LESSON 7.] JESUS AT THE PHARISEE'S HOUSE. [MAY 13.

Luke 7. 36-50.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Thy faith hath saved thee.—Luke 7. 50.

MEMORY VERSES, 44-47.—And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

LESSON STORY.

You know that the Pharisees did not like to have Jesus near them. But there was one man, Simon, who asked him to come and dine with him. We do not know why he did this. He may have done it to find something against Jesus. It is quite certain that he did not invite him because he loved him, for we see the spirit of fault-finding in his words, but which the all-seeing Lord could hear and understand.

Notice how full of love the woman was who anointed Christ's feet. She had heard that he loved sinners, and so she brought her beautiful box of ointment and broke it upon his feet. This lesson teaches that love counts more than all else with the Lord. The "woman who was a sinner" was forgiven all her sins, "because she loved much."
