"No, indeed!" exclaimed Mrs. Podsnap energetically, "I don't believe in the extension of woman's suffrage at all. She suffers enough now."

A SEARCH WARRANT.—If there is any lurking taint of scrofula in the system, Burdock Blood Bitters are warranted to search it out.

There is a girl in Philadelphia so cross-eyed that she has to wear spectacles on her ears when she wants to read. The tears from her right eye flow down her left cheek.

The superiority of Mother Gray's Worm Exterminator is shown by its good effects on the children.

COUGHS AND COLDS.—If anything has failed, try Allen's Lung Balm, and be cured. See Adv.

"I wish my wife wasn't a politician," said Snifkins, sadly. "Why?" asked his friend. "Is she a Democrat?" "No, she's a bolter. She won't let me in after half-past ten o'clock at night."

HOPEFUL WORDS.—Mrs. McArthur, of Hopeville, Ont., says she could not keep house without Hagar's Pectoral Balm to cure prevailing throat and lung troubles.

"Do you know what the board over that cow's face is for?" asked the Colonel. "No," responded the Major, "unless it is to keep her blushes from being seen when the milkman works the pump-handle."

OTHER odorous waters undergo many variations of aroma as they fade into insipidity, but Murray & Lanman's Eucalypti Water passes through no such gradations, as it is when sprinkled upon the handkerchief or the garment, so it remains—delicate, refreshing, and delightful to the last.

"I should think you would need a military guard to keep the young men away," said a citizen to the father of six marriageable daughters. "Oh! I'm a pretty good foot soldier myself!" was the cheerful reply.

Corns cause intolerable pain. Hagar's Corn Cure removes the trouble.

Scene: City restaurant—First Client (in a hurry): "Waiter, fried sole!" Second ditto (ditto): "Waiter, fried sole! Fresh, mind." Waiter, (equal to the occasion, shouting down tube): "Two fried soles, one of 'em fresh!"

Alexis, Cyp., of Grant Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, writes: "Having used Northrop & Lyman's valuable Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, and derived great benefit from it, I take the liberty of asking you for quotations, and also whether you would be willing to give me the agency for this place, as I am confident there would be a large sale for it in this vicinity when its merits were made known."

"What do you want to set such a tough chicken before me for?" indignantly exclaimed a fair damsel in a restaurant the other day. "Age before beauty, always, you know, ma'am," replied the polite attendant, who well knew how to serve his employer and a tough chicken at the same time.

CHOLERA
— IS — COMING!

The countries where Cholera prevails, as in India, China and Africa, Pain-Killer is considered the surest and safest of all known remedies, and the natives place the most perfect reliance on it.

Read the following extract from the letter of a missionary in China

DEAR SIR:—I ought to have acknowledged long ago the box of Pain-Killer you had the goodness to send me last year. Its coming was most providential. I believe hundreds of lives were saved, under God, by it. The Cholera appeared here soon after we received it. We resorted at once to the PAIN-KILLER, using as directed for Cholera. A lot was kept of all those to whom the Pain-Killer was given, and our native assistants assured us that eight out of every ten to whom it was prescribed, recovered.

Believe me, dear sir, gratefully and faithfully yours.

J. M. JOHNSON,
Missionary to Swatow, China.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations. Ask for the genuine Perry Davis' Pain-Killer and take no other.
