

Roche M. D. No. III, July, 1826. Philadelphia. In exchange. pp. 216 in each Number. Price 5 dollars per annum. Quarterly.

There being also no Agent in this country for this Journal, application is to be made to M. J. Dobson, No. 103, Chestnut-Street, Philadelphia.

To those of our subscribers who might be prevented from subscribing to any of these Journals from the difficulty of procuring them, we readily offer our services in transmitting their request to any of the above accredited Agents.

Examination of a work entitled, Recherches pratiques sur la Fièvre Jaune.—Par A. J. Dariste, M. D. of the Royal Academies of Paris, &c. Respectfully presented to the Director, Sr. Dr. Don. Jose Maria Varo, to the President, Vice-President, Secretaries and Members of the Academy of Practical Medicine of Mexico, by their most obedient and much honoured Fellow-corresponding Member, Felix Pascalis, M. D.

Remarks on the Theory of Pain.—By the same author.

The former of these being less interesting to the Canadian readers, we will insert the latter in our next number.

Paris, 16 Aout, 1826.—On assure que la Police a fait saisir un ouvrage intitulé : Biographie des Médecins Français. Un Médecin estimable et éclairé, M. R. Th. H. Laennec, est mort le 13 de ce mois, à Kerlouarnec, près Donarnené, dans le Finistère. Il était né à Quimper en 1781. Ce grand homme est bien connu dans tout le monde, et sa perte est vivement ressentie par tous les amis des sciences.

TO AUTHORS AND PUBLISHERS.

The Editor respectfully solicits an exchange with all Editors and Publishers of Medical or other scientific and literary periodical publications, whatever be their shape or size, or their distance from Quebec. They may be sent by Post, with this address, "Dr. Tessier, Quebec."

Authors are earnestly requested to send their work for notice and analysis in this Journal.