Report of the English Work.

Southport.—Report that alterations costing over $10,000 have recently been effected, and now they have one of the most complete church houses in Southport. One addition during the month. They have flourishing Y. P. S. C. E. and Junior Y. P. S. C. E. Societies.

Tasso Tabernacle, Fulham, London.—Additions, 3. Sunday last was their seventh anniversary. I preached for them in the evening, and attended and spoke again last night. They are moving along steadily. The working expenses of the church are met from the members almost exclusively. The neighborhood is a very poor one; the membership is made up of working people. I should judge not a single member can afford to keep a servant, from the pastor down. The report of the year, read last night, showed steady progress. Bro. J. Coop has offered $25; if they can raise the remaining $1,500 debt on their property, and this they are trying to do.

Chester.—Additions, 5. "Meetings well attended and interest good."

Southampton.—Addition, 1. "This season is the least fruitful at a place like Southampton. The attendances are always less than at any other season of the year."

Hornsey.—Additions, 2. "The work at Hornsey is characterized by peace and concord, which has never been disturbed. The progress is slow, but it seems to be sure and steady." Two new chapels have been opened in the neighborhood, but we feel this will only result in greater zeal being put forth by our members.

Birkenhead.—June 3. They celebrated their S. S. Anniversary. They had splendid gatherings, morning, afternoon and evening. Three additions by baptism.

Gloucester and Cheltenham.—Two additions by baptism; have begun to hold tent meetings in different parts of Gloucester, with very fair success.

Liverpool.—Bro. Troy left June 27. Bro. Abberly has been secured as a supply for the present. There is great need for a strong man here in (practically) the second city in Great Britain.

West London Tabernacle.—Additions, 22—20 by baptism, 2 immersed believers. We began this year with $1,200 of a deficit on current expenses and repairs we were obliged to undertake. So far $800 of this amount has been paid off, and the other $400 will be before the year ends. Our Sunday-school room has been re-decorated and re-seated, and a new entrance made, at no cost to the church. We simply agreed to allow five of our members to do this work and pay themselves by letting the room week nights for lodge and various social meetings. When they have paid themselves we shall continue to let the room and get a revenue from it. The letting of the room will in no way interfere with our work. July, August and September are our slack months, so many leave for the seaside, but not one of our meetings will close on this account. The work goes on forever. A band of young people go out every Sunday night from a prayer-meeting, and invite strangers on the streets to our meetings.

Batham.—At our last board meeting it was reported by Bro. Moore that Bro. Frank Coop would furnish a hall in this district if the workers in London would furnish preachers. A committee was appointed, and with Bro. Moore doing most of the preaching, we may begin a work in this neighborhood. It is a splendid suburb.

B. N. E. & E.

Report of the Board of Negro Education and Evangelization, by States, for July:

Ohio, $60.65; Kentucky, $32.46; West Virginia, $6; New York, $10; Indiana, $3.75; Illinois, $1; Missouri, $44.40; Kansas, $11.08; Virginia, $25; Iowa, $62.60; miscellaneous, $1.50. Total for the B. N. E. & E. for July, $258.44.

Collections for the S. C. I., voluntary and on pledges, $50.50.

ATTENTION!

All those who have made a pledge to the Board of Negro Education and Evangelization, individuals or churches, this is the month in which these pledges should be paid. All pledges made to the B. N. E. & E. will be due Sept. 1st.

Do not read this announcement with indifference. It may mean more than you think, whether or not your pledge made to the B. N. E. & E. is paid. At the close of this year of our work, on account of the financial depression, it has been exceedingly hard to raise money in the field, so it means more this year than it has ever meant before, or may ever mean again, whether these pledges are paid or not. It virtually means that the success or non success of this mission, in a large measure, depends upon those who have pledged to support it. Do not fail to send in the amount pledged, even though you have to make a sacrifice to do it.

This mission, while still so young, and just making a start in life, having at the very out-set to meet and contend with these exceptionally "hard times," should have your sympathy and support. Certainly this is a critical period in the life of this work, and your sympathy, sacrifice and support will be of much more value now than it will be when the work is firmly established.

Send all contributions and the amount of your pledge to General Convention.

Our great annual national gathering will be held in Richmond, Va., Oct. 19 to 26. It includes the Christian Women's Board of Missions, the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, and the General Christian Missionary Convention. Programmes of these anniversaries will be published in due time. Railroads will give reduced rates on the certificate plan. Details will be announced in our papers.

Let all of our State and other conventions entitled to representation, appoint full delegations and see that they attend. Let the brethren arrange to be present in large numbers. All inquiries necessary to the instruction of those desiring to attend should be adressed as below, and they will be cheerfully answered.

Pay up your subscription, send an offering from your church and then you will be ready for the Convention.

A Traveller's Experience.

THE LIFE OF A COMMERCIAL MAN NOT ALL SUNSHINE.

Constant Travel and Roughing It on Trains Weakens the Most Robust—The Experience of a Halifax Merchant While on the Road.

Acadian Recorder, Halifax, N. S.

Mr. Percy J. A. Lear, junior partner of the firm of Blackadar & Lear, general brokers, 60 Bedford Row, Halifax, N. S., comes from a family of commercial travellers. His father, James Lear, was on the road in Lower Canada with dry goods for twenty three years, and few men are more widely known and esteemed; and the genial Percy himself has just retired from the ranks of the drummer, after the varied experience as knight of the grip, which extended over seventeen years and embraced most every town and village in Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. He is an extremely popular young man, a leading member of the Oddfellows' fraternity, an officer in the 63rd regiment of militia, and a rising merchant.

"How comes it that you are so fat and ruddy after such a term of hustling railroad life and varied diet, Mr. Lear?" questioned the reporter.

"Well," was the answer, "it is a long story, but one well worth telling. I weigh 190 pounds to-day, and am in better health than I ever before enjoyed in my life. Two years ago I got down to 155 pounds. Constant travelling, roughing it on trains and in country hotels broke me all up and left me with a nasty case of kidney complaint and indigestion. My head was all wrong, my stomach bad; I was suffering continual pains and dizziness, and my urine was extremely thick and gravelly. I began to get scared. I consulted several physicians in Montreal, Winnipeg and other cities, but their treatment did not give me a particle of relief. One day I bought a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I made up my mind to give them a good trial. They seemed to help me, and I bought a second, third and fourth box, and they cured me. My stomach was all right, the dizziness left my head; no more lassitude, and all traces of my kidney disease disappeared. I was a new man, and gained flesh immediately, and have never been troubled since. I consider my case astonishing, because kidney complaint, especially gall stones, is hereditary in our family. It helped to hurry my father to an early grave, and my uncle, on my mother's side, Dr. Whittle, of Sydney, Australia, had been a chronic sufferer from gall stones from boyhood. I was so impressed with the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I took the trouble to send Dr. Whittle two boxes all the way to Australia. Since my discovery of the benefits of these wonderful little pink coated exterminators of disease, I have recommended the remedy far and wide, and I could enumerate dozens of cases where they have been efficacious."

Such well verified cases as the above proves the wonderful efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the treatment of all diseases of the nervous system, and stamps the remedy as unique in the annals of medicine. St. Vitus dance, locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, rheumatism, sciatica, chronic erysipelas, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, and all diseases depending upon a depraved condition of the blood, speedily yield to a treatment with the great medicine. By restoring the blood to a healthy condition, and rebuilding the nerves they speedily drive out disease and leave the patient in the enjoyment of vigorous health. They are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to women, and soon bring the rosy glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in troubles arising from overwork, mental worry or excesses of any nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at fifty cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

If we strive to lift the gloom
From a dark and burdened life;
If we seek to lull the storm
Of our fallen brother's strife;
If we bid all hate and scorn
From the spirit to depart,—
Tho' 'tis winter in the sky,
Yet 'tis summer in the heart!

A BOON FOR THE LADIES.

Those Wonderful CHRISTY KNIVES

A Set of Bread, Carving and Fruit Knives
= 3 =

Worth their Weight in Silver
but Sold for Less.

THE microscope has shown that every cutting edge is a saw edge, and that the keenest razor simply has the finest teeth—but it has been reserved for a new inventor to apply this well-known fact to practical use. The CHRISTY BREAD KNIFE has an edge running in a perfect curve, and sharpened from one side only, and when the edge is used on warm or light bread it divides it without crumbling or crushing it. This not only adds much to the neatness of the pantry and the table, but it saves a good deal of the refuse in cutting bread for sandwiches, toast, etc. The CHRISTY CARVING KNIFE is as much superior to any other carving knife as the bread knife is superior to the bread knives heretofore in use.

The PARING KNIFE is concaved slightly, or rather ground to a straight razor edge. It, like the other knives, has a skeleton steel wire handle by which it can be conveniently hung up when not in use.

For cutting bread, cakes, pies, salads, cucumbers, in thin slices, and fruit for display, these knives have no equal, being especially adapted to these purposes.

Can you cut now bread—really warm—into thin slices? No, you cannot with an ordinary knife, but with "that Wonderful Christy Bread Knife" it is easier than cutting stale bread with any other knife. It is the only one made that will cut bread perfectly, and it will cut hot bread as nicely as it will cold. It is not a machine, but a knife, and when used only for cutting bread will not require sharpening for years. When necessary sharpen with steel or whetstones like an ordinary knife.

MRS. EMMA P. EVING, late Professor of Domestic Economy in the Iowa Agricultural College, Iowa, and now in charge of the School of Cookery, Chateaufort, N. Y., writes:

"Those Wonderful Christy Knives do the work for which they were designed in an admirable manner, and should have a place in every well ordered family."

We have been looking for a Premium that would suit our lady friends, and we think we have found it, as described above, "A set of the Christy Knives." They are all that is claimed for them, and no woman who has ever used them would willingly be without them.

This is our offer:—

1. Any one sending us ONE new subscription to the EVANGELIST, and $1.50, will receive a set of the Christy Knives by mail, all charges paid.

2. Any one sending two new subscriptions to the EVANGELIST, and $2.25, will receive a set of the Christy Knives, all charges paid.

3. Any one sending THREE new subscriptions to the EVANGELIST, and $3.00, will receive a set of the Christy Knives free, all charges paid.

We hope to send out many sets of these knives, and we are confident that none who get them will be disappointed.

Now, friends, let us hear from you soon and often.
