

British Columbia

Canada's Most Productive and Progressive Province

Millions of Acres of Agricultural Land Awaiting Settlers.

Splendid Opportunities for: Mixed Farming, Fruit Growing,
Dairying, Stock Raising.

Largest Coal Fields in America.

Most Extensive Stand of Timber in Canada.
Inexhaustible Fisheries.

Immense Deposits of Gold, Silver, Copper, Lead and Iron.

Last year (1912) the people of British Columbia, 392,500 (including Indians and Asiatics), produced:

Minerals	$32,600,000
Lumber	28,750,000
Fish	13,677,000
Agriculture	21,641,000
Manufactures	45,000,000
<hr/>
Total	$141,668,000

Total Trade (1911) aggregated $69,000,000.

One Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars Is Being Expended on Railways.

An Ever Increasing Demand for All Products of the Farm.

For further information regarding British Columbia, apply to

The Secretary

Bureau of Information, Victoria, B. C.