The Grand Scribe read report from brother Barratt, Agent of the Grand Division, to Agency Committee. (See Report in Appendix to this Journal.)

Referred to Committee on State of the Order.

The following report was read by the Grand Scribe, and referred to same committee:—

The Agency Committee report to the Grand Division in Quarterly Session at Antigonishe :

That the work entrusted to them by the Grand Division has been pursued during the past three months with vigor and efficiency, by Brother R. M. Barratt, who has been performing a tour of the western counties. Brother B. has passed through Lunenburg, Queens and Annapolis; and is now on his way through the counties of Digby, Yarmouth and Shelburne, delivering lectures, visiting Subordinate Divisions, and otherwise seeking to promote the objects of our Order—a dissemination of the principles of Temperance, Benevolence and Brotherly Love. The results of his labors your Committee believe will be highly beneficial to the interests of the Order and the cause of Temperance generally.

Your Committee have also engaged the services of the Rev. Alex'r McArthur, to spend three months in a tour through the eastern counties, for the purpose of lecturing on Temperance, and promoting the welfare of the Order generally. His ability in this work has been well proved, and his experience will, we doubt not, enable him to do much for the benefit of the people amongst whom he may labor. We would commend him to the sympathy and kind attention of the brethren and friends, and trust that they will do what is in their power towards the funds, so as to second the efforts of your Committee, and those who by their generous contributions sustain these important agencies.
