

OUR WORD HUNT.

To the persons forming the largest list of words from the word

ZINCOTE,

we will give the following prizes:—

1st, "Hunting the Lion," bound in cloth; 2nd, 6 month subscription to "Farm, Field and Fireside;" 3rd, "St. Ronan's Well," by Sir Walter Scott; 4th, "The Missing Diamonds." To the next 5, a nice chromo.

CONDITIONS.

Only words found in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, latest edition, without the Supplement, to be used.

All lists must be arranged in alphabetical order and be numbered. No proper names, abbreviations, contractions, prefixes, suffixes, or obsolete words are to be used. No letter to be used twice in the formation of a word. Competitors must be subscribers to the ECHO; subscriptions may be sent in with the lists, however.

All lists must be in by Oct. 15th. Names of prize-winners will appear in the October number.

The prizes offered in our April contest on the word "Mineral" were awarded as follows:

	words
1st, Elias Keene, North Turner, Me.,	134
2nd, A. L. Lyon, Flemingville, Iowa,	132
3rd, Sherman Grim, Wind Ridge, Pa.,	126
4th, E. J. Garrison, Lineville, Ala.,	123
5th, Frank P. Lynn, Freeport, Ill.,	122
6th, J. E. Furry, Wilmington, Del.,	119
7th, Chas. S. Wilson, W. Imington, Del.,	117
8th, T. J. Stanton, 39 Madison St., N. Y.,	112
9th, Carence Ross, Mill Vi lage, Pa.,	110
10th, C. A. Kizer, Lawrenceville, Ohio,	108

We give any easy word this month and should like all word-hunters who receive a copy of this paper to make up a list from "Zincote" and send in at once. There were not a great many competitors on the word "Mineral" but we hope we shall have more lists in our new competition than in any of our former Word Hunts. The awards on the Scripture Word Hunt will be given in the September number.
