

The Cape Breton Ry. Co., on Oct. 31, discontinued the train service on its line from Point Tupper to St. Peter's, N.S., about 30 miles. The line has been in operation since Sept., 1903, and the directors state that the company lost $10,000 upon its operations during that period.

R. W. Leonard, of St. Catharines, Ont., has contributed to the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, of which he is a member, a paper on some experiments on loss of heat from steam pipes.
