"FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Mrs. Corbett Read the Advertisement and Tried It Avon, May 14th, 1914.

"I have used 'Fruit-a-tives' for Indigestion and Constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. I saw 'Fruit-atives' advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them. The results were more than satisfactory, and I have no hesitation in recommending 'Fruit-atives" ANNIE A. CORBETT.

Time is proving that 'Fruit-a-tives' can always be depended upon to give prompt relief in all cases of Constipation and Stomach Trouble.

At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit- the time-having in mind the pride from the lips of an American coma-tives Limited, Ottawa.

OUR CANADA

Have faith in glorious Canada; How grand has been her past; How boundless are her treasure stores! Her boundaries, how vast!

Refrain: My heart has faith in Canada. The land where all are free, No land can be like Canada, Oh, Canada for me.

brings,

With every circling year; With more than golden cheer.

No tyrant power with iron will, Holds thousands in its thrall; laws;

Give equal rights to all.

Here toil receives its recompense, And skill its just reward;

Her heart beats true to all that's good, Her fame is known afar; In all her homes abundance dwells;

To man's redeeeming Lord.

How bless'd her children are!

strong. Are all that queens should be.

Her joy and pride shall be; One in the fight for God and right And one in victory.

Selma, Hants Co., N. S.

THE LUMBERMEN'S ALPHABET

C is for camp that we all live in while not ask it is this. D is for danger we often stand in.

CHORUS

nothing goes wrong.

G is for grindestone we often turn burg?

round, while

N is for needle to patch up our pants a shot in anger.

Q is for quarreling we never allow. R is for river cur logs they do plow.

T is for black team that hauls them through.

W is for woods from which we come seas still kept it. out in the Spring, When I'll sit down, my Mary, and a song I will sing.

bring into rhyme.

does blow

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc. armed figure turned toward the wire- mans had the tactical offensive by sea is, because I like to think that the subscribed.

SHE RECOMMENDS WITH THE GRAND FLEET

By FREDERICK PALMER IN THE TIMES WEEKLY EDITION

(Mr. Frederick Palmer, the American war correspondent, was a member of a party of distinguished foreign journalists who visited the Grand Fleet in August and September at the invitation of the British Government.)

building.

III.

In the Fleet Flagship is always the Commander-in-Chief's mander-in-Chief of the Asiatic Squadflagship. Our handy, agile destroyer ron. Indeed, one was always hearing ran alongside a battleship with as about Jellicoe in those days on the much nonchalance as she would go China coast. He was the kind of men alongside a pier. I should not have whom people talk about after they been surprised to have seen her pir- have met him, which means person-ships-particularly if a sea were run- that was not ours, that the phrase 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. ning as there was in this harbor at "Blood is thicker than water" sprang of paint, begged all destroyers to mander, who waited not on internatkeep off with the superciliousness of ional etiquette, but went to the assistgrandes dames holding their skirts ance of the British. aloof from contact with nimble, audacious street gamins, who dodged in the summer of '98 forget how Sir Edand out of the traffic of muddy streets. ward Chichester stood loyally by Ad-But destroyers have learned better miral George Dewey, when the Gerhave been democratized. It is the the waters of Manilla Bay, until our grown used to all kinds of marvels.

trained. It is the same old sea that it Germans. The British bluejackets said Time more and more advancement craft against towering sides. The side were excellent; but the Germans flagship without any fuss and the way was sent to them, doubtless through And all her broadening future shines the bluejackets held off from the an oversight in the detail of hospitalwas how, at the right interval, they after the British had been supplied. Here justice reigns and righteous assisted the landlubber to step from In the gallant effort of the Allied Office. At the end of the first year

Here youth and age their homage pay jackets at the same thing. They did the most trying and picturesque adnot grin-not when you were looking venture of its kind in modern history. Her sons are brave, and true, and Scotch caps and other kinds of caps mark that saying of Farragut's, "The Without any intention of eavesdropp-whence came these strange birds. One knew the flagship by the ad-To stand on grand Old England's side miral's barges astern as you know Sir John; "he had been wounded so by Its automobiles. It seemed in the ble along and keep on fighting. We centre of the Fleet at anchor, if that corresponded regularly until his -PASTOR J. CLARK. is a nautical expression. Where its death." A is for axes, so you very well know other ship in battle. If there is any far from home should have become B is for boys who can use them just so one foolish qestion which one should so conspicuous in the great war. If

100 Years Ago and Now

Right merrily O, right merr'ly are we this mighty super-Dreadnought one ally come upon the Shikou arsenal, No mortal on earth as happy can be, was bound to think of another flag- one would not be commanding the Let the snow it come deep and winter ship in Portsmouth Harbour, Nelson's Grand Fleet and the other its battle Victory-at least, an American was, cruiser squadron.

M is for mosses to stuff up our camps gone to the scrap-heap without firing hundred tons of metal in a single sary woodwork.

U is for uses we put ourselves to, the old reason that England had man men-of-war in the harbour, they board. V is for valley we haul our logs superior strength. Her outnumbering had no targets. Where were they? Not all famous leaders are likeable, only one thought under the rule that guns which had kept the peace of the One did not ask questions which as every world traveller knows. They you must make good.

Sir John Jellico

man this, as the defence of the im- the North Sea. There are three other letters I can't mense distances of the steppes to the Russian or the Rocky Mauntain wall And if anyone can I pray tell me in and the Mississippi's flow to the man At the outset of the war the Ger- a sailor besides—well, we know what ly and majestically, gaining speed one in Kansas. But the American kept man Fleet might have had one chance that means. The train's at the crossing, the whistle thinking about it; and he wanted the in ten of getting a turn of fortune Perhaps Sir John Jellicoe is not a bour's entrance. Kansans to think about it, too. When in its favor by an unexpected stroke great man. It is not for a civilian So farewell, my Mary, to the woods I he was about to meet Sir John Jellicoe of, strategy. This was the danger even to presume to judge. We have The "Loan of Victory" is the name ier tariffs on imports, said, "If you he envisaged the tall column in Traf- which Admiral Jellicoe had to guard the word of those who ought to know, applied to the new French domestic don't stop shearing the wool off the algar Square, surmounted by the one against. For in one sense, the Ger- however, that he borrowing bill, that is being rapidly sheep that lays the golden egg, you'll less skein on top of the admirality

One first heard of Jellicoe fifteen Thus far we have skirted around years ago, when he was Chief of Staff the heart of things, which in a Fleet to Sir Edward Seymour, then Comouette over the hills or take to flight. It was in China seas, you may There was a time when those ma- remember, that when a few British jestic and pampered ladies, the battle- seamen were hard pressed in a fight

Nor will anyone who was present in manners, perhaps, and battleships man squadron was empire-fighting in day of Russian dancers and when air- Atlantic Fleet had won the battle of planes loop the loop, and we have Santiago and Admiral Dewey had received reinforcements and, East and But the sea has refused to be West, we were able to look after the was in Columbus's time, without any that the rations of frozen mutton loss of trickiness in bumping small from Australia which we sent along way that this destroyer slid up to the were in no position to judge, as none paint as she rose on the crests and ity by one of Admiral Dewey's staff. slipped back into the trough did not Let us be officially correct and say gunwale to gangway, making him forces of sailors to relieve the Legafeel perfectly safe when he would tions against some hundreds of thoushave been perfectly helpless but for ands of Boxers, Captain Bowman Mc- ponderance over the Germans; in an-Calla and his Americans worked with other year she would increase it fur-I had often watched our own blue- Admiral Seymour and his Britons in ther. at them. Nor did the British. Blue- McCalla, too, was always talking of jackets are noted for their official Jellicoe, who was wounded on the ex- or into a mine field and submarine politeness. I should like to have heard pedition; and Sir John's face lighted trap. But Sir John Jellicoe refused their remarks—they have a gift for at the mention of McCalla's name. He remarks about those invaders recalled how McCalla had painted on his precautions and his organization of their uniformed world in the superstructure of the little New- to meet all new conditions, his Fleet too which tailors make for civilians. best protection against an enemy's noghts could rest at anchor at a base fire is a well directed fire of your

"We called McCalla Mr. Lead," said the location of an army headquarters | many times and yet was able to hob-place would be in action is one of Beatty, too, was on that expedition; those secrets as important to the ene- and he, too, was another personality my as the location of a general's one kept hearing about. It seemed shell-proof shelter in Flanders. Per- odd that two men who had played a haps Sir John Jellico may be on some part in worlt which was a soldier's on that day when, with ammunition exhausted, all members of the expedition had given up hope of ever re-As one mounted the gangway of turning alive, they had not accident-

Give the shanty boys beans and there's Probably an Englishman would not Any general of high command must indulge in such a commonplace. One be surrounded by more pomp than would like to know how many Eng- an admiral in time of action. A head-

Begging for Battle

as well as by land; theirs, the outenemy should come.

mine fields. Submarines had played cision.

precedence over demands of the War war product of modern energy.

Admiral von Tripitz wanted nothing so much as to draw the British Fleet under the guns of Heligoland the bait. When he had completed need not go into the open. His Dreadwhile his scouts kept in touch with all Her daughters fair, with graces rare, ing, I did overhear one asking another own," which has been said in other that was passing, and his auxiliaries he, too, might find himself in a trap down on the spot where it had been be, that children must be taught to of mines and submarines. He was seen. In places the sea looked like have regard for the feelings of others losing submarines and England was a pepperbox cover. Dots were plen- and yet, do we, as a whole body o building more. His naval force rath- tiful outside the harbour where we women, shush at them too much, and er than Sir John's was suffering from were; but well outside, like flies keep after them too closely, with attrition. The blockade was com- around sugar which they could not our don'ts and our must-nots. plete, from Iceland to the North Sea. reach. While the world knew of the work of the Armies, the care that this task and guests one had a glimpse of the born instinct of every child who is RAILWAY AND D. A. RAILWAY. required, the hardships endured, the life of a sort of mysterious, busy normal to love to be gay. over army operations.

No Room For Red Tape

E is for echo that through the woods lishmen had ever seen the old Victory. quarters cannot have the simplicity was directed. One would think that these leaders. Sir John moved from children" and shivers at the sound of But, then, how many Americans have of the quarter-deck. The force which many offices and many clerks would be one to another in his quick way, ask- their "Indian yelling" perhaps is F is for foreman the boss of the gang. been to Mount Vernon and Gettys- the general commands is not in sight; required. But the offices and the ing a question, listening, giving a assisted to that condition by other Wharf, Boston, Tuesday and Friday at the admiral's is. You saw the com- clerks were at the Admiralty. Here direction, his face smiling and express- things. It was a hundred years, one repeats, mander and you saw what he com- was the execution. In a room per- ive with a sort of infectious confi- If the choice must be made, muffle H is for handle so smooth and so since the British had fought a first- manded. Within the sweep of vision haps four feet by six was the wireless dence. class naval war. Nelson did his part from the quarter-deck was the ter- focus which received all the reports "He is the man!" said an admiral. duce speed and street car bells at the so well that he did not leave any rific power which the man with the and sent all the orders, with trim I mean several admirals and cap- same time, repress anything else, in I is for iron we mark at the pine, fighting to be done by his successors. broad gold band on his arm directed. bluejackets at the keys, "Go!" and tains said so. They seemed to like to fact, but give the little folks the right. J is for Johnstone not far down the Maintaining herself as mistress of the At a signal from him it would move "come!" the messages were saying; say it. Whenever he approached one to live without being shushed almost seas by the threat of superior strength or it would stand still. That com- they wasted no words. Officers of the noted an eagerness, a tightening of out of existence. K is for keen edge our axes to keep. —except in the late fifties, when the mand of Joshua's if given by Sir John staff did their work in narrow space, nerves. Natural leadership expresses Get after the nerves instead of the French innovation of iron ships gave one thought might have been obeyed. yet seemed to have plenty of room. itself in many ways; Sir John gave it child part of the time. Suppose we L is for big lice that down our back France a temporary lead on paper— One hundred, three Red tape is inflammable. There is no a sailor's attractiveness. But I shush our own impatience, instead of ship after ship, through all the grades hundred, four hundred 12-in. guns more place for it on board a flagship learned that there was steel under the glee of the children, once in a of progress in naval construction, has and larger, which could carry two prepared for action than for unneces- his happy smile; and they liked him while.—Portland "Express."

broadside for a distance of eighteen. At every turn the compression and not smiling, and sometimes when he O is for old owl that hoots out at The Victory was one landmark, or thousand yards! But do not forget the concentration of power were like is smiling, they say. sea mark, if you please, and this flag- the little guns bristling under the the guns and the decks, cleared for For failure is never excused in that P is for big pine that falls to the right. ship was another. Between the two big guns like needles from a cushion, action significant in directness of Fleet, as more than one commander were generations of officers and men which would keep off the torpedo as- purpose. The system was planetary knows. It is a luxury of consideration working through the change from sassins; or the light cruisers, or the in its impressive simplicity, the more which the British nation cannot af-S is for sleds we put our logs on, stage coach to motors and airplanes colliers, or the destroyers, or the 2,- striking as nothing that man has ever ford by sea in time of war. The scene and seaplanes, who had kept up to 300 trawler and minelayers, and what made is more complicated or includes which one witnessed in the cabin of standard of efficiency in view of a not, all under his direction. He had more kinds of machinery than a the Dreadnought flagship could not test that never came. A year of war submarines, too, double the number battleship. One battleship was one have been unlike that of Nelson and and still the test had not come, for of the German. But with all the Ger- unit, one chessman on the naval his young captains on the Victory, in great commanders need not necessarily appear formidable. Nelson refused to be cast for the heavy part, ours or titles they may bestow on Sir John Jellicoe not alone for his service to the nation, but for himself. Admiral Jellicoe is one with Cap-pedition of Boxer days. "He could do it, too!" one thought, having in mind Sir David Beatty's leap to the deck of a destroyer. Spare, of medium height, ruddy, and 57. So much for the health qualification which the Admiralty Lords dwelt upon as important. After he had been at sea for a year he secured a human machine much of the type of that desward thrust from the centre. They troyer as a steel machine-a thirty could choose when to come out of knot human machine, capable of 300 their harbour; when to strike. The or 500 revolutions, engines running British had to keep watch all the smoothly, with no waste of energy, time, and be ready whenever the slipping over the waves and cutting through them; a quick man, quick of Thus the British Grand Fleet was at movement, quick of comprehension sea in the early part of the war, and observation, of speech and cruising here and there, begging for thought, with a delightful self-posbattle. Then it was that it learned session-for there are many kindshow to avoid the submarines and the which is instantly responsive with dea greater part than expected, because A telescope under his arm, too, as Germany had chosen a guerilla war- he received his guests. One liked fare; to harass, to wound, to wear that. He keeps watch over the Fleet down. Doubtless she hoped to reduce himself when he is on the quarterthe number of British fighting units deck. One had a feeling that nothing could happen in all his range of vision Weak England might be in plants stretching down the "avenues of for making arms for an army, but not Dreadnoughts" to the light cruiser in shipbuilding. Here was her true squadron, and escape his attention. It genius. She was a maritime power; hardly seems possible that he was Germany a land power. Her part as ever bored. Everything around him an ally of France and Russia being interests him. Energy he has, electo command the sea, all demands of tric energy in this electric age, this tell the whole story. A part of it that there was no mutton to spare the Admiralty for material must take man chosen to command the greatest he already had the whip and they girl, never."

The Admiral's New Broom

other devices in his campaign against nervous and mamma had said shush von Tripitz's "untersee" boats, which ever since he could remember, eviwas illustrated by one of the maps | dently, and the same attitude of fought the submarines. Without a hung in his cabin. Quite different life follows most of us through the British dreadnought having fired a this from maps in a general's head-world. We are continually being H. & S. W. RAILWA shot at a German Dreadnought, no- quarters, with the front trenches and shushed at, by somebody or other where on the face of the seas might support and reserve trenches and the lest we disturb some other ones a single vessel show the German flag gun-positions marked in vari-colored nerves. Which is right, in a measexcept by thrusting it above the water pencillings. Instantly a submarine ure, and yet, it means repression in If von Tripitz sent his Fleet out, word of it, and another dot went times. We know such things must of a ready, buoyant definiteness-yes, them every hour of the day? From this flagship the campaign spirit was the word to characterize The nervous woman who "hates for that, too. Watch out when he is the animation of youth governed with would not be answered. Waiting as all have the magnetism of force, which | Splendid as was the sight of the the whole British Fleet was waiting, is quite another thing from the mag- power which Sir John directed from for the Germans to show their heads, netism of charm. What the public his quarter-deck while the ships lay All second nature to the English- while cruisers were abroad scouting demands is that they shall win vic- still in their plotted moorings, it tories, whether personally likeable or paled beside that when the anchor not. But if they are likeable and chains began to rumble and, column from Holland. The geography says tonight, how much would you simple and human in the bargain and by column, they took on life and slow- it is a low, lying country. after another, turned toward the har-

DON'T "SUSH" THE CHILDREN

A little boy of my acquaintance has and so did Farragut. It may be a recently gone with his parents to live sailor characteristic. I predict that on a big farm, outside the city. He after this war is over, whatever hon- has always been a delicate, gentle little thing, and his quiet, pleasing service on the railway is as follows: him, the English are going to like manners have been as much a matter of comment among his friends as have his pale cheeks and frail appearance. At school he was a quiet little kid, too, and one of the kind who gave tain Jellicoe, whose cheeriness the appearance to a stranger, of beeven when wounded kept up the spiring so modest and still that he seemits of the others on the Relief Exed scarcely a boy, but more like a "little lady." His friends have regretted, very much, that he must leave his city school for the-country, and felt, that somehow, such sacrifice was wrong, but the other morning I met him on the street where he had mouth" leaves St. John 7.00 a. m. come up with his mother for a day's arrives Digby 10.15 a. m., leaves Digshopping and I was amazed at the by 1.50 p. m., arrives at St. John change in the child. His cheeks were rosy red, his little frame filled out with Canadian Pacific trains for Monand straighter, his attitude one of treal and the West. confidence and almost daring, his entire personality made over, it would appear. It was almost unnecessary to ask him how he liked the farm, but he answered with enthusiasm, "Oh, it's the greatest place you ever saw, Madame. Why, there are fields where we can run, for miles, it seems, the big dog and I, for there is the love- days and Saturdays. liest big dog you ever saw, that went R. U. PARKER. with the farm, you know! The people had to leave him 'cause they were moving into the city and there are lots of kittens out in the barn, and you know when I was in the city we never could have a dog or a kitty, and there are birds flying all round, and chickens, and things to feed and play with, and the bossies in the barn. I tend two of them myself, and it's just the greatest fun in the world. And do you know, we have a big house to ourselves, and nobody living down stairs, and I can holler all I want to and I just go up in the big attic and yell, sometimes as loud as I can, and as many times as I want to and mamma never says, "S- Dec. 28 Shenandoah Jan. 14 the ladder to his headquarters was a s-s-h-u-s-h" once! I used to get so new broom which South Africa had tired of having mamma say shush all sent him. He was highly pleased the time, every time I did anything, with that present; only the broom cause the woman downstairs was was von Tromp's emblem, while nervous, she said. And now, nobody Blake's had been the whip. Possibly says shush at all, and I am going to the South African Dutchmen, now have a farm of my own, and I will fighting on England's side, knew that never say shush to any little boy or wanted him to have the Dutch broom | The secret of the little fellow's demure manners, his air of repression, He had been using both, and many was out. The woman downstairs was was sighted anywhere, Sir John had a really overwhelming measure a

It's human nature to love to shout Seeing Sir John among his admirals and sing and be merry, it's the in- WITH ALL POINTS ON H. & S. W.

enormous expenditure of energy, brotherhood. I was still searching Why choke back the gleeful laugh, were all hidden behind that veil of for an admiral with white hair. If hush the joyful clatter, compel the General Freight and Passenger Agent secrecy which obviously must be there were none among these seniors, happy little folks to conform to the more closely drawn over naval than then all must be on shore.. Spirit, rigid rules of enforced silence which I think that is the word; the spirit of must needs be the vent for their joyyouth, of corps, of service, of the sea, ous soul? In short, why "shush" at the whistles and the siren horns, re-

He came in, laid down some suspicious looking bills, with a genuine dollar bill on top, and said:

"I want to pay for that barrel of apples I got." "Can't take this money," said the "Most of it isn't good." "The top layer's good, is it not?"

"Well, that's the way it was with the apples.

Bix-I see there's a report from Holland-that concrete bases for German cannon have been found there. Dix-Don't believe a word you hear

A political speaker, warning the public against the imposition of heavpump it dry."

On and after Oct. 9th, 1915, train

Service Daily Except Sunday. Express for Yarmouth.. ....12 noon Express for Halifax and Truro Accom. for Halifax......7.40 a.m. Accom. for Annapolis......6.35 p. m.

St. John - Digby

DAILY SERVICE

(Sunday excepted.) Canadian Pacific Steamship "Tarabout 5.00, connecting at St. John

Boston Service

Steamers of the Boston and Yarmouth S.S. Company sail from Yarmouth for Boston after arrival of Express train from Halifax, Wednes-

Gen. Passenger Agent. GEORGE E. GRAHAM. General Manager.

FURNESS SAILINGS

From London From Halifax

Shendoah Dec. 1st Kanawha Dec. 18 Dec. 14 Rappahannock Dec. 31

From Halifax From Liverpool via Nfld

Durango Nov. 27 Tabasco Dec. 12 Above sailings are not guaranteed and are ublect to change without notice.

Furness Withy & Co., Limited Halifax, N. S.

	Time Table is effect January 4, 1915	Mon. & Fr
Read down.	Stations	Read un
11.38	* Clarence	15,17
11.55	Bridgetown	15.01
12.23	Granville Centre	14.36
12.39	Granville Ferry	14.21
12.55	* Karsdale	14.05

CONNECTION AT MIDDLETON

P. MOONEY

Steamship Prince George Leaves Yarmouth Wednesday and Saturday at 5 p. m. Return leave Central is a good thing, but it should not be so applied as to limit the education of the young men and women who must be trained to bear unusual burdens now and when the war is over. Educate them now that they may do effectively their part then. The commercial and industrial centres are already calling for them.

Tickets and Staterooms at Wharf Office] A. E. WILLIAMS. Agent Yarmouth, N. S.

MARITIME BUSINESS COLLEGE HALIFAX, N. S. E. KAULBACH C. A.

If your home should burn loose?

-LET THE-

Northern Insurance Co.

Protect you FRED E. BATH

Local Agent