

Mr. Thos. Harris
1831

THE BRITISH NORTH AMERICAN
MAGAZINE,
AND COLONIAL JOURNAL.

Vol. I.]

FEBRUARY, 1831.

[No. 1.

CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
Introduction	1	France.—The Heiress of Bruges—Dowling's Statutes.—Deadly Adulteration.—The Life of Samuel Johnson.—The Sweepings of My Study; The Legal Observer	88
Correspondence—Original Poetry	3	Fine Arts.—Publications	85
Destruction of the Second Temple	8	The British Drama	89
The Demon Ship	11	Affairs in General	91
National Importance of Yachts	19	List of the Ministry	57
The Forger	23	Commercial and Money Market Report	92
My First Lord Mayor's Show	31	Colonial	94
The Enthusiast	37	Memoirs of Sir Robert Spencer	95
Memoirs Geo. IV.	45	List of New Books	96
Barry Cornwall	53
VARIETIES.—Lunar Eclipse.
—On the Sounds of the Peak of Teneriffe.—Australasia.—Order of Creation.—Principles of Geology.—Fossil Trees in an erect position.—Newspapers.—Connection of Diseases with the Rock formation.—Recollections of Palestine.—Insect Transformation
	60	POETRY.
Sarah Curran	70	Ode from Horace with translations	8
CRITICAL NOTICES.—Camden, a Tale of the South.—The Book of Scotland.—The Polar Regions.—History of
		The Coming of Winter	8
		The Soldier's Cemetery	22
		As fast and far	30
		The Forsaken One	35
		Horrible Stanzas	44
		The Broken Heart	52
		The Song of Beauty	59
		The Autumn Walk	68
		Remembrance	74

Printed by EDMUND WARD, at his Office nearly opposite to the Theatre, Granville Street. Subscriptions will be received by the Proprietors in this and the neighbouring Colonies, and by Messrs. WILCOX, FREDERICKSON and McMillan, St. John's, Brunswick, and at the Office of the Proprietor.