he should receive the support of the candidates later, and thought the fight should now be between Mr. Taylor and himself. However, he would not give decided answer till next day.

S. E. Thompson, was not a candidate, neither was R. E. Johnston or W. B. Laws.
P. F. Fuller and Dr. Kelly, were not present.
J. D. Brown said that if he did not run for revee he would be in the field for the council.

J. S. Williams was in the field for councillor.
John Shirley, was not a candidate.
P. J. Dodds, was the only nominee for the Board of Education to answer the call of the chairman. He said he was in the field for the position and would be thankful for the support of the electors.

Tight Times in the West

A Lambton man having a business in a Saskatchewan town reports money exceedingly scarce in the West. He submits the following extract from a letter from his agent: "I was out all day yesterday trying to collect money for you but did not get a cent. I don't know what is going to become of this country, it is getting worse all the time. Everybody is telling the same story. I expect to get some accounts in a few days." Nothing of this kind in good old Ontario.
