

such ticket on Thursday and Friday, in accordance with the above rates. Children under fourteen years of age, half-price. Carriages to pay one dollar each admission; each occupant, except the driver, to be also provided with the usual admission ticket. Horsemen half a dollar.

7. Every article, other than live stock, exhibited for competition, must be the growth, product, or manufacture of Canada, except in classes 39 and 59. Live stock, except in class 39, must be the bona fide property of persons residing in Canada, and must be exhibited in the name of the owner only.

8. All premiums for Articles, except Stock, are to be awarded to the manufacturers or producers only.

8. Articles for Exhibition must be on the grounds on Monday, Sept. 23, except live stock, which must be there not later than Tuesday at noon.

9. Discretionary Premiums will be awarded for such articles as may be considered worthy by the Judges, although not enumerated in the list, and the Directors will determine the amount of premium.

In the Fine Arts and Mechanical Department, diplomas will be awarded—in addition to the money prize—to any specimen evincing great skill in its production, or deemed otherwise worthy of such a distinction, on its being recommended by the Judges and approved of by the Committee to whom all such matters shall be referred.

In the absence of competition in any of the classes, or if the Stock or articles exhibited be of inferior quality, the Judges will exercise their discretion as to the value of the premiums they recommend.

No person will be allowed to interfere with the Judges while in the discharge of their duties. Any person so interfering will forfeit any premium which may be awarded them.

A GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT will be appointed, who will have the general supervision of the grounds, and the arrangements of the Exhibition. He will have an office upon the ground; and all persons having inquiries to make in relation to the arrangements will apply.

No articles or stock exhibited will be allowed to be removed from the grounds, till the close of the exhibition, under the penalty of losing the premiums. The exhibition will close immediately upon the delivery of the President's address on Friday afternoon. An auctioneer will be on the ground after the premiums are announced, and every facility afforded for the transaction of business.

1. Delegates, Judges and Members of the Association are requested and expected to report themselves at the Secretary's Office, immediately on arrival.

2. The Judges are to meet at the Secretary's Office on the Grounds, on Tuesday, 24th, at 10 o'clock, to make arrangements for entering upon their duties.

3. The Annual Meeting of the Directors of the Association will take place on the grounds on Friday morning, 27th, at 10 o'clock.

15th. While the Directors will take every possible precaution, under the circumstances, to insure the safety of articles sent to the exhibition, yet they wish it to be distinctly understood that the owners must themselves take the risk of exhibiting them; and that should any article be accidentally injured, lost, or stolen, the Directors will give all the assistance in their power towards the recovery of the same, but will not make any payment for the value thereof.

Exhibitors must provide for the delivery of their articles upon the show ground. The Association cannot in any case make provision for their transportation, or be subjected to any expense therefor, either in their delivery at or return from the grounds; all the expenses connected therewith must be provided for by the Exhibitors themselves.

16. The Treasurer will be prepared to commence paying the premiums on Saturday, 28th, at 9 a. m., and parties who shall have prizes awarded them are particularly requested to apply for them before leaving London, or leave a written order with some person to receive them, stating the articles for which prizes are claimed.

N.B.—In case the Directors shall require any particular information in reference to animals or articles taking first prizes, the owners will be expected to transmit it, when requested to do so.

17. The Local Committee will make arrangements with Steamboat and Railroad proprietors for carrying articles and passengers at reduced rates.

Providence will be provided by the Association for live stock at cost price.

Arrangements will be made with the Customs department for the free entry of articles for competition.
