

The LYMAN BROS & CO, Limited.

T O R O N T O.

Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary

Lyman's Lightning Fly Paper

put up in five and ten cent packages,

Is In The Market to Stay.

Our competitors, instead of relying on ordinary commercial methods, apparently think to FRIGHTEN retailers into handling their goods instead of ours.

In the suit between Archdale Wilson & Co. and ourselves, the Court decided in our favor the main issue, holding that Wilson & Co. were not entitled to the exclusive use of the word "pad," as claimed.

WILSON vs. LYMAN JUDGMENT.

1. This action having on the 25th and 26th day of January, A.D. 1897, been tried before the Hon. Mr. Justice Rose, and the said the Hon. Mr. Justice Rose on the 28rd day of June, A.D., 1897, having adjudged that the way in which the defendants have put up their fly paper both as to the form, the envelopes, the packing into boxes and the ornamentation of the boxes, and the advertisements, was calculated to mislead.

2. IT IS THIS DAY ADJUDGED that the defendants, their servants, agents and workmen, be, and they are hereby, restrained from continuing to put up and advertise such paper so as to mislead.

3. AND THIS COURT DOES NOT THINK FIT TO MAKE ANY OTHER ORDER IN THE MATTER.

4. And it is further ordered that there be no costs of and incidental to the trial of this action to either party.

Do not be mislead.

All we ask is that dealers shall sell our goods as ours.

We will do the rest.

We are substituting this season for the old wooden boxes new and attractive cardboard ones which will prove an ornament to any shop.
