When a man has money and position he usually becomes hard to please. He is disposed to criticize and to want the best of everything. Take, for instance, H. R. H., the Prince of Wales, who visited Canada a short time ago. He wouldn't use here? time ago. He wouldn't use bread made fron ordinary flour, no, indeed-he wanted the best bread that Canada could produce, and so he got Ogilvie's flour to make it. The result is that today Calibra'. every day during the exhibition until to-day Ogilvie's is, by Royal Warrant, the Flour of the Royal Houseness furnace now being put into St. hold, and you know, the Royal House hold in all things invariably demands
